

Charlie House Launches His Canoe, 'Green Apple,' on Fierce Ottawa River

BY CHARLES HOUSE
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Montreal — I ate a hearty breakfast this morning because this is the day I start my battle with the angry Ottawa river.

I will put in at the Lake of Two Mountains, Vaudeville, just outside of Montreal on the site of perhaps a million camps for the voyageurs of old, and of many for Jean Nicolet.

Nicolet is my alter ego for this assignment for he is of importance to Wisconsin history. He rides my canoe with me. I shall be glad of his company.

My long voyage into the wilderness will take me over the subsided wake of Nicolet's canoe — Hundreds of miles up the reluctant Ottawa, then south into the Mattawa, across Lake Nipissing, down the rapids and white waters of the French river.

There, I travel, canoe — bound, into Lake

Huron, Georgian Bay, its North Channel, through what I hope is inaccurately called Death's Door, through the Straits of Mackinac, across the arm of Lake Michigan and into Green Bay.

There, if I can find it! I will land at Red Banks where Nicolet landed in 1634.

Perhaps I may rest at Green Bay, if the editor is as kind as were the Winnebagoes who met Nicolet and served up several thousand beavers as food for the Nicolet-Indian feasts.

First White Man

The Indians there had never seen a white man. Nicolet's landing was a feat of such proportions that I cannot wish to attain, for it was his brave voyage which discovered Wisconsin — the site of it — to the civilized world.

Then, as Nicolet did, I must travel on.

He learned from the Winnebagoes that he must see the beautiful Fox river. Some historians believe he landed at Menasha at the island village of the Winnebago where there is now a monument to the occasion. He then went into Lake Winnebago where I, too, shall go to terminate my voyage.

I do not know how long this trail shall take me. I must first test the muscles of the Ottawa which Nicolet, himself, called fierce and raging.

I have seen my canoe which is named the Green Apple in honor of my two newspapers—one in Green Bay, the other in Appleton.

She is pert and prim and I have a feeling that we are to become intimate friends. She's a 16-footer weighing about 70 pounds. Made to suit me by a Quebec firm, her duties will test her every fiber.

My small, 3½ horsepower engine purrs nicely and I have much confidence in it for the long climb to Wisconsin. It replaces the seven Huron Indians who paddled Nicolet's canoe.

I have few plans. I shall visit places where Nicolet stopped, and use the ancient camping sites of the voyageurs and coureurs de bois (Rangers of the woods).

Nicolet's voyage required round-trip time of almost a year. He spent much time visiting Indians for the purpose of establishing friendly relations with the French, who — seeking the legendary Northwest Passage to the China seas — were to follow him as I do but not for the same reason.

Nicolet's Purpose

The purpose of Nicolet's voyage in 1634 was to seek people who were known to other Indians as "The people of the sea."

That single phrase stimulated Champlain to send his young emissary on the history-making trip into the wilderness.

It has not been recovered that the young explorer was disappointed when he learned that "The people of the sea" did not live on the ocean which he sought, but he must have been greatly depressed when he learned the truth.

"The people of the sea" were the Winnebago, whose own legends and month-to-month tales over the centuries indicated that once, perhaps a thousand years before, they had lived near the shores of an ocean far to the west.

The name of the Winnebago is derived from an Algonquian word "quinnipig" which translates to "bad-smelling water" which is what they called the oceans.

But the voyage of Nicolet and his Huron companions opened the west. Wisconsin, then as now, is unique in the geography of North America. It opened the way to the Mississippi, to the Gulf of Mexico and to the ocean.

Few men have made so great a contribution to history. So come aboard, Le Sieur Jean Nicolet. We're off!

OP Budget Turned Down by Assembly

Conferees Must Attempt to Put End to Deadlock

Madison — The assembly Wednesday night rejected a Republican substitute to Gov. Gaylord Nelson's one-year budget and sent it back to the senate. The Republican-controlled senate is expected to insist on retaining the substitute, eating a deadlock and forcing the budget bill into a conference committee.

No Postponement

Gov. Nelson indicated earlier in the week that he'd be satisfied if his figures were adopted for the first year of a biennium and the GOP agrees to call the legislature back this fall to revise the second year figures.

Assembly rejection of the substitute came on a 54-41 vote-line vote. Republicans, meeting in caucus before the

Women at Monroe War On Mailbox

Monroe — Creeping girdles and split seams have the local ladies in short temper. A mailbox and Postmaster John F. Burkhard's refusal to move it get the blame.

Sens. Wiley and Proxmire are going to hear about it.

The mailbox stands in front of the post office on a one-way street, making it necessary for drivers alone in their cars to slide across the seat to deposit their letters.

Everybody Unhappy

This causes girdles and tempers to rise and seams to split, complain the ladies. The box will remain where it is, said Burkhard, postmaster since 1925. He explained:

"In cold weather, an employee can run outside to get the mail without putting on a coat. If the box were moved across the street, he's have to put on a coat. Besides, it's dangerous to cross the street."

Sens. Wiley and Proxmire were asked in a long letter mailed Wednesday to help in getting Burkhard to change his mind.

City Council, State Senate Reject Ban On Teenage Beer

Ald. Stumpf Reports He'll Make Another Recommendation

A prohibition on sale of beer to minors Wednesday failed to pass both the Appleton city council and the state senate in Madison.

Aldermen voted 16-to-0 to strike the recommendation of the council's welfare and ordinance committee. State senators voted 18-to-14 against the ban.

The council action does not prevent reintroduction of the idea for another vote, but a statement today by one chief backer of a ban indicates the specific recommendation is dead.

The state senate vote is considered decisive enough to kill the issue on the state level for this year.

Stumpf Explains

Ald. Robert Stumpf, whose resolution at the May 6 meeting forced a committee decision, said today the all-inclusive ban is dead, but he will propose another at Tuesday's meeting of the committee.

"I am not opposed to beer for older teenagers," he said today. "My sole aim in this has been to obtain some measure of control on beer drinking."

Toward that end, he said, he intends to ask the committee to recommend an amendment which will restrict sale of beer to youths between 18 and 21 for consuming on licensed premises.

Three Reasons

This, he said, will permit sale of beer to minors in so-called teenage taverns, but forbid it everywhere else. He said he believes the necessary measure of control can be found this way.

Stumpf listed three reasons why he moved Wednesday, when the recommendation was read, to have it referred.

Yacht Aground in Lake Michigan Near Cedar Grove

Sheboygan — A 56-foot yacht with three men aboard notified the coast guard today it had run aground and was in danger of breaking up two miles south of Cedar Grove in Lake Michigan.

John Herman of Chicago, owner of the yacht Jarion, told the coast guard by radio that the craft ran aground after leaving Sheboygan for Chicago in a dense fog.

Herman is president of the John Herman Manufacturing company of Chicago, makers of canvas products. Also aboard were two Green Bay men, Vernon Bessert and Bernard Ferry, both employed at the Steffe Freight company terminal in that city.

Some residents said the storm descended in what they called a "big, black, rumbling cloud."

One resident on a peninsula near Galveston declared "it definitely was a tornado."

"I heard it coming," said Mrs. Jerry Simpson of Port Bolivar. "It sounded like a jet plane. A house was picked up and a house near where I live was moved 40 feet."

Kids' Kolum Used More Than Last Year

The classified section's annual Kids Kolum closed Wednesday. In all, during the eight days the free ads for youngsters series ran, 1,627 business men and women from 6 to 15 placed their advertising messages in the section. That's 318 more than in 1958.

The kids offered everything from baby sitting services to rabbit couples for sale. Ads were composed by the youngsters themselves and ran just as they worded and spelled them.

Panel Suggests Full-Time County Development Agent

Governor's Conference Told Part-Time Help Not Enough

BY JACK GLASNER
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Green Lake — A full-time, salaried county level industrial development agent—similar to the present agricultural county agent—is needed for Wisconsin counties, a panel here agreed Wednesday.

Discussing community action histories, the panel was part of a 2-day governor's conference on industrial development sponsored by the Wisconsin division of industrial and port development.

Speakers from Grant and Manitowoc counties, where development associations and committees have been formed under the direction of county boards, maintained there is no reason a county should not have a full-time agent. Part-time, volunteer workers are not enough, declared Mrs. Sally Clapp, executive secretary of the Grant County Industrial Development committee, herself a volunteer worker.

Cost $15,000

Estimated cost with a full-time man is about $15,000 annually, said William C. Wolium, chairman of the Manitowoc County Association for Industrial Development.

"We have a county agent whose job it is to go around and ask farmers how they are doing," Wolium explained. "If you're a small businessman and go belly up, there is no one around to ask anything—you're just dead."

Wolium, a county board member, pointed out the county level industrial development office should be a branch or continuation of the state department, but a full-time operation. At present, he explained, the Manitowoc ef-

Man, Boy Give Appleton Kiwanis Unique Look at Edge of Eternity

BY JAY REED
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

A man and a boy who walked with death Wednesday gave the Kiwanis club a look at the edge of eternity.

Raymond "Pat" Kavanaugh, route 3, Kaukauna, a man grateful for the life that was nearly taken from him, and Mike Bauman, a bright-eyed lad whose youth has spared him the clutching horror of remembering brush with death, were stars of the club meeting aimed at giving members a closer look at the fire department's rescue equipment.

Kavanaugh, tanned and untouled now, joked modestly about Wednesday, May 11, 1955—the day he almost died.

Then 45, he was working on the S. Lawe street bridge project when—and he is unable yet to say exactly why—he fell from a scaffold into the muddy, swirling waters of the Fox river canal.

His fall started a chain reaction which gave him back his life. An office worker at Riverside Paper company, Mrs. Dorothy Kennedy, a guest at Wednesday's meeting, gave the first alarm.

Donald Esler, Oshkosh, working on the tailrace bridge just north of the Lawe street structure, boarded a boat with Norman Abitz, then Riverside traffic manager.

With bystanders directing the boat to the spot where Kavanaugh disappeared, Esler located Kavanaugh with a pike pole in about eight feet of water.

While Kavanaugh told his story, little Mike sat quietly beside his father at the speaker's table oblivious to the drama of which he was a part.

Mike's father told the story of how, on a warm March Monday, in 1956, the boy, then 3½, fell into a swollen creek behind the Bauman home at route 3, Appleton, and was carried into a culvert, where he became wedged against a stake.

"I had seen the boy playing in the yard about 20 minutes before he fell," Esler said.

Emergency treatment continued until Kavanaugh showed enough signs of life to be taken to a hospital.

"It's funny," he says now, "the things that go through your mind I thought of my kids, mostly, and of home. I'm lucky and I know I owe my life to a lot of people. I guess the angels didn't want me and the devil wouldn't take me."

Fire department rescue personnel worked over the man who had been in the water more than eight minutes. The department precursor was pressed into use and an ambulance stood by with additional equipment. An employee of Riverside, then Miss Madonna Brunner, Menasha, detected a slight pulse beat.

36 Others Named but Not Indicted

New York — The power of the federal government today was turned upon the notorious 1957 underworld convention at Apalachin, N.Y., with 27 delegates indicted on charges of conspiring to balk an inquiry into the group's activities.

Arrests of the defendants quickly got underway. Many already were in trouble, and some in jail, as a result of refusal to answer questions of various investigatory agencies previously.

The top-level crackdown was the result of nearly a year's effort by a special crime-hunting agency set up by the U.S. attorney general's office, with teams of agents working across the nation.

The Apalachin delegates came from many cities and authorities have been struggling since the very day it was held to try to peg its purpose. The general opinion is that it was for tightening or altering control over a vast empire of rackets.

27 Named as Defendants

Participants have given probes no satisfaction in interrogation after interrogation. Thus the federal indictment apparently was a sort of last-ditch means to jail them and break up their operations, if possible.

All 63 persons who attended the convolve were named in the indictment but only 27 as defendants.

The remaining 36 were tabbed as co-conspirators. A federal spokesman said a person named a co-conspirator but not a defendant is someone who had a connection with one or more defendants in a case but whose activities did not warrant an indictment. Such persons are not arrested.

Occasionally co-conspirators agree to aid or testify in behalf of the prosecution. There was no comment on this score from authorities.

Not Likely to Talk

The latter possibility seemed remote in this instance, however, because of the clamor-like attitude heretofore maintained by the Apalachinites in the face of repeated grillings.

If convicted of conspiracy to obstruct justice, as charged in the indictment, the 27 defendants could receive 5-year prison sentences and $10,000 fines each.

The indictment had been

Big 4 Dinner May Be Turning Point

'Social Event' at Herter's Villa Offers Opportunity for Ministers To Grasp Basics in Private Talks

Geneva — (AP) — Sec. of State Christian A. Herter will meet with the other big four foreign ministers tonight at a dinner which could prove a turning point in the wily negotiations over a summit conference agreement.

Some high diplomats attached great importance to the dinner, though it is billed as "purely social."

British and French officials said the assembly of 12 top men of the big four conference at Herter's villa offered an opportunity to get away from the repetitive formal debate of the regular sessions and come to grips with basic problems.

They even spoke of a possible series of such social affairs as a means of swinging the conference into more private negotiations.

U.S. officials, however, attempted to dampen growing interest in the dinner. They said there was no thought beforehand on Herter's part of trying to get any conference work done or to promote any secret diplomacy.

Officials of all three western delegations conceded that it was literally impossible to predict ahead of time what would happen because Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko might create an opening or make a move which they cannot anticipate.

Gromyko is already beginning to prod the three western ministers into letting them know what their terms are for agreement on a summit conference. Herter, Britain's Selwyn Lloyd and Maurice Couve de Murville of France are reported playing hard to get, chiefly because France and West Germany — meaning President Charles de Gaulle and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer — have insisted this is the best bargaining line to take.

Secret Negotiations

With the debate on contradictory Soviet and Western German peace plans continuing but getting nowhere in the main conference sessions, the question all four big power delegations are now worrying about is how and when to start secret negotiations.

East and West German delegations were not invited to

Accuse Man of Plot to Have Rival Killed

Soldier of Fortune Says He Was Given Two $250 Payments

South Pasadena, Calif. — (AP) — A soft-spoken electronics engineer was arrested last night and accused of plotting a "kill now, pay later" conspiracy to eliminate a love rival.

Police said they jailed Arthur Herbert Reeser Smith, 50, of Pasadena, after he turned over the second of two $250 payments and a promissory note for $1,500 to Charles Hitchcock Johnston, 41, also of Pasadena.

Smith was booked in the county jail on suspicion of soliciting another person to commit murder.

Johnston, who described himself as an ex-soldier of fortune, told police Smith hired him to kill another man he said was alienating a girl friend's affections.

Poison Gas

Johnston said Smith suggested he use poison gas. "But as a soldier of fortune used to killing," Johnston quoted Smith as saying, "you must have a favorite method of your own. I don't care how you do it, but get the job done."

Dist. Atty.'s Investigator C. A. Pantaleoni told this story: Smith approached Johnston May 4 and asked him about an Pasadena newspaper, offering to undertake dangerous missions for money. He offered Johnston $2,000 to kill Joseph D. Reed, a former teacher at Santa Fe, N.M., High school.

Smith said Reed had come between him and Elaine Worthington, 40, a teacher at the New Mexico school. Johnston notified South Pasadena police.

Romance Over

Detective Sgt. Donald Roberts said he met Smith May 13, told him he was working with Johnston and got the first $250 down payment. Last night he said he got the second payment. He said the remainder was to be paid after Reed was killed.

Pantaleoni said that Miss Worthington moved last year from Los Angeles to Santa Fe. There she met Reed. Last Thanksgiving she told Smith that their romance was over.

Basic Problem In Education Not Finances

PTAs Say It Is How To Bring Up Youth To Be Good Adult

Denver — (AP) — To many Americans the basic problem in education is strictly financial—we need more money for more schools, more classrooms, more teachers.

To the 114 million members of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, it's not that simple. To them the basic problem is: "How do we educate the youth of today to be the responsible adult of tomorrow?"

More than 3,000 PTA members from across the country have just concluded a 4-day convention here. They were more concerned with delinquency than dollars, more interested in children than in bond issues.

Pressing Problem

The Associated Press asked the delegates to name the most pressing education problem. Here are some of their answers:

Educate all our young people to the best of their ability. We need more discipline and fewer thrills. Teaching our children allegiance to life's true values. We must do more to make our children want to stay in school. Special programs for exceptional children—the mentally retarded, the gifted, the handicapped.

These are the intangibles, the problems that are seldom aired in congressional hearings or voiced by the professional worriers about American education. These are the problems that the PTA takes to its heart.

Presbyterian Church Elects New Moderator

Indianapolis — (AP) — A man who grew up on a farm and now is minister of one of the largest churches in his denomination will preside over affairs of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. for the next year.

Dr. Arthur L. Miller, senior minister of Denver's Montview Boulevard church, which has 4,000-plus members, was elected and installed yesterday afternoon as moderator of the largest Presbyterian body in the United States.

Dr. Miller was elected over Dr. Herman L. Turner of Atlanta, Ga., and Dr. Henry S. Randolph of New York City and Tionesta, Pa. Miller received 496 votes on the first ballot, Turner 223, and Randolph 222. Miller's election was made unanimous on the motion of Turner.

Drag Racing Youth Convicted Of Manslaughter

St. Louis — (AP) — A teenaged drag racer accused of causing a traffic accident that killed three persons was convicted of manslaughter yesterday.

Robert Clarence Fennwald, 18, of St. Louis county, was sentenced to one year in jail and fined $1,000 by circuit Judge Theodore McMillian. The jury deliberated an hour and 45 minutes.

State witnesses said Fennwald was racing at speeds of more than 100 miles an hour last Nov. 23 in North St. Louis just before the accident.

Witnesses said Fennwald forced the car he was racing into the wrong lane where it collided with another car. Racing with Fennwald were Walter Schweppe, 31, and his brother, Gerald, of suburban Bellefontaine. The Schweppe car hit a machine driven by Gerald Miles, 18, of St. Louis. All were killed. Fennwald did not testify and his attorneys presented no witnesses.

Flying Bank Robber Handed 25-Year Term

But Series of Other Prison Sentences May Be Given Notorious Frank Sprenz

Cincinnati — (AP) — A 25-year prison sentence stretches ahead for Frank L. Sprenz and that's only the first of a series of prison terms that could be handed out to the 29-year-old "flying bank robber."

Sprenz, handcuffed and wearing leg irons, was brought into U. S. district court here yesterday where he pleaded guilty to the $25,955 armed robbery of a branch of the First National bank at Hamilton, Ohio, last March 2.

Surprise Move

Judge John H. Druffel imposed the 25-year term. Then, in a surprise move, Sprenz signed waivers to allow transfer here from Vermont, Pennsylvania and Maryland of federal charges of automobile and airplane thefts.

He will be arraigned on those charges later. After that comes a trial in Butler county, Ohio, on a state charge of bank robbery in the Hamilton holdup. Still later, he'll stand trial in Summit county, Ohio, where he is wanted for armed robbery and jail breaking.

When all of those other charges are disposed of Sprenz will start serving the 25-year term imposed yesterday. Any sentences given him in the state courts will have to be served after the federal terms are completed.

Report Negro Pastor Denied Room in Club

Indianapolis — (AP) — Reports that a Negro minister was denied a room at a swank downtown club circulated today at the auditorium where the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. is holding its 171st annual general assembly.

A block of rooms had been reserved at the Columbia club for the church delegates. When some of them arrived Dr. Jesse Barber of New York, a Negro, said he was told he could not stay there. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, the chief executive officer of the church, announced that in that case none of the delegates would stay at the club. Other quarters were found for them.

The club manager, Robert Wilson, told newsmen he knew of no such incident. But John M. Smith, chairman of the local assembly arrangements committee, and Drs. Blake and Barber confirmed it.

The controversy has not been mentioned in the assembly and indications were that it would not be brought up of a uniform system of property condemnation.

Railroad Retirement Bill Signed

Washington — (AP) — President Eisenhower has signed a bill to increase retirement and unemployment benefits to the nation's railroad workers.

The president made no comment in taking the action. The bill, which came out of congress May 5, was opposed by railroad management as unduly costly and out of line with social security benefits paid in other lines of work.

It raises the retirement benefits of approximately 840,000 railroad employees by 10 per cent and increases unemployment benefits by 20 per cent, effective June 1.

Both railroads and workers will pay higher payroll taxes to cover the increases. Checks of about 364,000 already retired workers will be raised from $118 to $130 a month.

Payments to 133,000 wives or husbands of deceased workers will be raised from $52 to $57 a month. Despite complaints from the railroads, the bill went through congress easily. President Eisenhower had called for action on railroad retirement benefits, but his position on this specific bill was not announced in advance.

Oppose Bill Written To Provide Uniform Condemnation Laws

Madison — (AP) — A state highway commission representative Wednesday opposed a bill designed to provide a uniform method of condemning private property for public use.

Charles Ahner of Madison told the senate highway committee the bill is "very confusing and would raise many administrative problems that would be extremely difficult or impossible to solve."

He said the proposed legislation was drafted too hurriedly and does not represent the views of all interested areas. Present right-of-way access laws are working well, he added.

The bill would revise and consolidate all laws relating to eminent domain and set up a uniform system of property condemnation.

Police Believe They Know the Identity of Edna Mauch Slayer

Evidence Points to Prison Inmate; Officials Want More Information

Milwaukee — (AP) — New evidence points to a prison inmate as the rape slayer of Mrs. Edna Mauch, 57, who was beaten to death in her home last summer, police in suburban Wauwatosa said Wednesday night.

Capt. Alvin J. Basting said, "We think he is the man we want for the Mauch killing. In my opinion he could have been involved. We are looking for a little more information, enough to take him into court."

Basting refused to identify the wanted man, described as 37 and now serving a term in Wisconsin but refused to say where the man is being held or on what charge he was sentenced.

"Such information would not help our investigation," the officer said. Basting said the man was questioned soon after the slaying and released when he claimed he was with another man. The other man was found recently and the alibi crashed when he said the two were not together.

Mrs. Mauch was beaten to death with a building brick wrapped in an argyle sock as she slept in her home Aug. 9. Her husband, Albert, was asleep in another room and told police he heard nothing.

Classmate Held For Hatchet Attack on Girl

Asheville, N. C. — (AP) — Rosa Waterson, 20, who was attacked by a hatched-wielding classmate while asleep in her college dormitory room early yesterday, remained in critical condition at a hospital here today.

Buncombe county Sheriff Miss Waterson, Miss Dennis, Laurence E. Brown said her assailant, Patricia Dennis, 22, Lyndhurst, Ohio, is being held on an open charge.

The two are first-year students at Warren Wilson Junior College, N. C. Authorities said Miss Dennis told them she was jealous of Miss Waterson because she had taken her friends away.

The sheriff said Miss Dennis hid a hatchet and knife in her room Tuesday night. She awoke and went to Miss Waterson's room at 4:40 a. m., he said.

Other girls heard screams and rushed to the room. Miss Betty Ferrell, 20, of Orgas, W. Va., was cut on the arm while trying to pull the girls apart. The college is a 2-year coeducational school with about 200 students. It is operated under auspices of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A.

Freshman Enrollment Up, Regents Declare

Madison — (AP) — The board of state college regents said Wednesday that the number of students accepted as freshmen for next fall's classes at its institutions is up 12 per cent over last May.

A total of 2,383 students have been accepted so far, compared with 2,136 in May of 1958.

The board said freshmen enrollments have been steadily increasing since the post-war low in 1952. At all the college dormitory space is being sought at a brisk pace. Officials at Oshkosh and Whitewater said men's dormitories were filled on May 1, with waiting lists building up.

Effects of Tobacco Vary on Different People, Says Doctor

By Joseph G. Molner, M.D.

"Dear Dr. Molner: I have had two heart attacks in the past year. I've smoked since I was 17 and enjoy it very much. Under these circumstances do you think it would be beneficial to stop smoking entirely? Or would cutting the cigarettes to half a Dr. Molner pack be all that is necessary? I am 46 now."

"One feels that all the enjoyments have been taken away—no coffee, no salt, etc.—Mrs. L."

You're asking me to agree with you, aren't you? Well, I'll give you a straight answer. But I want to tuck in a few added thoughts first.

You've read this column for some time, and you know that I persistently preach the idea of moderation in all things. And the disadvantages of excesses of almost anything—tobacco, coffee, salt, alcohol, or eating in general.

Now as to the effect of smoking or heart trouble, opinions differ, but I'll say this: Nobody approves of heavy smoking for anyone, especially one with heart disease. Some authorities—and good ones, too—will allow an occasional smoke. They believe that the habitual smoker will thereby get some relief from the anxiety and tension caused by a complete cut-off, and that this relief (if an occasional cigarette will provide it) is less harmful than the tension.

Others say that stopping completely is better. You didn't say what type of heart attacks you had, but I presume they were coronary, or coronary occlusions, the usual type of attack.

Actually, the use of tobacco must depend on the effect it has on you. Not everybody reacts in exactly the same way. In some it will cause extra heart beats, which means added work for the heart. In others it causes spasm of the arteries, a restriction of blood flow, and hence more work for the heart. In others, smoking causes dizziness, which also is to be avoided. And in still others moderate smoking seems to have no effect at all.

Give Up Smoking
So, with such room for difference of opinion, what's my advice? I'd say that, since you've had two attacks in one year, you'd be smart to give up smoking entirely. One thing we know: Physiologically it does one no good, and it may do harm. Two attacks in one year are a warning. So be careful.

Further, this matter of cutting down is not all it seems to be. It takes a lot of will power, and most of us, unless we stop altogether find it very hard to avoid the gradual slide into heavier smoking.

As to coffee, salt and the joys of life, I'd suggest this. There are coffee substitutes (without caffeine) and there are salt substitutes which are quite flavorful. They avoid the sodium, which is the element in salt which causes trouble in cases like yours. Give them a try. You'll find that the world isn't as dismal as you thought.

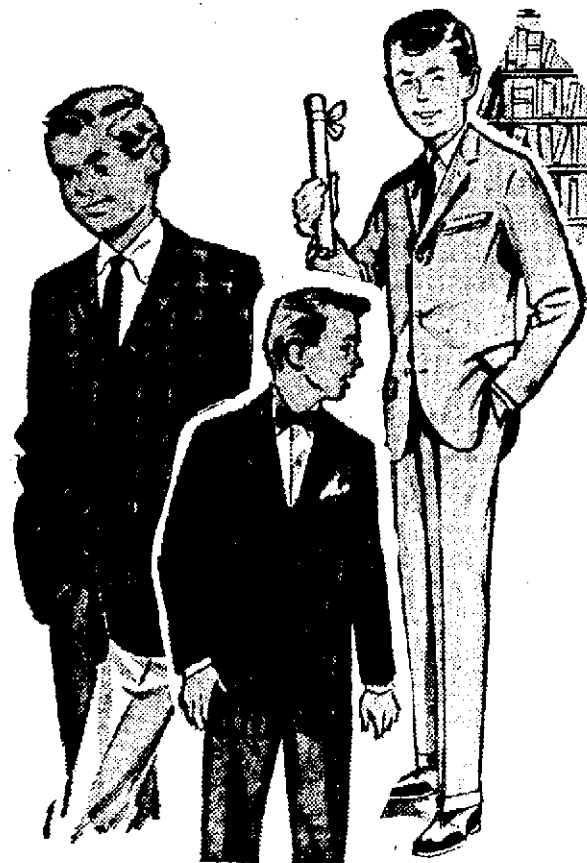

Snoring Problem
"Dear Dr. Molner: Is there anything one can do for snoring? This has developed in the last year. I am told I do not sleep with my mouth open, and do not sleep on my back. It has reached such a stage that no one else can sleep in the same room.—B.H."

You mention the two usual remedies—using a chin strap to keep the mouth closed often helps; not lying on the back often does, too. After that, my only suggestion is examination to see if some defect has developed in the nose or throat. The snoring sound is caused by the fluttering of tissue somewhere, usually the soft palate.

Forget It
NOTE TO E.P.: You say, "I've caught myself talking to myself several times in the last few years." So what, my friendly reader? I've wound up talking to myself oftener than that, and so has any active-minded reader. Forget it!

Held in Jail
Castellano, Lombardozzi, and Miranda are among those jailed here already for refusing to answer questions of the state investigation commission.

Almost every agency of the law, from county to federal, has been involved in the Apalachin probe from one standpoint or other.

Barbara himself has waged a long battle to avoid questioning, on the ground that it would endanger his life because of his heart ailment.

Last month, however, he was forced into federal court in Syracuse, N. Y., to answer to a charge of evading $14,600 in income taxes between 1952 and 1956. He pleaded innocent.

The indictment made public here today contended that the Apalachin delegates knew that they were going to be called before various grand juries probing the affair in cities throughout the nation, and that they conspired to withhold from them the true facts of the gathering.

The indictment said they planned to do this by "giving false, fictitious and evasive" testimony.

Listed in the indictment as overt acts were statements made by the defendants to New York City and State Police in Nassau county, N. Y., investigating committees of Carmine Lombardozzi, Brooklyn; Antonio Magaddino, Niagara Falls, N. Y.; Frank T. Majuri, Elizabeth, N. J.; Michele Miranda, Forest New York and California.

GOP Budget Turned Down

vote was taken, considered an attempt to postpone the inevitable rejection by Democrats. They decided this would merely slow down the session.

The GOP substitute asks a total money outlay of about $363 million during the biennium, including $11 million for buildings. Nelson's budget, figured over two years, calls for about $371 million and does not include building funds.

Best estimates placed the Republican's first year total, excluding building funds, at $184,200,000 or about $300,000 under Nelson's first-year proposal. The first year of the biennium begins July 1.

A Republican-sponsored bill to liberalize the state definition of total disability was given preliminary approval, 71-29, and sent to the finance committee. Ewald Schmeichel, R-Two Rivers, introduced it.

The bill, which would cost the state $800,000 a year, carries out a recommendation made by the governor in his budget message. It would permit the state to obtain an additional $1,400,000 in federal funds for disabled persons, now carried on local relief rolls.

Other bills given preliminary approval and sent to the finance committee would: Permit killing of bears damaging farm crops.

Set up an interim committee to study timber marketing and forest management problems.

Permit employees of local governmental units to form and join labor unions.

State Congressmen Vote in Favor of Support Loan Limit

Washington—All 10 Wisconsin representatives lined up in favor Wednesday as the house voted 261-165 to limit to $50,000 Commodity Credit Corporation farm price support loan contracts.

The vote:
Democrats for — Flynn, Johnson, Kastenmeier, Reuss, and Zablocki.

Republicans for — Byrnes, O'Rourke, Van Pelt and With-row.

Republican Laird was announced as paired. A pair is a device which permits members not actually voting to have their position recorded as part of the roll-call.

fort is directed to advising town, village and city development units and maintaining a list of industrial sites.

Land Needed
Main efforts, he explained, are to get towns, villages and cities to actively promote their own development corporations or associations. Last year, he added, a county-wide clinic was set up during which committees for each governmental unit were started to coordinate their efforts.

Industry does not locate in a county, but in a specific spot in a county, hence the emphasis on local action, Wolcum explained. He added that counties could spend up to $5,000 annually on promotion, but said each governmental unit should prepare its own brochure, with no generalized county-wide pamphlet.

First in State
Mrs. Clapp explained that Grant county was the first in the state to form an industrial development unit and the main object has been to concentrate information on industrial sites in one place in the county. The plans for the unit are to conduct an economic survey, distribute a brochure, choose the city, the Greater Fond du Lac corporation has sold land for 10 new plants in the area, employing 1,012 people.

Values Tripled
Suggestions for development units offered by Mills included learning grades of existing utilities and furnishing a topographical map of the site, platting wide roads and determining railroad spurs, thorough knowledge of all zoning restrictions in the area with particular attention to possible height restrictions around an airport, annexation plans, close contact with town and village officials and closer contact with nearby land owners, since the development corporation may have to buy their land some day.

Fond du Lac Successful
Loss of one industry and exploration of options on industrial land held by the Fond du Lac Chamber of Commerce led to quick action when the chamber talked with the head of an outboard motor company in 1946, Richard W. Mills, executive chamber secretary, said. Within 10 days of talking with the motor firm, now the largest employer in the city, the Greater Fond du Lac corporation had been formed and bought 115 acres of land. The motor firm purchased the land at full price from the corporation.

The chamber's interest in new industry stemmed from a post-war survey indicating a need for more jobs, Mills explained. Since the first industry attracted shoe firm, Lake Mills sponsored a town and country day, with combined local and rural activities, exhibits and merchandising, which led to renewed interest in the moving development unit, Pirwitz explained. A shoe firm, formed by officers of one which left the city, went into business and when it needed a warehouse the city gave it one with volunteer labor and materials, he said. The empty plant of another firm was purchased by a Madison firm, which borrowed funds to build a building for $80,000 from the development unit to remodel the building,

The reasons:
1. The committee, which voted unanimously in favor of the ban earlier was reported just before the council meeting as split 3-to-2 against the ban. He said Ald. Tucker, Mueller and Schumacher had changed their minds.

2. The Appleton Ministerial

The money was raised by local subscription in a week, including $50,000 in an hour at a mass meeting.

Another industry, from Evanston, Ill., has chosen Lake Mills as a site, purchasing five acres held by the city. By 1960, Pirwitz declared, Lake Mills will have passed the 1957 employment figure of 500 to between 600 and 700. Four things are necessary for obtaining new industry, he explained — a labor supply, labor and materials, he said. The empty plant of another firm was purchased by a Madison firm, which borrowed funds to build a building for $80,000 from the development unit to remodel the building, association, which had backed the ban in a letter to the council also was reported as split. Three of the four aldermen who were absent, Bogan, Malmstrom, Priebe and Wagner, had pledged him their support.

On the council floor Wednesday, Stumpf withdrew his motion to refer back after Ald. Groh asked whether anything would be accomplished. Groh said the recommendation could be expected to come back in two weeks in the same form, because it was going back to the same committee.

Pointer Explains
Ald. Hannemann, committee chairman, agreed with Groh that there was no reason a vote shouldn't be taken. Stumpf withdrew his motion and Ald. Pointer his second. Pointer said he hoped the state legislature would pass a law making minors responsible for their actions. Not one beer bar has been the cause of abuses, abuse comes from individuals, he said.

Officially, the ministerial association, the Appleton Council of Churches, Stumpf and 173 petitioners who want a teenage tavern license denied to the Sugar Bowl, 1218 S. Onida street, had lined up for the ban.

Senate Debate
Opposed were a total of 232 petitioners.

The state senate debate was one of the longest and liveliest of the current session.

Henry G. Wintgens, executive vice president of the Charmin Paper Products company and an employee of the firm for 45 years, has announced his retirement as of Aug. 1.

His responsibilities will be assumed by other officers in the firm. Martin J. Auchter will continue to supervise operations in Green Bay, Little Rapids and Cheboygan, Mich. Robert E. Kissel will remain in charge of the Green Bay and Little Rapids mills. Peter M. Chiuminatto will assume responsibility for all non-technical administrative matters of the Charmin company.

Wintgens joined the company May 8, 1914, when it was the John Hoberg Paper company. He was born in Oshkosh, Wis., July 6, 1897, and served in World War I. He was a stenographer, timekeeper, office clerk, salesman and sales manager for the firm before being named vice president.

He has been a director of the Green Bay association of commerce, Peoples Trust and Savings bank and Trees for Tomorrow; president of the Tissue association; executive committee member and board member of the Green Bay Packer corporation; board member of the Salvation Army; and director of the Wisconsin Paper Industry Information service.

Chiuminatto, who joined the company in 1924, has been in management; Auchter and Kissel, who both joined the company in 1932, have been in manufacturing.

KHS Thinclads Preparing for Sectional Test

Expect Same Youths Competing in League Meet to Run Friday

Kaukauna — The Kaukauna High school track squad continued practice this week in preparation for the sectional track meet at Green Bay Friday.

Coach Wayne Welch selected men for the sectional on the basis of showings made at the conference meet last week. Running against stronger competition from the Fox River Valley league, the Ghosts are not expected to have much of a chance to gain state competition.

The top two men in each sectional event qualify for state competition. Top place earned by Kaukauna in the conference test was a third place finish by Dennis Priebe in the 220-yard dash and a tie for third in the sprint relay.

Jerry Jakl ran fourth in the mile, Merle Hammond placed fifth in the 880-yard run and the 880-yard relay team took fifth for their conference points.

Other Starters

Other boys competing will be Bob Luce in the high and low hurdles and shot put, Ed Vanden Heuvel in the mile, Doug Ludvigson in pole vault and discus, Karl Anderson in broad jump and high jump, Tom Haen in the 440-yard run and Gary Nowack in the shot.

Making up the 880-yard relay team will be Bob Wurdinger, Bruce Ludke, James Martzahl and Dennis Priebe while Milo Straus, Roger Nussbauro, Ludke and Martzahl will run the medley relay.

Walks Lead to Victories in Opening City League Games

Kaukauna — Kappell's tavern and Arnold's bar chalked up wins in opening games in the City Softball league Monday defeating Mullen's barbers and Gustman sales respectively.

Les Dietzen twirled a 3-hit ball in leading Kappell's to a 5 to 1 win over Mullen's. Jerry Vande Loo, losing hurler, allowed only five hits but three walks and an error in the second inning coupled with a double permitted three runs to cross the plate.

Cliff Hinkens opened the game with a homer for the winners in the first inning. They picked up three in the second and scored one in the fifth on a double by Tony Schuh and a single by Ron Miller. The losers picked up one run in the first inning.

The winners scored three runs on four walks and a single in the first inning and then added six in the second on four walks, doubles by Hank Huphauf and Joe Niesz and a homer by Dan Schommer.

Two walks and a sacrifice fly accounted for a run in the third and two more runs crossed the plate in the sixth on four walks and a double by Rich Giordana. The losers scored four runs in the second on a single, a walk, a hit batsman and a homer by Duane Gloudehans. Two singles and an error accounted for a run in the second and two runs were scored in the fifth on an error, a double by Melvin Gerrits and a single.

The losers scored a final run in the seventh on a single, an error and a fielder's choice. Duane Gloudehans had two hits for the losers while six men hit for the winner. Jim Rausch was losing hurler and Huphauf the winner.

Dr. Douglas Knight to Address Graduates

Kaukauna — Dr. Douglas M. Knight, president of Lawrence college, will be speaker for commencement night exercises at Kaukauna High school May 29.

Also speaking will be Karl Kuchelmeister, president of the graduating class, and Mark Nagan and Oliver Kruse, elected as class speakers by seniors.

Move From Leeman

Leeman — Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fredrickson have moved from the Everett Pierre residence to Manawa where they will operate a filling station.

Legion Will Sponsor Teenage Dance Friday

Little Chute — The Jacob Coppus post of the American Legion will sponsor a teenage dance Friday night at the village hall.

Proceeds will be used to finance the trip of the Drum and Bugle corps to the national convention this summer. Members of the post will serve as chaperones for the dance.

Apportionment Check Received at Kimberly

Kimberly — The first income tax apportionment check from the state has been received by the village, according to Mrs. Paul Lochschmidt, clerk-treasurer.

The check amounted to $29,439.54 compared to $30,812.41 received at this time a year ago. The second apportionment check is expected in August.

Civil Defense Block Wardens Meet With Kimberly Director

Kimberly — Block wardens in the Civil Defense unit here held a special meeting with Director Quentin Williams to discuss phases of their work.

Williams stressed the ways the wardens must conduct themselves in the time of an emergency and explained what their duties consist of. He urged each warden to learn the names of the residents of his block, their place of employment and the number of children in the family.

Another important factor pointed out by the director was the need for wardens to get to know of any invalids in his block. Williams also advised the men to make continual personal contacts in their area and give out handy

Wardens were told to keep in contact with the warden captain, Lloyd Hengel, and his assistant, Richard Van Lanen. Williams said the next step in the block warden system will be to fill vacancies which exist where men have moved from the vicinity.

Another project will be to complete the block program in the newly platted areas where homes are springing up constantly and the area is expanding rapidly.

At the close of the session it was decided to hold another meeting in August to enable the wardens to be aware of any new developments. A special disaster film was shown by the director.

Another Look at Little Rock

Before trouble broke out over efforts to integrate Central High school at Little Rock in 1957, most people in this vicinity were of the opinion the people there were prepared to proceed with the integration plan as it had been outlined by the board of education. It was thought the people were taking a very moderate view of the problem and it would be worked out without conflict.

Virgil T. Blossom, who served as superintendent of schools at Little Rock from 1953 to 1958 and was therefore in the midst of the conflict in 1957, now has come forward to confirm the general opinion of the situation. Blossom says that his attitude was much the same as that of a majority of the citizens of Little Rock: They were not in favor of integration; they would have preferred no integration at all if possible but they were prepared to obey the law. He says, "There is every reason to believe that Little Rock citizens respected the law and, until 1957, were ready to comply with it."

He believes the plan failed and the city was taken over by radical obstructionists because there was a lack of leadership on both the state and federal levels. He points out that although more than 50 persons were arrested by the local police for being involved in mob action, the department of justice failed to indict or prosecute any of them, and he says, "The governor of Arkansas failed to use his powers to uphold the law. In fact, Gov. Orval E. Faubus used his office in a demagogic and opportunistic manner that brought about a breakdown of law and order."

of vital importance in an article in the Saturday Evening Post for May 23, the first of a series on this subject. He points out the segregationists in other parts of Arkansas and also in the deep south seized upon Little Rock as the place to make their stand against all school integration in the south. He quotes Sen. James O. Eastland of Mississippi as encouraging this stand when he said, "If the southern states are picked off one by one under the damnable doctrine of gradualism, I don't know if we can hold out or not."

Militant segregationists were encouraged to come to Little Rock by some unfortunate statements by southern politicians who felt they were put on the spot because they were called upon to enforce the unpopular supreme court ruling. Even those who were inclined to go along and obey the law nevertheless felt it politically wise to make it known that they were opposed to the order and resented it. Such statements led many of the uneducated and deeply prejudiced southerners to believe they were being told that they didn't have to obey the law.

The trouble at Little Rock has been most unfortunate for all concerned. It has been an expensive thing for the people of Little Rock and it has been damaging to the students who have been kept out of high school for months by this uprising. The story of Little Rock illustrates one thing very clearly, that public officials have a responsibility to choose their words carefully. Democracy is powerful and it can live through many such experiences but in all of them the people least able to stand the losses suffer the most.

To the Greatest Lady: Happy Birthday!

The greatest lady in the world is 75 years old, but she is as young as she was on May 21, 1884, when she gained her physical entity. Yet, she is much older than Runnymede and the Magna Charta.

She was old when Chaldea was born 25 centuries and more ago; when Cyrus founded Persia by crushing the might of Media, and when Babylon fell. Each time she hoped, and each time she wept when tyrant conquered tyrant.

She sailed with Columbus to the New World and emigrated there with the Pilgrims. Where Ponce de Leon failed, she drank deeply of the Fountain of Youth and renewed her Vestal vows that mankind must be free.

Genghis Khan, Tamerlane, Attila, Napoleon, Hitler gave her lip service, each in his own fashion, in the delusion that by beguiting he could enchain her. She faced them, and they vanished.

Now she looks across the eastern sea to Khrushchev and the blandishments of the new imperialism where all men and women will gain their peculiar freedom by becoming slaves of the state, symbolized by Lenin, Stalin, Khrushchev. She may weep, but she won't despair.

The mother of exiles holds the torch of liberty in a hand that is more than 16 feet long as she towers 151 feet above the almost sacred ground she stands on. Her index finger is more than 8 feet long. These are merely symbolic. Multiply them by infinity, and they can reach from here to the uttermost fringe of the universe, even as far as the eternal aspirations of mankind to be free.

Happy birthday, Statue of Liberty! And many, many more of them.

Another Weakness in Driver's License Law

Not one of the 97,000 first driver licenses issued last year by the state went to a 12-year-old. No 12-year-old even was able to get one of 138,656 temporary instruction permits issued. The law says a Wisconsin resident must have lived 16 calendar years before he can start thinking about driving in the state.

It is not beyond the realm of possibility to imagine a youngster of 12 years developed physically, mentally and emotionally enough to qualify very well for the privilege of driving. There are exceptional kids around; however, these few would hardly be reason to change the law and we don't feel the law is bad if it deprives such youngsters of driving pleasures. We feel 16 is early enough.

But does the law go far enough in safeguarding the highways from underaged drivers? The revolting case of Harold W. McLaughlin in Milwaukee, the confessed slayer of little Ben Wagner, makes us wonder.

This sick man has been adjudged as having the mental and emotional age of 12 years. He has been in and out of the state's hospital for the criminal insane. At least twice his offenses have involved his being allowed, under the law, to drive a car. In fact, according to the published record, he has not been in trouble except when he was driving a car.

It appears to us the state was amply warned of this man's danger. A few years ago he did lose his driver's license for a traffic offense and he mocked the law by driving anyway and was penalized — with a $25 fine.

The fact Harold W. McLaughlin lived 28 calendar years seems to be one of the main standards by which the state vehicle department judges his right to the privilege of driving. The law seems to blink at the fact that his mind and emotions stopped growing 16 years ago.

The National Safety council has used a pertinent slogan in its campaign to cut down highway accidents, "Don't be a kid when you drive."

In light of the Wagner case it appears legislation is needed, or the administration of the law sharpened, to take off the highways drivers who have so evidently proved they are "kids" mentally and emotionally no matter how many years they might have lived.

What Others are Saying

From The Nashville Banner

David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers, has turned down management's proposal to extend one more year the 3-year contract which expires June 30. He calls it a "trick." He is arguing for what he terms a "billion-dollar" package — meaning new wage and benefit demands. And as a new go at assured cost and price raising, his comments have an unsettling effect on the whole economy. For a new crisis in steel, with resultant inflationary spiraling, would have far-reaching ramifications.

America does not want that. It remembers the calamitous episodes of 1952, when a strike closed down steel mills for 56 days. It recalls some of the factors in that — including the insistence of then-President Harry S. Truman, in substance, that production costs were unrelated to the price picture; and his punitive expedition climaxed by seizure of the industry.

McDonald's reaction to overtures as this deadline approaches is not that of a labor statesman, nor calculated to serve the long-range interest of his followers who would be among the losers in any economic setback inflicted — as they were losers in terms of wages lost in 53 days of idleness in 1952.

In point of this controversy, it is the production cost and wage study recently released by the American Iron and Steel Institute.

Employment costs for hourly employees in the industry reached a record high of $3.51 per hour worked in 1958. Straight time hourly pay to wage earners (exclusive of supplements) averaged $2.78 per hour worked — an increase of 20.5 cents per hour over the prior record of $2.58 set the previous year.

In addition to the straight time wages, in 1958 iron and steel companies paid out more than 72 cents per hour in supplements (including shift differentials, Sunday and overtime premium, holiday and vacation pay, cost of insurance, pensions, and social security); nine cents per hour over the 1957 record.

What does Mr. McDonald want? In event of a shutdown, the steel workers would feel the pinch — as the loss of wages for some two months in 1952 should remind.

Two More Young People Give Opinions on Matter of Beer Bars

Editor, Post-Crescent:

I just finished reading an article in the People's Forum.

I am writing this in defense of the "young adults" in this community, and not for the "hoods" who are causing us all the trouble.

I am a "young adult" of 18 and I enjoy going into a beer bar. I am not an alcoholic. Maybe it would be a wise thing if I gave my reason for going into a beer bar. The main reason is to meet people of my own age and not be bothered by the young teenagers. This is the only form of recreation that we have. We feel out of place at a high school dance because we're too old for the crowd. The high schoolers don't want us crashing their dances any more than we want them coming to beer bars when they're not of age.

I am now going to refer to a letter that was in Monday's paper. In this letter it said, "Speeding on our streets and highways is basically a moral problem and we legislate on that." I agree on that, but what has this to do with teenage bars? Are you stating that everyone that is picked up for speeding just came from a beer bar?

Quoting again from the letter, "Accident Facts, 1956 Edition, state that 26 out of every 100 traffic fatalities in 1955 involved alcoholic beverages." Very rarely do you find in the papers that a young adult between the ages of 18 and 20 was picked up for drunken driving; are you going to close the 21-year-old bars?

The letter said alcoholics on beer had started drinking as a teenager. Well, if you don't know how to handle alcoholic beverages when you are 18 chances are that you won't be able to handle them when you are 30.

I am going to point out the difference between two beer bars, the well supervised and the unsupervised.

One is a very well supervised beer bar. They have two deputies at the door to check "ID's," and to supervise. You never read in the papers that there are fights, speeding, drag races, or any other arguments you have against beer bars happening there.

The other is unsupervised. Definitely they do not have deputies to supervise when necessary. This is the type of place that the "hoods" hang out. This is also the place that all the trouble started. I do not think it is the fault of the young people that they want to close the beer bars, but the fault of the owners of the places. Again we, the young adults, are being punished for the adults and the small minority who are in the wrong.

I feel that if all the young adults stick together we could help to improve the situation of the troubles we are having with the minority group.

A Young Adult Menasha.

Need Places For Recreation

Editor, Post-Crescent:

In reply to the closing of beer bars:

Will you lend an ear to a teenager? Although only three months remain of my teens I have strong opinions concerning this issue.

My simple biased point of view will reveal that the closing of beer bars in Appleton alone, shall not accomplish what the council hopes to achieve. At least not without the serious consideration and actions of everyone concerned. The teenagers themselves don't care one way or the other if the bill is passed. Of all the patronized teenage taverns, Appleton isn't the main center of attraction. What about those in the other cities in Outagamie county, and also Winnebago county?

The motives behind the issue are good and they're sound. But surely it isn't only up to the authorities to construct and enforce the standards and morals of teenagers. We all know that!

It is true, a beer bar is about the only means of recreation available to the young adult 18 to 21. But it certainly isn't the healthiest. What you actually see at said places, are so-called "vibrant and vigorous teenagers with just enough energy to carry their beer from the bar to the booth."

When you return to your "dorm" on a Sunday evening and hear the girls chattering about the bars they frequented, and how much beer they were able to drink, it can become somewhat disgusting.

If the passing of this bill would be a means to an end, and the beginning of what can eventually be considered Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of May 22, 1880.

We are gratified with the decision of the City Council providing for a substantial foot-bridge across the ravine on Lawrence Street, near the Waverly House.

This is an important improvement that has long been needed to accommodate the drift of travel between that portion of the Third and Second wards.

Mr. Barker had prepared plans for a good bridge, which were adopted at the Council meeting Wednesday night and proposals were asked for bids so that we may reasonably expect the structure will soon be built.

Miracles Promised By Development Plan

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison — The marvelous power of words in politics won't be better exemplified this season than in the rave testimony heard before the legislature the other day on Gov. Nelson's bill to establish what he would call a department of economic resources development.

Or perhaps, more realistically put, it showed the ever-ready hope of many persons and groups that the reshuffling of governmental furniture can produce miracles.

The governor proposed to consolidate and coordinate the several state services and agencies that now have some function connected with economic development healthy, enjoyable and constructive recreation, then much will have been accomplished.

Asks Figures On Costs of An Airport

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Perhaps it has escaped my attention but I have not seen any facts or figures concerning the proposed new Outagamie County Airport which would indicate that the project would be sound financially. For example, I think it would be necessary to have the following information:

1. Statistics showing the number of people who now fly, or would fly in and out of this county.

2. Statistics showing the number of people who now patronize other airports but who would switch to one in this county.

3. Figures to show that the initial capital outlay would be reclaimed in a certain number of years through profitable yearly operations.

4. Figures to show that the operation of the airport actually would be profitable and that it would not be necessary to make up annual deficits out of tax money.

To proceed without definite and favorable answers to the above questions, and perhaps some others, would be foolhardy and would amount to the taxpayers of the county subsidizing the air travel of the relatively small number of people who fly.

Nelson Sees Tax Revision as Boost to Economic Growth

Talk Up Good Points Instead of Grumbling, Conference Advised

BY JAMES HARTLEY
Post-Crescent News Service

Green Bay — Democratic Gov. Gaylord Nelson and Republicans in his audience were in agreement here Wednesday on the point of a change in Wisconsin tax structure to attract new industry and help it grow.

Nelson spoke to 350 community development officials at the governor's conference on industrial development, whose annual session began during a Republican administration. While it may not be on the program, the stand for revision of state taxes and the sales tax question always is raised during meetings of this type.

Nelson added to his prepared text to plug his tax impact study now in progress.

He agreed that all governments through the years "have been tragically slow in making adjustments to encourage economic growth."

Systems Outmoded

"I personally believe that Wisconsin's tax structure is outmoded. However, I do not believe that it is any better or any worse than any other state in the United States," Nelson said.

As examples of what he was talking about, Nelson advocated at least a reduction in Wisconsin's personal property tax which is "burdensome on industry, business, and economic growth." At the same time, however, a substitute would have to be found to produce $70 million yearly which now comes from personal property taxes," he said.

Once the impact study is completed, Nelson said the directions toward tax revision will be present. He said he was hopeful the legislature could do the job in a special session this fall but he said the job could take two or four years.

Talk Up Advantages

In his prepared talk, Nelson called for Wisconsin promoters to emphasize talk about advantages supported by taxes rather than grumbling about the lack of a good tax climate for industry. The burden of all taxes for each Wisconsin resident is less than in Ohio and Michigan and only slightly higher than in Illinois, he said.

"For many of our businessmen and political leaders, it has become a habit to talk in gloomy terms about Wisconsin's tax structure and how it discourages economic growth. Rarely do you hear them talk in optimistic terms about our numerous and substantial assets," Nelson lectured.

Nelson advised industrial promoters to advertise the fact that Wisconsin shares its income tax with municipalities. He offered statistics to rank Wisconsin as the third healthiest state, a state with the fourth best school system, a state fourth in state and county highways, a state with leading vocational education programs and top state colleges.

Taxes also pay for an industrial commission which has helped cut industrial accidents to half the national average which "means lower business payments for workmen's compensation as well as fewer days of absenteeism," he said.

Other Assets

"My only purpose is to remind you that the familiar pie-shaped diagram showing where Wisconsin taxes come from is not enough. We must also examine the pie showing where tax revenues go and what essential services they provide that industry otherwise would have to pay for out of its own pocket," he said.

aside from its government story, Wisconsin also can document a friendly attitude toward industry, a reliable work force, a diversified economy, an unlimited water supply, nearness to recreation areas, and a strategic location which will be accentuated with the opening of the St. Lawrence seaway," Nelson said.

Nelson also took advantage of the opportunity offered by the future-minded audience to add a plea for support of his plan to reorganize state pro-

Planting of Corn, Peas Well Along

Madison — Planting of corn and peas in Wisconsin is now well along, the U. S. state crop and weather report said today.

In the southeast section about 30 per cent of the corn has been planted and in the rest of the state the figure is 10 per cent.

The canning pea planting is about 80 to 90 per cent complete; Potato planting was described as active.

Cold and rain or snow hampered field work and slowed pasture growth in the northern sections. Many farmers in those areas used the weather to carry on tree planting activities, field men said.

The summary said that new seedlings of clover have been badly winter killed while alfalfa seedlings are doing well. Hay is plentiful in the north and short in the south. There are scattered shortages in the central counties and along the lake shore.

motion, research, and planning agencies into a single department of resources development. The aim of his bill is to provide machinery to transmit ideas into action, he said.

"This would create a kind of a leadership clearing house which would bring together all the research that we have," Nelson said.

The coordinated agency would include the present division of industrial and port development, would get planners now in engineering departments, would have a continuing study of methods to increase the tourist industry, and would have an officer to make certain the state got the benefit of all research at the University of Wisconsin.

Nelson said the new agency would provide more planning services to municipalities and would have a separate office to tackle the job of developing northern Wisconsin economically to balance its acknowledge tourist industry.

The objective must be, he said, to enable the 20 northern counties of the state to end their need for financial help from the rest of Wisconsin.

Get Facts on Plant Closing, Speaker Warns

Post-Crescent News Service

Green Lake — Community workers in industrial development were warned Wednesday against panic before getting all the facts about the announced closing of an Auto Lite plant in LaCrosse.

The pointed advice came from David Carley, director of the state division of industrial and port development. While announced reasons for closing the plant were disclosing from markets and "labor climate," Carley said the facts were that Auto Lite was in a program of consolidation because it is in a competitive fight for survival.

"If we make LaCrosse Auto Lite become a scare word then we are letting go down the drain the work of months and years and of meetings like this. Before we allow it to be said that we don't have

Marion Soldier Hurt in Crash On Korean Road

He was serving with 30th Military Police company in Korea. About a month ago the jeep he was driving skidded on a wet road and tipped over, pinning him underneath. A Korean companion went for help.

good labor, let's look to the home office in Toledo. Let's get the facts first," Carley told a session of the governor's conference on industrial development.

Carley said business publications have reported that Auto Lite has closed seven of its 21 plants since last year because of its fight for survival. The LaCrosse plant employed 1,300 men and had an annual payroll of $8,000,000.

before I went in for supper," Carl Bauman recalled.

"When I came in I asked about Mike and my wife said he hadn't come in. I went in back of the barn where Mike often played. I heard strange sounds coming from the creek culvert and rushed down. I found Mike caught around the stake inside the culvert which was formed by three 55-gallon steel drums. I couldn't get him between the stake and the side of the culvert so I went in from the other side and pulled him out against the current. I don't know how long he was in there. I thought he was dead."

Again the story was told of the quick arrival of the department rescue workers, of the mother who gave her son artificial respiration until help arrived, of the three brothers and their wives, all sisters, who knelt in prayer on a rough barn floor, of the first feeble fluttering eyelids, of the cry that said life had been restored to the tiny body.

It Was Raining When their stories had been told, Kavanaugh, Mike and his father watched as the very men who had worked over them gave a demonstration of the department's rescue equipment. Kavanaugh smiled in grateful recollection; Carl Bauman patted the shoulder of

Union Bills Supported by 8 Republicans

GOP Assemblymen
In Disfavor by Business Groups

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — Employer groups are showing annoyance that union-sponsored bills for changes in long-standing state labor laws are being approved with the help of Republican votes.

Eight Republican members of the assembly have joined with the Democratic majority there to give heavy approval to amendments that will "wreck the Wisconsin employment peace act," the basic Wisconsin labor law that has stood virtually unchanged since 1939, the Wisconsin State Chamber of Commerce complains in a current bulletin to members.

List of Names
They are Cane of Winnebago county, Deering of Brown county, Genzmer of Dodge, Schuler of Fond du Lac, Luedke of Marathon, Schmeichel of Manitowish and Timmerman of Milwaukee. Major purpose of the legislation, which may run into greater difficulties in the state senate, is to eliminate the statutory requirements for a majority vote in a referendum before a union shop contract can be approved between a labor organization and an employer.

The chamber also complains that other provisions would change the definition of a labor dispute so as to permit "stranger" picketing, and will curtail the injunctive powers of the state labor relations board.

The bill is being heavily pushed by the major labor organizations of the state and was adopted in the assembly, 56 to 34. Eight assemblymen abstained on the roll call.

County Trunk Z
To be Improved

Kaukauna — The city has entered into an agreement with the Outagamie County Highway commission for the improvement and resurfacing of County Trunk Z from County Trunk Q to the east city limits.

Under the agreement the city will furnish the necessary right of way, necessary storm sewers, curb and gutter, engineering services and pay 20 per cent of the balance of construction costs.

The city will be required to furnish and install storm sewers. Work on the project will get underway this summer and an attempt will be made to complete the job this construction season.

Preliminary survey work and tree removal was started last winter and machines for grading and clearing are expected to be moved into the area within a week.

Casual Dresser

Nelson Hopes to Finish Term Without Donning Formal Togs

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — Is it possible for a man to hold the high office of governor without occasionally donning formal clothes?

The experience of Gov. Gaylord Nelson may tell the story.

The new governor of Wisconsin has held office for nearly six months, and he is encouraged to believe that it is possible, he has confided to friends.

Hopes To Continue

The governor who has an aversion to formal apparel has managed during the first quarter of his term without putting on formal dress. He is reasonably confident, he says, that he can continue his life-time habit.

Nelson is not the first governor who had a dislike for anything except plain business suits. Predecessor Vernon W. Thomson, another small townsman by origin, shared his feelings.

But Thomson occasionally had to make a concession to the amenities — in the way of renting a dress suit.

But he turned such occasions into an advantage. Some of his most hilarious stump speeches turned on his experiences in renting and wearing formal clothes on the rare occasions when such wear couldn't be avoided.

In point of fact, official and ceremonial functions in Wisconsin and in its capital city have always been less formal than those in other parts of the country.

Church Circle To Fete Sunday School Workers

Kaukauna — The Ruth circle of the Immanuel United Church of Christ will sponsor a Sunday school workers' appreciation dinner at 6 p. m. Thursday in the church dining room.

A business meeting will be held after the dinner. The Faith circle will meet at 1:30 p. m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. Woodrow Heilman and the Mary Ida circle will meet at 1:30 p. m. at the church with Mrs. Oscar Meinert and Mrs. John Vandenberg, Sr., as hostesses.

The Miriam circle will meet at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ed Sager with Mrs. Fred Grimmer as co-hostess. Women are to bring items for a white elephant sale. An auction will be held by the Orpha circle at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. John Vandenberg, Jr., with Mrs. Art Wenzel as co-hostess.

Wire Works Still Interested in Land At Industrial Park

Appleton Wire Works, Inc., is still interested in obtaining acreage in the city's industrial development park, Bruce B. Purdy, of the company, said Wednesday night.

Reports in the city council's industrial development committee meeting Tuesday and published in Wednesday's Post-Crescent were that the company no longer is interested.

Lawrence Faculty Member New Head Of Conference

Dr. Vernon W. Roelofs, Lawrence college faculty representative to the Midwest

Collegiate Athletic conference, has been elected conference president.

Other officers are Alfred W. Meyer of Coe college, vice president; Hugh Beveridge, Monmouth, secretary; Robert P. Ashley, Ripon, director of news, and Arthur C. Walton, Knox, commissioner. Elections were held at the annual meeting on the campus of St. Olaf college.

Sites for conference meetings were determined for next year — track at Cornell, tennis at Grinnell, and golf at Coe, the weekend of May 20 published in Wednesday's and 21. Faculty representatives will meet at Cornell the same weekend.

Neenah Alderman Asks New Shelter at Washington Park

Hedberg Calls Present Building Inadequate, Complains of Odor

Neenah — A new shelter building in Washington park was requested by Ald. Leonard Hedberg at Wednesday night's council meeting. His request was referred to the finance committee.

Hedberg said there was a dire need for such a building and he urged each alderman to take a look at the present shelter.

"I am surprised it has not been condemned. It is inadequate both as to the room and from health reasons. The odor from the rest rooms is terrible and parents have told their children not to use those rest rooms."

"The park is one of the most heavily used by children and baseball clubs in summer and by skaters during the winter," Hedberg continued as he ments at stores and stands and then throw the wrappers along the streets.

He added the matter had come up last year but nothing was done.

Mayor Bell said it had been hoped some service club would come to the city's aid and provide the rubbish containers but none of them had. That was the reason it fell through last year, he said.

Ald. Hansen said his committee was arranging for a place where persons can fly gasoline powered model airplanes and that the site might be ready as early as this weekend. The place is quite isolated and model airplane enthusiasts are being asked to fly their planes there and nowhere else in the city.

Circuit Judge Awards Oshkosh Man $2,000

Oshkosh — Circuit Court Judge Helmuth Arps Wednesday awarded Lawrence Weidner, 36, Oshkosh, judgment in the amount of $2,000 plus $180 costs against Rilla R. Bretney, Winneconne, and the Allied Mutual Casualty company.

A circuit jury awarded Weidner the $2,000 on March 25 but the defendant filed a motion for dismissal. The case resulted from an accident involving the Weidner and Bretney cars in Oshkosh last June 23, in which the latter driver was declared negligent.

27 Tavern Licenses Granted in Neenah

Neenah — Twenty-seven tavern licenses were granted by the council Wednesday night in addition to seven Class A liquor licenses which permit the sale of packaged liquor only. One pharmacist's permit also was granted.

The only tavern license changes were the issuing of licenses to Edgar Karlin, who is succeeding Leo Rohan at 112 E. Wisconsin avenue, and Milton C. Fuhs, who has taken over the Rainbow bar at 218 W. Wisconsin avenue.

Hedberg

mentioned there is no room in the shelter for children to change their skates.

He asked that a new shelter in this park be considered before any major expenditures to the outlying areas.

Ald. Paul Hansen, health and welfare committee chairman, said his committee viewed the Washington park shelter during a tour of the park facilities last week with the park and recreation board. "We are aware of the situation and I personally concur with Ald. Hedberg."

Rubbish Containers

Hansen also asked for a study by the street and sanitation committee of the need for rubbish containers and places around the city where they should be put. He called attention to the approach of the summer months when persons buy candy and refresh-

Neenah Kiwanis Club Wednesday night honored four who are completing their 25th year as teachers at a dinner. In the upper picture are, seated, left to right, Miss Cecilia Adams, Miss Ruth Roper and Dr. J. P. Canavan of the Kiwanis committee, and standing, Lennard Krause, J. Russell Ward of the Kiwanis committee, and Joseph Braun. Below with Supt. of Schools Harold B. Mennes of the Kiwanis committee are three students who spoke at the meeting. They are, left to right, Jeff Smith, Helen Loehning and Laura Moore.

Three Students Tell Views as Neenah Kiwanis Honors Educators

Neenah — Three students presented their views on ways fun teachers and teaching Wednesday evening at the eighth annual Education Appreciation dinner sponsored by the Neenah Kiwanis club at the Valley Inn.

Laura Moore, a fifth grader at Washington school, told those attending why she liked teachers. "The first day of school I was lonesome," she said, "and my teacher introduced me to everybody." She said, "and my teacher introduced me to everybody."

Jeff Smith, a seventh grader at Kimberly Junior High school, gave his qualifications for a good teacher and stated they were not necessarily the same as those of the school board.

Sense of Humor

"Teachers should be good disciplinarians," he said. "It's important because if there is no discipline, students lose interest. Discipline is necessary but it shouldn't be overdone." He added that teachers should know their subjects well enough to answer questions and he also listed a sense of humor as another requirement. "I'm glad most of my teachers have this," he said.

Smith also listed bright classrooms, teaching responsibility by giving students tasks and choosing interesting subjects for the classroom as other important qualifications of a good teacher.

"The benefits of a good school program are obvious,"

Announcement to be Made at 19th Annual Dinner at Elks Club

Neenah — Announcement of the new officers and directors of the Neenah - Menasha Chamber of Commerce will be made at the 19th annual banquet at 7 p.m. Monday at the Elks club.

John Klein, chamber president, will introduce the new officers and four new directors. He also will introduce Otto Lieber, Jr., the chamber's first president, who will receive the honor for the 18 past presidents.

Speaking at the dinner will be Martin F. Bennett, a vice president of Radio Corporation of America. He will be introduced by Paul F. Dodge, chairman of the annual meeting.

Venetian Queen

The 1939 Venetian Parade queen and her court will be guests and presented by Henry Bickerstaff, chairman of this year's program. The invocation will be by the Rev. Clarence Kelley, pastor of the First Methodist church.

Other guests at the dinner will be Mayors Chester S. Bell of Neenah and R. G. DuCharme of Menasha, State Sen. William A. Draheim, Assemblyman Arnold J. Cane, and Rufin Skibba, president of the Neenah-Menasha Labor council.

Tickets for the banquet still may be obtained up to the 5 p.m. Friday deadline at the chamber office.

Special entertainment will be by the Kimberlairens, a "Sweet Adeline" chorus made up mostly of employees at Kimberly-Clark Corporation.

F. E. Prokash, Restaurant Owner 15 Years, Dies

Menasha — Frank E. "Gramps" Prokash, 68, of 1901 Main street, manager of the Valley Coffee shop, collapsed and died at 10:35 this morning at the shop where he was working on a remodeling project.

Former owner of the Kewaunee brewery, he had been associated with his son, Orville in the restaurant business the last 15 years, first in Appleton and the last 7 in Menasha. He was born July 30, 1890 in Algoma.

Funeral services will be held Monday at the Svoboda Funeral home in Kewaunee with burial in the cemetery there. Friends may call at the Laemmrich Funeral home from 3 to 9:30 p.m. Friday, and at the Svoboda Funeral home in Kewaunee Saturday night and Sunday.

Survivors are the widow; a daughter, Mrs. Charles Weydt, Plymouth; two sons, Orville of Appleton and Frank of Pulaski; and 15 grandchildren.

Driver Forfeits

Menasha — Joe M. Zuleger, 52, 1103 W. Lawrence street, Appleton, forfeited $2 fine and costs Wednesday in Police Justice Arthur J. Ales' court. He was arrested Thursday afternoon at Tayco and River streets for failing to stop for a policeman directing traffic.

5 St. Mary Graduates Receive Scholarships

20 Seniors, 7 Juniors Accepted Into Honor Society at School's Awards Day

Menasha — Five St. Mary's high school seniors received scholarships Wednesday at the school's Senior Awards day.

Twenty seniors and seven juniors also were accepted into the National Honor society and scholastic awards were given in 14 fields.

Barbara Snyder won a full tuition scholarship to Marquette university, $600 a year for four years.

Another full $2,400 scholarship to Marquette was given Tim Menning by the Marquette University foundation.

Lilas Buss received the partial scholarship to Wisconsin State college at Oshkosh.

The Twin City Business and Professional Women's club awarded Barbara Kraus.

National Honor Society

The seven juniors are Silvia Deprez, Sue Rhyner, Judith Mochring, Kathy Krautkramer, Jean Laux, Tom Penny and Colleen O'Brien.

English — Barbara Birling, medalist, and Barbara Kraus, Jean Kayen and Judy DeBruin, honorable mention.

Mathematics — Jim Gruper, medalist, and Tim Menning, Menasha, and Joseph Birling of Neenah.

Severe Penalties For Setting Fires In U. S. Mailboxes

Menasha — Fire Chief Ed Heim today reminded that both federal and state laws apply to setting fires in United States mailboxes.

Penalties, he said, are up to 15 years in the state prison for arson. Federal penalties for tampering with or destruction of mail while under custody of the post office department are "severe," said Postmaster John Backes.

Three mailbox fires have been under investigation since March 1. Two were in the box at Eighth and DePere streets and one at Nicolet boulevard and Elm street.

One letter was destroyed in the three incidents, Backes said. That letter still had its return address and the sender was notified.

Twin City Deaths

Schuler Survivors

Menasha — Survivors of John Schuler, 70, route 1, who died Wednesday morning, are a sister, Mrs. Anna Huelsbeck, of route 1, Menasha; a half-sister, Mrs. Howard Barker of Menasha, and two half-brothers, Henry Birling of route 1, Menasha, and Joseph Birling of Neenah.

Bob Bandy Sets Some Sort of Nutty Record

Barricades Self in Iowa Station, Broadcasts Same Tune Eight Hours

BY JINGO

Bob Bandy, known for his nutty antics during a long stay at Appleton WAPL radio, set some sort of new record Monday, his first day as disc jockey for KFMA, Dav. a port. la. station.

You'll recall that Bandy climbed atop a hotel tower in Appleton around the Fourth of July last summer and didn't come down until after Labor day.

Well, Monday in Iowa, he barricaded the door to his broadcast booth and stayed inside — on the air — for eight hours, broadcasting the same record and refusing to read commercials.

Publicity stories would have you believe he earned a substantial $40 to $50 a week interest for the commotion and interest he caused.

You can believe it if you want, but if you do, Jingo advises you keep it to yourself: Those fellows with the fish nets quite often are humorless types.

Speaking of nutty antics, here's Ernie Kovacs, one of the leading practitioners, with a special hour — long show Friday night on NBC-TV. Edie Adams, Louis Jourdan and James Darren are guests.

Edgar Bergen and a Charlie McCarthy are Tennessee Ernie Ford's guests tonight. Ford's colorful commentaries on the rural scenes he sees in big city life put him somewhat in the line of characters Jingo's talking about.

And then there's Bill Veek, once sent a midget to bat for the old St. Louis Browns. He's on "Person to Person" Friday night. . . . You can find this same sort of hair-brain nonsense in tonight's "December Bride" episode, of all places. The show's a rebroadcast of guest star Zsa Zsa Gabor's campaign for accident prevention.

"77 Sunset Strip" indulges Friday night in a wild plot that unfortunately could be true. Involved is a kind of cult that employs rites straight out of the Middle Ages. . . . And then there's the bit about the author of the two classic childhood stories which Walt Disney will tell on his show Friday night. The author, Kenneth Grahame, was such a shy man, even though an official of the Bank of England, that when

Achieving Harmony in Marriage

• Puzzling as it may seem, women often need help in accepting their sexual role as women. Husbands should avoid criticizing, says this article in June Reader's Digest. It became obvious his stories were making him a celebrity he quit writing altogether. Odds & Ends: "Love of Life" celebrates its 2,000th ABC-TV's "Open Hearing" telecast Friday on CBS-TV Sunday. . . . Groucho Marx . . . Clark Gordon and His Band, adjudged the best new 10th consecutive year on TV dance band of 1959 by U. S. in the same time period he and Canadian musicians, will had this season.

Construction of the New $150,000 water main to serve the northwest section of Neenah is now underway as crews begin excavation. The 16-inch main will follow along Walnut street to Franklin and then west on Franklin and Sherry streets and across the slough to Western avenue. It will provide more pressure and water to the northwestern area.

George Gobel Faces Busy Season Ahead

Comedian to Give Shows in England During Summer

BY CYNTHIA LOWRY

New York — Lonesome George Gobel, low-key comedy guitar and all, is off the American television network until fall.

Then he'll return to alternate weekly with Jack Benny. But pint-sized George won't vegetate over the summer; he'll keep in professional shape with plenty of road work.

From a stay in Las Vegas, Gobel recently opened at the Waldorf-Astoria's Empire room. After a month of two-shows-a-week here, he takes off for England to do a couple of TV shows for its commercial network.

Worried Comedian Gobel's scrapbooks are full of critical raves about his supper club act. But he isn't kidding when he says he's laughing; you feel right away worrying about how the British are going to take his special brand of comedy.

"I don't think they'll have any trouble understanding chuckle. They're quieter, per me," he frets. "After all, they love Danny Kaye and it's a much easier place to set Danny Thomas and a lot of a ballad. I think I like an in-others, and they didn't have a lot of time room with a quiet to change their act to get crowd—you can do a lot of things in it that would be lost over."

Careful fellow that he is, on the people back beyond George has had a couple of the 18th row in a big room.

Lakeview School to Offer Summer Class in Remedial Reading

Neenah — Lakeview school will offer a summer remedial reading program from June 15 to July 24, Prin. Robert Belle announced today. Three 1-hour long classes will be held each morning, starting at 9 a.m.

Mrs. Marjorie Gunn will be the instructor and the classes will be based according to grade in school. Children will be selected on the basis of need and the teachers' recommendations, beginning with the upper grade children and working down to the lower grades.

scouts casing the situation ahead of him—and he has sent copies of his scripts over to an American writer friend who has lived in the heartland of British humor for five or six years.

Places Differ Still and all, whenever the subject of his forthcoming trip to England is dropped into the conversation, Gobel jumps nervously to his feet and starts to pace the floor. "Every place is different," he fumes. "Every audience is different. There's a lot of difference, for instance, between playing in a great big room with a big stage in Las Vegas and in a supper club in New York. There's a whoop-it-up spirit in Las Vegas—of critical raves about his supper club act. But he isn't kidding when he says he's laughing; you feel right away worrying about how the British are going to take his special brand of comedy.

"I don't think they'll have any trouble understanding chuckle. They're quieter, per me," he frets. "After all, they love Danny Kaye and it's a much easier place to set Danny Thomas and a lot of a ballad. I think I like an in-others, and they didn't have a lot of time room with a quiet to change their act to get crowd—you can do a lot of things in it that would be lost over."

One Petition On Roosevelt Street Work

Public Hearing Set Next Tuesday in Council Chambers

Menasha — Public hearing on street improvement assessments will be at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday in the city council chambers, the council decided Tuesday.

A petition protesting the assessments, given by those affected by the proposed Roosevelt street project, also was held over for the hearing.

Projects involved are curb, gutter and hot-mix paving on Eighth, Wilson, Roosevelt, Harding, London, Fourth, Manitowoc, DePere and Waterloo streets and Butte des Morts and Lake Crest drives; and for surfacing of Nicolet boulevard and Harding, Lo-pas, Garfield, Broad, Water, Lake, Third and Fourth street and Edgewater drive. Sewer and water service pipes installed then will be subject to special assessments in addition to the street work, according to the initial resolution adopted May 5. The board of public works, under the resolution's terms, is required to present an estimate of the entire project cost and the assessments to be levied on each property. Bids tabulated by the board of public works were accepted by the council. They were: Henry Verbruggen and Son, Little Chute, $45,361, for 17,400 feet of curb and gutter, storm sewers, catch basins and sidewalks. Verbruggen, $18,308, for other sidewalk work. Verbruggen, $1,051, storm sewer work near St. John school on Fifth street. Baldwin and Tennesen, $3,762, Third and Milwaukee streets storm sewer work. Baldwin and Tennesen, $3,187, storm sewer work on Roosevelt street.

Quastman Oil company, road oil, .1280 per gallon of RC-3 and .1211 per gallon of MC-O, both in tank car lots. Truck Lots Empire Petroleum company, RC-3 road oil, .1360 per gallon in truck transport lots, to be purchased only when and if needed. Badger Highways, Inc., asphaltic concrete paving, $9.95 a lineal foot. Twin City Transit Mix Concrete company, ready-mix concrete — $14.20 per cubic yard for six-bag mix, $13.70 for 5 1/2 - bag mix and $12.70 for 4 1/2-bag mix. Badger Highways, Inc. road stone, and sand, $1.20 to $1.85 for sealed bids to be submitted by 2 p.m. June 18. The bonds will finance construction of a new Sixth street elementary school and remodeling of Butte des Morts school into a junior high. Total estimated cost of the two projects is $559,600.

$559,600 Bond Proposal Gets Council Nod

Menasha — An ordinance providing for sale of $559,600 school bonds was passed Tuesday by the city council. Bonds, dated July 1, will mature serially from 1960 to 1979. Each will be in $1,000 denomination and bear interest coupons. Included in the bond ordinance was a direct levy on taxable property in the city. The city will advertise in "The Bond Buyer," a New York financial publication, for sealed bids to be submitted by 2 p.m. June 18. The bonds will finance construction of a new Sixth street elementary school and remodeling of Butte des Morts school into a junior high. Total estimated cost of the two projects is $559,600.

Menasha — John P. Menash, 39, 117 Elm street, pleaded innocent of drunken driving Wednesday and trial was set for 10 a.m. on May 26. He was arrested by Menash police at 12:30 this morning at Walnut street and E. Doty avenue after police noticed him driving without headlights and almost striking the city hall building in making a turn from S. Commercial onto Doty avenue.

Council Okays Blacktopping of City-Owned Lot

S. Commercial Site Will Provide 31 Parking Places

Neenah — Blacktopping the city-owned lot on the west side of S. Commercial street, north of Winneconne avenue, for parking purposes was approved by the city council Wednesday night.

The aldermen authorized using up to $1,000 from the parking meter fund to provide for additional off-street parking there.

Ald. Leonard Hedberg, public protection committee chairman, said the committee had a request from Mrs. Loretta Hawkinson who wanted to pay for the blacktopping of part of the area in exchange for being granted the use of that area for parking for her beauty shop customers.

No Exclusive Use
The committee felt that it should not grant such exclusive use because others in the area would want to use parts of the city-owned lot for their own private purposes, he said.

The lot will provide 31 parking stalls and entrance is to be made off S. Commercial street and exit only onto Church street.

Removal of the two 24-minute parking meters on the east side of S. Commercial street from the National Manufacturers bank driveway to Wisconsin avenue was approved as a means to allow traffic to move faster and enable an easier right turn.

Mayor Bell commented the total weekly collections from these two meters was $1.90.

MHS Senior Girl Given Scholarship To Oberlin College

Menasha — Kirsten Berg, 17, Menasha High school senior, has been awarded a $500 scholarship to Oberlin college, Oberlin, Ohio, as a result of competition in a contest directed by the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Miss Berg, third in her graduating class of 145 students, also has received the good citizenship award of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She will be honored at senior awards day Monday afternoon.

Council to Sell Old Garage to Bergstrom

Neenah Aldermen to Take Action June 3 on Purchase by Paper Company

Neenah — Sale of the old city garage on Main street to the Bergstrom Paper company will be taken up by the city council at its June 3 meeting.

Ald. Aaron Dix, finance committee chairman, said a sum has been arrived at which has been proposed by the American Appraisal company. The city will receive a 60-foot easement along the west side of the property.

Mayor Bell said the $30,000 figure represents a fair market value for the property, less the easement granted to the city.

The city and paper company have been discussing the sale of the garage for several months. Bergstrom officials had pointed out the only way the company could extend its Neenah facilities was to the west and asked the city if it could purchase the old garage.

Lease Boat Facilities
The council approved leasing the Shattuck park boat-house and stalls under the bandstand to Ralph Stahl as in previous years but at an increased rent. The park and recreation board has asked the council's approval of the lease.

Stahl had been renting the facilities for $750 a year with the lease ending as of May 1. The new lease will be for $75 a month and will run until Jan. 1 with future leases to be on a calendar basis and at a rate of $800 a year.

A claim totaling $2,533 was referred to the finance committee. The sum was being asked by Millard C. Matthews, 142 State street, for alleged damage to his house, lawn and furnishings resulting from a broken water tap.

Outdoor Circus
The council waived the fee for the outdoor circus to be sponsored by the Neenah Kiwanis club July 15 at the Neenah High baseball field on Laudan boulevard but specified that a $50 deposit to cover the cost of cleaning up the property is to be paid. The money will be returned if the grounds are satisfactorily cleaned up after the circus.

Court fines and costs collected.

Award Bars To Scouts

Neenah — Twelve Twin City Senior Girl Scouts received certificates and bars after completing 30 hours of training at Theda Clark hospital at a Wednesday ceremony.

Gerald Aldridge, Theda Clark hospital administrator, presented certificates to the girls and spoke to the parents on the place the scouts' training has in the hospital program. Mrs. Evelyn Blenker was the training instructor.

Mrs. Joseph Heaton, area field director, who presented the bars to the scouts, discussed the Senior Scouting program, explaining it in part provides an opportunity to explore future job possibilities.

Certificates and bars went to Pam Peters and Marcia Taff of Troop 127; Alice Wenneche and Ellen Poellinger, Troop 134; Jane Button, Lynn Eastwood, Karen Graverson, Nancy Houts, Sue Buchanan, Lois Schloemer, Ellen Clouse and Pauline Larsen, Troop 58.

Four Neenah Teachers Feted By Kiwanians

The seventh grader concluded, "We owe a great deal to our teachers because, next to parents, teachers are the most important people in shaping personalities."

"It took me a while to realize that teachers were people," stated Helen Loehning, a senior at Neenah High school. She said that teachers' influence is greatest on younger students, but it is by no means lost when the student grows older.

Plans to Teach
The June graduate added that teachers always have answers to students' questions and that she has been so influenced that she is planning a career in education.

Miss Loehning labeled teaching the noblest profession and said "a teacher affects eternity because he can never tell where his influence stops."

Presented with certificates and service pins for their 25 years of teaching were Miss Ruth Roper, high school vocal teacher, Miss Cecilia Adams, Wilson school; Lennard Krause, chemistry and physics instructor at the high school; and Joseph Braun, mathematics instructor at the high school.

J. Russell Ward and Dr. J. P. Canavan made the presentations and Miss Roper responded on behalf of the teachers with vocal selections. Master of ceremonies was Harold Mennes, superintendent of schools, and musical background was provided by Elynor Evans, Helen Tolversen, Lois Germuga and Janice Frederick, high school students.

Manitowoc Halts Rocket Skein at 11

Ships Post 5-2 Win; Hall Tips Dick Wilson

Manitowoc — Manitowoc halted Neenah's 11-match winning streak here Tuesday afternoon with a 5-2 decision. The Rocket netters were to entertain Shawano this afternoon in their final Mid-Eastern conference test.

Neenah picked up its wins in the No. 2 singles and No. 1 doubles.

Jack Ankerson trimmed Bill Zigmund 7-5, 6-3 for the only singles victory and Dick Wilson and Ankerson remained unbeaten as a doubles team by topping Zigmund and Bob Shaw 7-5, 6-1.

At No. 1, Dick Wilson lost to Dick Hall, his summer doubles partner, by 6-2, 6-2 counts while Steve Price was beaten by Bob Shaw 6-2, 6-4 at the third spot.

Paul Meany, Manitowoc's 6-4 sophomore basketball star, tripped freshman Doug Ankerson 6-4, 6-4 at the fourth spot and Paul Kramer tipped Paul Valente in a marathon 15-13 and 6-3 set for the fourth Shipbuilder singles win.

Hall and Jim Fairfield won over Price and Doug Ankerson 9-7, 7-5 at the No. 2 doubles.

In exhibitions, Dale Mrotek defeated Manitowoc's Dick Swanson, 6-1, 6-1 and Ollie Hoppe trimmed Art Mirchin 6-1, 6-0. A doubles match involving Hoppe-Mrotek against Swanson - Jim Heinz was called in the third set.

The Twin City Softballers have a perfect record on wins over Lom's and Irene's of Green Bay. Merchandise Mart of Oshkosh, St. Paul of Appleton and Shamrock Bar of Kaukauna.

Larson to Open New Neenah Paint Store

Neenah — Grand opening of the new Larson's Paint store at 109 N. Church street will be Thursday and Friday. Owner of the store is George Larson who will continue to operate his paint contracting business.

Formerly used as the Tippler Sporting Goods store, the building has undergone a thorough renovation with new flooring, new walls to partition off the display and workshop room, a new heating system, air conditioning and the replacement of the former tin sheeting on the exterior walls with new asphalt siding.

New counters and shelving also have been added. Larson has been in the painting business for 20 years, taking over the contracting business from his father, Neal W. Larson, who retired four years ago. Associated with him in the store will be his brother, James.

Aldermen List Complaints on Foundry Smoke

Rubbish Burning Rule to be Studied by Health Group

Neenah — Smoke from the Neenah Foundry company and burning of rubbish came under council scrutiny Wednesday night.

As aldermen reported on complaints they received from residents of their wards.

Ald. Ewald Miller said he had received several complaints about the foundry smoke which he thought had been rather excessive for the last two weeks.

The residents have complained about cinders or flyash which have been coming from the foundry.

Ald. Leonard Hedberg added that he too had received complaints on that matter, stating that the sootage had been improved but that there seemed to be a time that had been settling.

Mayor Bell commented he had checked into the complaints and found it was not a black smoke but a blue-gray haze that was almost like a fog at ground level. He said he conferred with foundry officials who ascribed the trouble to peculiar atmospheric conditions.

Miller wondered if there was something in the combustion that could be corrected and city officials were instructed to discuss these complaints with foundry officials.

Hedberg also told of complaints of persons burning rubbish in unventilated containers, which he said is against the city ordinance.

The containers also should be 15 feet from the lot lines he said. These complaints were referred to the health and welfare committee which has been considering the rubbish burning matter at its meetings.

The mayor said the committee also should consider the time of day for burning rubbish, always having each rubbish fire attended, rules forbidding the burning of garbage and a prohibition against allowing anything to smolder.

Miller also mentioned a low area on Byrd avenue which is filled with water and is a hazard to children at play. He asked that the street department pump out the water as a safety precaution.

Asks for Minutes He also requested the aldermen be kept informed about the operations of the sewage disposal plant and that minutes of the sewage commission meetings be made available to each alderman.

Miller called attention to the settling of some of the curb and gutters from last year when it was mentioned that the public works committee would be taking bids soon for this year's curb and gutter work.

He asked if the areas could be mechanically tamped or rolled to give more compression and avoid the settling of the curb and gutter. Ald. Warren Sanders agreed with him on this need and Public Works Director Wayne Bryan said specifications this year call for mechanical tamping or rolling. Previously the specifications only called for hand tamping.

Trotters Compete In Extension Meet

Neenah — The University of Wisconsin Extension division golf tournament will be held Friday at Racine. Menasha finished second in a triangular involving Manitowoc and Sheboygan in its only start of the spring. The Trotters wound up third in last year's meet.

len, Dorzweiler and Sewal all made two. Erickson and Peterson posted three for River street and Wiatrowski and Vitek had a pair.

Bob Suess hurled a 4-hitter in Relations' win over Finishing. Herb Buss was the loser. Relations sealed the game with seven runs in the sixth. Dick Olson, Ben Stepanski and Dan Thompson all had three hits for the winners.

Pitches 3-Hitter

Don Brethauer halted Main Office with three hits in Miehle's win. Bob Mulrooney, the loser, was touched for nine.

Rasmussen and Fischer paced the winning attack with two bingles apiece. Thiel had a homer for Office.

Brethauer came up with a 5-hitter in Miehle's win over General Office. Art Jackson was the loser. Miehle had 3-run frames and a 5-runner.

Arnie Buss, Poes, Brethauer and Delano all had two hits. Neenah Plant Cops won three 3-run segments in its win over Shipping. Plant on-Search and Development won from Office Service 10-3 Wednesday.

8-Run Inning

Press overcame the River Street team after spotting its foe eight runs in the second. The winners scored at least two runs in every frame with peaks of four in the fourth and fifth.

Eight Teams Open Catholic Tourney

Beloit, Marquette Clash in First Game; Zephyrs Tangle With Pacelli; Finals Sunday

Menasha — A field of eight Catholic high school baseball teams in the eighth annual state Catholic high school baseball tournament Friday afternoon.

Opening play at 1 p.m. Friday will be Blot Catholic and Marquette High school of Milwaukee. Kenosha 'st. Joseph will meet Madison Edgewood in the 3 p.m. encounter. Edgewood is the defending champion.

Waukesha Catholic Memorial takes on Little Chute St. John at 6 p.m. and host St. Mary collides with Stevens Point Pacelli at 8 p.m.

Semi-final games are scheduled for 3 and 7:30 p.m. on Saturday with the third place and championship games at 1 and 3 p.m. respectively on Sunday.

Edgewood, which defeated St. Bonaventure of Sturdevant for the crown last year, has lost its strong-armed right hander, Gary Moston, through graduation.

Coached by Dave Brown, who succeeded John Roach, the Crusaders currently have a 6-3 record. They came into last year's meet with 10-1.

Returning players include Mike Rieder, catcher; Bill Diehl, pitcher; Terry O'Connor, shortstop; Joe Strenger, second baseman; Jeff Renk, third baseman; and Jerry Robertson, outfielder. The No. 1 pitcher is Mike Sweeney, a sophomore.

Kenosha's last reported record was 10 wins, no losses, and a tie. It has two good hurlers in Joe Schauer and Paul Yutka and they lead the team in batting. The Lancers only lost one player from last year's third place team.

Other returning stars are catcher Denny DeLoria; Mike Wittraukas, pitcher - outfielder; Frank Sheats, outfielder; and Ron Doran, shortstop.

Waukesha Memorial's reported league record was 5-2 and 7-4 overall. Star players include first baseman Tony Ferrara, hitting .575, second baseman Mike O'Connell, .380 and pitcher Fred Hess, who had a 7-1 record a year ago but has been hampered by injuries this spring.

Young Roster
Catcher Robert Wolfe, who is hitting only .150, was listed by his coach as one of the team's outstanding players. A sophomore, Ronald Six is the No. 2 pitcher. The roster includes only four seniors.

Marquette has only two hitters hitting above .250, Gerald Kubiak, centerfielder, with .550, and left fielder Joe Stahl, .363. Captain Mike Freeman, the shortstop, has only a .176 mark. The squad contains only four underclassmen.

Beloit was leading the SW-APS conference at the latest report. It had a 6-0 record but since then lost to Madison Edgewood in a non-league game.

Beloit Stars
The stars are catcher Gene Winger; third baseman Joe Zickert; Pat Gharrity, first baseman; Frank Anastasi, centerfielder; and Mike McKean, pitcher. The team lacks power but has only made one error in the last five games.

Pacelli, coached by Dominic Sparacino, has only one senior on its roster. It reported its record at 3-3. Two of the losses were to St. Mary. Wins came over Nekoosa, Almond and Wausau Newman. The Cardinals committed nine errors in six games, but six came in the St. Mary doubleheader.

St. John has almost an all-senior team paced by shortstop Keith Verstegen with a .473 mark. Ed Hammen is hitting .470 and Tom Geerts .444.

Chutlers Post 3-3
The Dutchmen have split two games with St. Mary, Freedom and Kimberly.

St. Mary's record only

Jays, Rockets To Compete in 'A' Sectional

Assigned to Same Meet for 1st Time in Eight Years

Neenah — For the first time since 1952, the Neenah and Menasha cinder squads will compete against each other in the same sectional track meet Friday night.

Both are entered in the class A sectional. The Rockets are in "A" for the seventh year while Menasha finds itself up with the bigger enrollment schools for the first time.

Neenah competed in class A at Green Bay in 1953 and since then had been assigned to Fond du Lac. The Jays were sent to Kimberly in '53 and were at Ripon in class B the next five springs. Prior to 1953, Neenah was host to the class B sectional.

Win Fondy Meet
The Rockets, who were blanked in their first year in class A, climaxed the up-climb by winning the sectional title at Fond du Lac last May.

At the Packer city they are expected to depend mainly on the boys who carried them to the Mid-Eastern conference crown last week. However, Jim Quade is expected to run the half mile instead of the shows 7-11 but there probably isn't a team in the state which has played in a tougher conference. The Zephyrs met the likes of Oshkosh, Fond du Lac (Hub King and all) and Manitowish.

They had 2-10 in league play and won five of six non-league encounters. Another young team, the Zephyrs just have five seniors on their roster.

Neenah has a good No. 2 half miler in Wayne Rudolf, who has been beaten only by Quade. Paul Prellinger, also defeated only by Quade, will carry Neenah's hopes in the mile. Except for Quade, Pomeroy has the next best mile time in conference.

Other Contenders
Other Neenah contenders include Mike Lintner, 440; Jerry Schaefer and Tom Drews, hurdles; Jerry Hansen, pole vault and broad jump; and Mowry Stulp and Willis Zeinert, weights.

Schaefer, who finished second to Kimberly's Darrell Jansen in the conference meet, exceeded the conference record in the lows but Jansen had a better record-breaking time.

If it weren't for the enrollment increase, the Jays probably would be back at Ripon this spring where they were expected to do well but it is difficult to predict what they can do against the stiffer competition.

Its most consistent scorers are Tom Stepanski, Ron Haas and Jerry Sobiescyk, dashes; Stepanski and Haas, broad jump; the 880 yard relay team; "Rocky" Jersild, hurdles and high jump; and Charlie Weber, weights.

Flood Jolts 890 Set in Lakewood League

Falls 10 Pins Shy Of Honor Series; Clubs 258 Loner

Neenah — Ed Flood belted an 890 4-game series, the tops in the league's 2-year history, as the Lakewood Classic 3-man circuit opened action Wednesday night at Lakewood Lanes. His total was only 10 pins short of a 4-game national honor count.

Flood's set included games of 258 and 243. Wally Moore added 243-770 totals and Duane Kassube hit 723 as their Pastime team rolled a 2,385 high series.

"Hug" Hielsberg cracked an 865 set, including 244 and 235 lines for the night's second best count.

Kluba 707, Tom Rhyner 706 and Earl Ruddy 225-700.

Pastime of Appleton leads with 20,133 Petersen points. Beverage Mart of Oshkosh has 20,051, Club Terrace of Appleton 20,024 and Rusty's of Oshkosh 19,090.

The Smorgasbord Mixed summer league opened play Tuesday night at Lakewood but there were no men's or women's honor scores. The league has 10 teams, four members to a team. Marion Hedberg is secretary.

14 Clubs Enter Second Annual Memorial Day Softball Tournament

First Round Pairings Announced; Kaukauna, Oshkosh Teams Matches in Initial Contest

Menasha — Fourteen teams have entered the second annual Menasha Memorial day softball tournament, according to Bob Noeller, tournament manager, who announced the pairings today.

The meet will get underway Saturday night at Jefferson park and conclude on Sunday night, May 31.

Shamrock Bar of Kaukauna and Hanson of Oshkosh will open the tournament at 8:30 p.m. Saturday with Wertsch Ramblers of Oshkosh colliding with Gibson Chevrolet of Menasha in the 8 p.m. contest.

Gibson Team Plans Two Practice Games
Menasha — The Gibson company softball team will have practice games against Menasha Recreation Sunday and Kimberly Clark next Tuesday night, according to Dick Meyer, manager. Uniforms will be distributed. The team will compete in the Memorial day tournament at Jefferson park.

Sunday's action gets underway with a 1:30 p.m. tangle involving Blue Ribbon Bar of Menasha and Lom's Bar of Green Bay. Park 'N' Market of Green Bay will square off against Pizza Parlor of Oshkosh at 3 p.m.

Sunday night games are Oscar's of Fond du Lac versus Banta's of Menasha at 6:30 p.m. and Jitter and Joe's against Red Arrow Club of Sheboygan at 8 p.m.

Irene's Lunch of Green Bay, last year's champion, and Subway Bar of Appleton, the runnerup, get first round byes. Irene's will open at 6:30 p.m. May 30 against the Wertsch - Gibson winner and Subway will meet the Banta-Oscar's victor at 8 p.m. that night.

Two games are slated for Saturday afternoon, May 30, with the semi-finals the afternoon of the next day and the finals and third place game in the evening.

Former Dean to Speak at Graduation

AHS Commencement
June 4; 15 Students
On Program

Dr. John Guy Fowlkes, former dean of the school of education at the University of Wisconsin, will give the main address at the 55th annual commencement of Appleton High school.

Commencement exercises for the class of '59 will be held at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, June 4, in the AHS auditorium.

Dr. Fowlkes recently has been appointed director of educational research at the University of Wisconsin under a grant from the Ford foundations' fund for the advancement of education. The project covers a 5-year period beginning July 1, 1959.

The Appleton school system is one of eight Wisconsin systems invited to participate in the program.

Since 1941 Fowlkes has served the university as the dean of the school of education and since 1942 has been director of the university summer session. He has also directed various school surveys throughout the state. Educated at Columbia university in New York, Dr. Fowlkes was a teacher, headmaster and principal at schools in the East before coming to Wisconsin.

As an author, he has written many books and articles on school finance and public school. Five will take part as soloists or accompanists. Speakers for the program will be Tom Baurain, John Baumgartner, Bonnie Barlow, Joe Foley, Jim Harrass, Judy Manier, Mary Metz, John Scribner, Linda De Noy and Sue Zeles. Student musicians will be Joanne Grobe, Barbara Larsen and Rhonda Cundy as soloists, and Astrida Akmentins and Fay Royan as accompanists.

Fifteen students also will take part in the commencement program. Ten will discuss "On Being an Individual."

Device Improves Detection of Breaks in Wire

Edward M. Jenkel, 948 E. Byrd street, has patented a new control device for wire weaving machines. It will stop weaving operations if a wire breaks.

The device improves present techniques which turn off the machine occasionally under normal vibration. The new device employs electrical circuits.

When a wire breaks, the break is detected by electrically charged wires located where there is little movement in the loom. The patent has been assigned to Appleton Wire Works.

King's Daughters Circle Turns From Skillet and Oven

In the Spirit of Springtime, Mrs. Robert DeCock, 517 E. Marquette street, chose to make the Meringue Cake recipe from the new cookbook, "To Many Cooks," by the Benefit circle of King's Daughters. Here is the luscious dessert on her dining room table, ready to serve with raspberries as the favored fruit for filling and topping.

Pancakes become a Glamor dish for luncheon or Sunday night supper when served with strawberries at the Clarence L. Zelle home, 118 S. Lawe street. This recipe for Strawberry Pancakes is an original, created by Mrs. Zelle and cheered with delight by family and friends each time she serves them.

Benefit Circle Histo Cookbook Latest Project In Furthering Charity Work

BY SUSAN NOYES
Post-Crescent Society Editor

"To Many Cooks," the cheerful yellow cookbook to be distributed Friday in Appleton by Benefit circle of King's Daughters marks another milestone achieved by the unit in furthering a myriad of charitable causes.

Proceeds of the book sale will be used by the circle to assist various Appleton organizations. The book will be sold by members stationed in College and Wisconsin avenue stores.

Since the circle's inception in 1942 its 30 members have developed numerous fund-raising projects. Chief among these is the sponsoring of the appearance of a major musical organization in Appleton every other year.

First Concert

While other King's Daughters circles have staged musical benefits in Appleton in recent years, Benefit circle holds the unique status of being the first circle to initiate such appearances. Its first project in this field was the sponsoring of a concert in 1948 by the Chicago Symphony orchestra.

In the last decade, the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra and the Montovani String orchestra have appeared under their auspices, and in 1951, circle members joined forces with the KD Service circle in sponsoring a concert by the Boys Town Choir.

Their next musical benefit will be Sept. 26 when they bring the U. S. Marine Band of national fame to Appleton. Mrs. John Rosebush and Mrs. Sidney Dutcher are in charge of the band's appearance here.

Children's Art Program

Along with fostering musical appreciation among members of the adult community, the circle has inspired youth interest by scheduling matinee concerts for children by the musical organizations at the time of their Appleton performances.

Appleton young people have also felt the effect of the circle's interest in artistically inclined school pupils. Each year it supports a Children's Art Program at Lawrence college where talented youth recommended by their teachers, study under Mrs. Thomas Dietrich and advanced students in Saturday classes. The program includes a field trip to the Milwaukee Memorial Art center.

In off years, between concerts, the circle devotes attention to such money-raising projects as spring program teas, rummage sales and this year's cookbook.

Better Health Conditions

Financial assistance by the circle has been mainly devoted to bettering health conditions in Appleton. Beneficiaries have included both Appleton Memorial and St. Elizabeth hospitals, the Visiting Nurse association, the Community Blood center and the proposed Community Guidance clinic.

Members were the first to present the VNA with money for a building fund for its present quarters. They purchased a Monaghan portable respirator for entire community use during the polio crisis in 1953 and bought the first equipment for the physical therapy department at St. Elizabeth, which they continue to furnish with vital apparatus.

Both money and women hours have been donated to the Community Blood center while at present, the circle's newest interest, the proposed Community Guidance clinic is being assisted with funds to publicize its aims.

Directing circle efforts in the past year have been the Mmes. Dexter Wolfe retiring president; E. Bradley Shepard, vice president; Sidney Dutcher, retiring recording secretary; Joseph Marston, Jr., corresponding secretary; Stephen Freschl, treasurer; and Vincent Jones, retiring publicity officer.

To Printer's Ink—Result a Cookbook

BY LILLIAN MACKESY
Post-Crescent Food Editor

"Eatin' and drinking want but a beginnin'," goes an old Scottish proverb . . . and with these sage words begins a new cookbook that makes its official debut in the Fox Cities Friday.

It's called "To Many Cooks." The collection of about 260 recipes and seven pages of quick ideas represents hundreds of hours of womanpower and 10 long months of work for its creators, the 30-member Benefit circle of King's Daughters. The original pen and ink drawings that decorate each page, pastel yellow and black cover and five category title pages alone account for more than 100 hours of work by artist-member Mrs. Russell E. Berggren.

Professional Touch

Three key people on the project lent a professional touch to the actual preparation of the cookbook. Mrs. Berggren is trained in art as a Wellesley college graduate and the co-chairmen represent the other two ingredients for an outstanding cookbook. Mrs. Forrest Sprowl, home economist from Purdue university, and Mrs. William H. Hale, whose degree is from the Medill School of Journalism, Northwestern university.

Assisting on the recipe assembling committee were the Mmes. Vincent Jones, William Siekman, William Playman, John Walworth, James Femal and Robert Furstenberg.

Starting out last July with just an idea, Benefit circle members decided to carry on a sort of King's Daughters tradition in that the Infant Welfare circle previously had published three cookbooks through the years.

The call went out for recipes and when more than 400 came in, work began in earnest.

Duplications had to be discarded, committee members had to work on wordings, dream up catchy phrases and titles, plan details of the organization of the book. Each recipe chosen had to be checked for such things as ingredients, directions, measurements and pan sizes. Each recipe had to be taken apart and put back together again in standardized form. Step-by-step, the book was correlated as to text, art work and content. Round robin meetings were held in various members' homes with the hostess serving a "cookbook" special to brighten the work load. Several sessions of proofreading were held before the book went off to the printers in its final form.

Thus evolved a cookbook with washable cover, spiral binding that makes the book lie flat when open. It comes with index, blank pages for new ideas and two recipes to a page.

Circle members frankly point out that their cookbook is not a basic one—it's for women who enjoy cooking. Although the recipes are not particularly difficult, they strive to be interesting and out of the ordinary. Some are old family recipes, others are favorites with a gourmet touch and still others are original creations that have been tested by time and family popularity.

Each of the five categories opens with a bit of poetry or saying such as the Scottish proverb that heads the appetizer section: "Mind your Peas and Cues" is the heading for the vegetable category and another old proverb is used for the salads, "To make a salad you must be a spendthrift for oil, a miser for vinegar." The two other divisions are main dishes and desserts.

Recipes on wine cookery are included in the book as are several special favorites of members' hunter-husbands. Among the latter are such recipes as Pleasant Pheasant, Wild Duck and Orange Sauce and Venison Steak and Chops.

Three seasonal recipes include an original luncheon or supper pancake, leg of lamb with sherry and a delightful meringue cake that may be served with strawberries, Basted With Sherry and Water mixture as it bakes, leg of lamb turns into a gourmet dish. This is one of the favorite recipes in the collection of Mrs. Charles L. Dostal, 500 N. Vine street, in whose home this picture was taken.

raspberries, peaches or other desired fruit.

Strawberry Pancakes

4 eggs
1 cup sugar
1 cup flour
1 cup milk
1 quart fresh strawberries (or large package frozen fruit)
powdered sugar

Beat eggs, add sugar, flour and milk. Batter should not be lumpy. Make king sized pancakes. Fry in half vegetable shortening and half butter.

Leg of Lamb With Sherry

1 leg of lamb
flour
salt and pepper
1 cup sherry mixed with 1 cup water
1 glass currant jelly

Dredge leg of lamb in flour, salt and pepper. Put in moderate, 325-degree oven in open roaster. Cook 30 minutes per pound, basting with sherry and water mixture at intervals. One half hour before serving, press currant jelly over the roast. Let brown. Serve meat with sauce over it.

Meringue Cake

Part I
1 cup butter
1 cup powdered sugar
4 egg yolks, beaten
3 tablespoons milk
1 cup flour
1 teaspoon baking powder

Mix butter and powdered sugar. Add beaten egg yolks, milk, flour and baking powder. After blending thoroughly, divide mixture and spread in bottom of two spring-form pans. Layers will be very thin.

Part II

4 egg whites
1 cup granulated sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon vinegar

Beat egg whites until very stiff. Gradually add cup of sugar while beating. Then add vanilla and vinegar. Spread this mixture over cake batter in two pans, being careful to extend to edges of pans. Bake in a 350-degree oven for 25 minutes. Serve with ice cream and fruit, placed between layers and on top of cake, or with whipped cream and fruit. Strawberries, raspberries or peaches are fruit suggestions.

Now that "To Many Cooks" has passed its publishing phase, the project goes into the hands of the sales and publicity committee headed by Mrs. Abbott Byfield.

Working with her are the Mmes. Robert DeCock, Charles Dostal, James Gmehner, Joseph Marston, Jr., F. A. Meythaler, Talbot Peterson, Clarence Zelle and Miss Lucille Koll.

Benefit Circle Histo Cookbook Latest Project In Furthering Charity Work

Post-Crescent Society Editor

"To Many Cooks," the cheerful yellow cookbook to be distributed Friday in Appleton by Benefit circle of King's Daughters marks another milestone achieved by the unit in furthering a myriad of charitable causes. Proceeds of the book sale will be used by the circle to assist various Appleton organizations. The book will be sold by members stationed in College and Wisconsin avenue stores.

Since the circle's inception in 1942, its 30 members have developed numerous fund-raising projects. Chief among these is the sponsoring of the appearance of a major musical organization in Appleton every other year.

First Concert
While other King's Daughters circles have staged musical benefits in Appleton in recent years, Benefit circle holds the unique status of being the first circle to initiate such appearances. Its first project in this field was the sponsoring of a concert in 1948 by the Chicago Symphony orchestra.

In the last decade, the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra and the Montovani String orchestra have appeared under their auspices, and in 1961, circle members joined forces with the KD Service circle in sponsoring a concert by the Boys Town Choir.

Their next musical benefit will be Sept. 26 when they bring the U. S. Marine Band of national fame to Appleton. Mrs. John Rosebush and Mrs. Sidney Dutcher are in charge of the band's appearance here.

Children's Art Program
Along with fostering musical appreciation among members of the adult community, the circle has inspired youthful interest by scheduling matinee concerts for children by the musical organizations at the time of their Appleton performances.

Appleton young people have also felt the effect of the circle's interest in artistically inclined school pupils. Each year it supports a Children's Art Program at Lawrence college where talented youth, recommended by their teachers, study under Mrs. Thomas Dietrich and advanced art students in Saturday classes. The program includes a field trip to the Milwaukee Memorial Art center.

In off years, between concerts, the circle devotes attention to such money-raising projects as spring program teas, rummage sales and this year's cookbook.

Better Health Conditions
Financial assistance by the circle has been mainly devoted to bettering health conditions in Appleton. Beneficiaries have included both Appleton Memorial and St. Elizabeth hospitals, the Visiting Nurse association, the Community Blood center and the proposed Community Guidance clinic.

Members were the first to present the VNA with money for a building fund for its present quarters. They purchased a Monaghan portable respirator for entire community use during the polio crisis in 1953 and bought the first equipment for the physical therapy department at St. Elizabeth, which they continue to furnish with vital apparatus.

Both money and women-hours have been donated to the Community Blood center while at present, the circle's newest interest, the proposed Community Guidance clinic, is being assisted with funds to publicize its aims.

To Printer's Ink—Result a Cookbook

Post-Crescent Food Editor

"Eatin' and drinking want but a beginnin'," goes an old Scottish proverb . . . and with these sage words begins a new cookbook that makes its official debut in the Fox Cities Friday.

It's called "To Many Cooks." The collection of about 260 recipes and seven pages of quick ideas represents hundreds of hours of womanpower and 10 long months of work for its creators, the 30-member Benefit circle of King's Daughters. The original pen and ink drawings that decorate each page, pastel yellow and black cover and five category title pages alone account for more than 100 hours of work by artist-member Mrs. Russell E. Berggren.

Professional Touch
Three key people on the project lent a professional touch to the actual preparation of the cookbook. Mrs. Berggren is trained in art as a Wellesley college graduate and the co-chairmen represent the other two ingredients for an outstanding cookbook, Mrs. Forrest Sprowl, home economist from Purdue university, and Mrs. William H. Hale, whose degree is from the Medill School of Journalism, Northwestern university.

Assisting on the recipe assembling committee were the Mmes. Vincent Jones, William Siekman, William Playman, John Walworth, James Femal and Robert Furstenberg.

Starting out last July with just an idea, Benefit circle members decided to carry on a sort of King's Daughters tradition in that the Infant Welfare circle previously had published three cookbooks through the years.

The call went out for recipes and when more than 400 came in, work began in earnest.

Duplications had to be discarded, committee members had to work on wordings, dream up catchy phrases and titles, plan details of the organization of the book. Each recipe chosen had to be checked for such things as ingredients, directions, measurements and pan sizes. Each recipe had to be taken apart the past year have been the Mmes. Dexter Wolfe, retiring president; E. Bradley Shepard, vice president; Sidney Dutcher, retiring recording secretary; Joseph Marston, Jr., corresponding secretary; Stephen Freschl, treasurer, and Vincent Jones, retiring publicity officer.

Recipes on wine cookery are included in the book as are several special favorites of members' hunter-husbands. Among the latter are such recipes as Pleasant Pheasant, Wild Duck and Orange Sauce and Venison Steak and Chops.

Three seasonal recipes include an original luncheon or supper pancake, leg of lamb with sherry and a delightful meringue cake that may be served with strawberries, and put back together again in standardized form. Step-by-step, the book was correlated as to text, art work and content. Round robin meetings were held in various members' homes with the hostess serving a "cookbook" special to brighten the work load. Several sessions of proofreading were held before the book went off to the printers in its final form.

Thus evolved a cookbook with washable cover, spiral binding that makes the book lie flat when open. It comes with index, blank pages for new ideas and two recipes to a page.

Circle members frankly point out that their cookbook is not a basic one—it's for women who enjoy cooking. Although the recipes are not particularly difficult, they strive to be interesting and out of the ordinary. Some are old family recipes, others are favorites with a gourmet touch and still others are original creations that have been tested by time and family popularity.

Each of the five categories opens with a bit of poetry or saying such as the Scottish proverb that heads the appetizer section, "Mind your Peas and Cues" is the heading for the vegetable category and another old proverb is used for the salads, "To make a salad you must be a spendthrift for oil, a miser for vinegar." The two other divisions are main dishes and desserts.

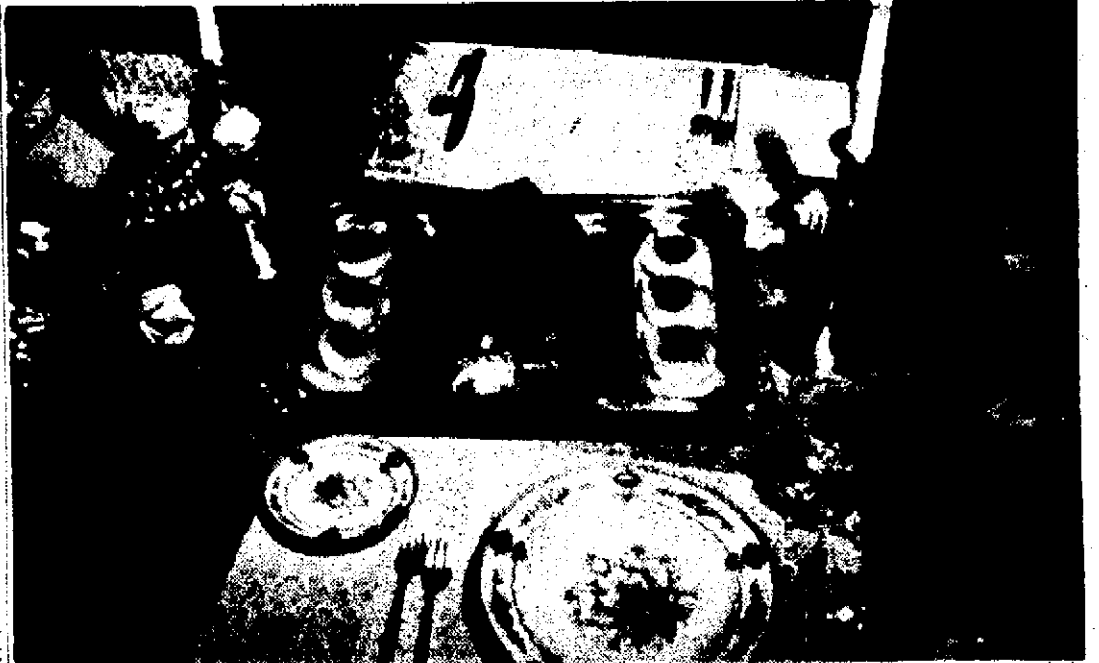

Recipes on wine cookery are included in the book as are several special favorites of members' hunter-husbands. Among the latter are such recipes as Pleasant Pheasant, Wild Duck and Orange Sauce and Venison Steak and Chops.

Three seasonal recipes include an original luncheon or supper pancake, leg of lamb with sherry and a delightful meringue cake that may be served with strawberries, raspberries, peaches or other desired fruit.

Strawberry Pancakes
4 eggs
1 cup sugar
1 cup flour
1 cup milk
1 quart fresh strawberries (or large package frozen fruit)
powdered sugar
Beat eggs, add sugar, flour and milk. Batter should not be lumpy. Make king sized pancakes. Fry in half vegetable shortening and half butter.

Meringue Cake
Part I
1 cup butter
1 cup powdered sugar
4 egg yolks, beaten
3 tablespoons milk
1 cup flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
Mix butter and powdered sugar. Add beaten egg yolks, milk, flour and baking powder. After blending thoroughly, divide mixture and spread in bottom of two spring-form pans. Layers will be very thin.

Part II
4 egg whites
1 cup granulated sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon vinegar
Beat egg whites until very stiff. Gradually add cup of sugar while beating. Then add vanilla and vinegar. Spread this mixture over cake batter in two pans, being careful to extend to edges of pans. Bake in a 350-degree oven for 25 minutes. Serve with ice cream and fruit, placed between layers and on top of cake, or with whipped cream and fruit. Strawberries, raspberries or peaches are fruit suggestions.

Now that "To Many Cooks" has passed its publishing phase, the project goes into the hands of the sales and publicity committee headed by Mrs. Abbott Byfield.

Working with her are the Mmes. Robert DeCock, Charles Dostal, James Gmeiner, Joseph Marston, Jr., F. A. Meythaler, Talbot Peterson, Clarence Zelle and Miss Lucille Koll.

Mmes. Kay C. Metz, I. J. Jones to Be BPW Convention Speakers

Mrs. Kay Clancy Metz, former newspaper woman now in public relations for the Quaker Oats company, Chicago, will be the convention speaker at the state Business and Professional Women's meet in Appleton Friday through Sunday. She will speak at the Saturday evening banquet at St. Joseph parish hall.

Mrs. Isabella J. Jones, current associate director in charge of planning the 1960 White House Conference on Children and Youth, Washington, D.C., is the national representative to the convention and will speak at the Saturday noon luncheon at the Elks club. She is national career advancement chairman for BPW.

Mrs. Metz has worked as a reporter on the Denver Post, St. Louis Star-Times and the Chicago Tribune. She also was publisher and editor of her own weekly newspaper in Iowa. At one time she served as an exchange editor to the Republic of Mexico, and wrote for 33 newspapers and several trade publications in the United States during that time. For her work in Latin America she was awarded an "I" by Iowa State college for outstanding achievement in journalism.

Iowa Legislature
Mrs. Metz has been elected to the Iowa legislature twice and served four years in the House of Representatives. Currently she is in the public relations department of the Quaker Oats company as director of women's activities and has prepared two packaged programs on public affairs which are available for women's organizations.

Mrs. Metz is affiliated with BPW, National Federation of Press Women, National Order of Women Legislators, American Women in Radio and Television, Women's Advertising Club of Chicago and Theta Sigma Phi.

Mrs. Jones is immediate past president of the Pennsylvania federation of BPW and vice chairman of the Northeast region. To accept her post as 1960 White House youth conference director, she was released from her duties as special assistant to the assistant secretary of the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

BPW Officer
She has served BPW as national legislation chairman, first vice president of the Pennsylvania federation, director and vice president of Pennsylvania's district three.

and president of the Pittsburgh club. Mrs. Jones also has been a member of the staff of the late U.S. Sen. James J. Davis and an editor of the North Pittsburgh Times.

She was the first woman to hold office as secretary of the Republican state committee of Pennsylvania and was a member of the legislative advisory committee of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women.

Mrs. Jones is a member of the national board of the Women's Medical College of Philadelphia and regional vice president of United Cerebral Palsy, Inc. She is a member of Altrusa International, a director of the Pennsylvania Welfare forum and a member of the Woman's club of Pittsburgh and the League of Women Voters.

Business Sessions
The Saturday morning business session begins at 8:30 a.m. at Trinity Lutheran parish hall. The invocation will be given by the Rev. K. W. Wagner and Mayor Clarence Mitchell will welcome the delegates and guests, the response being given by Mrs. Henrietta Ekstrom, second vice president.

Mrs. Jones will extend greetings from national and the business meeting will begin. There will be a report of the nominating committee; presentation of candidates; secretary, treasurer and auditor reports; report of credentials committee, president's report and adoption of legislative platforms and by-law amendments.

At 2 p.m. Saturday "Accent on Youth" panel discussion will be held in the parish hall with Miss Dorothy H. Safford as moderator. Mrs. Elmore Schultz and Deer county career council members will be panelists.

The afternoon session will begin at 2:45 p.m. and will feature new business and the report of the resolutions and elections committees. The banquet will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday.

Miss Esther Bock President of Appleton BPW

Miss Esther Bock was installed as president of the Appleton Business and Professional Women's club at the Tuesday evening meeting at the YMCA.

Other officers are Miss Virginia Brussow vice president; Miss Keith Ann Nelson, recording secretary; Miss Evelyn Ecker, treasurer, and Miss Viola Pedersen, corresponding secretary.

During the business meeting final plans were made for the state convention which will be held in Appleton Friday through Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mennen Couple Marks Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mennen, 185 N. John street, Kimberly, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday.

They were married on May 18, 1909, in St. Joseph Catholic church, Appleton.

The couple observed their anniversary on Saturday morning with a mass of thanksgiving at Holy Name Catholic church, Kimberly, and at an open house and supper at the Kimberly club house on Sunday. An attendant at the wedding, Mrs. Anna Mauer, Appleton, attended the celebration.

The couple has five children and 15 grandchildren. The children are Mrs. Ray Van- evenhoven, Neenah, Mrs. Donald Lynn, Santa Monica, Calif., Mrs. Ralph Wildenberg, Mrs. Clarence Gehrmann and Giles Mennen, all of Kimberly.

Mr. Mennen was employed at the Kimberly-Clark corporation, Kimberly, prior to his retirement in 1945.

Miss Sandra Baron

Parents Tell Betrothal of Sandra Baron

Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Baron, 1604 W. Summer street, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sandra, to Paul M. Rubin, Madison, son of Mrs. Joseph M. Rubin, Washington, D.C., and the late Mr. Rubin.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Milwaukee Downer seminary, Milwaukee, and is a freshman at the University of Wisconsin. Her fiance graduated from the University of Maryland, Baltimore, Md., and is a member of Phi Alpha fraternity. He is employed as a computer programmer by the System Development corporation of Santa Monica, Calif.

A summer wedding is being planned.

Alumnae Fete A D Pi Seniors

The Alpha Delta Pi Fox River Valley alumnae group entertained the senior girls of the Lawrence chapter at a dinner at Riverview Country club Tuesday evening.

Toastmistress was Miss Betty Plowright and the reply was given for the seniors by Karen Kennigott. Other seniors are Corinne Niemz, Judy Hallett, Jacqueline Wells, Nancy Oetting, Peggy Glynn, Ann Alexander and Cindy Von Storch.

Dinner chairman was Mrs. W. C. Stach assisted by Mrs. Adam Remley, Mrs. Francis Scholtz, Mrs. Melvin Ruth, Miss Plowright, Mrs. Arnold Evans, Mrs. Kenneth Kloehn and Mrs. Gordon Golz.

Quick Ideas Offered in Cookbook

Timely hints to bring a touch of taste magic to a dish or to provide short-cuts for the busy home maker are among the features of the new cookbook, "To Many Cooks." Here are a few:

Mess Magic
For a 2-pound pot roast, sprinkle with one teaspoon grated clove, salt and pepper. Pour one-half bottle cider over roast. Cover and cook for two hours at 325 degrees.

Pour gingerale over seasoned ham when baking to obtain a good flavor and glaze.

Fast 'n' Fancy
Whole canned figs mixed with a cup of sour cream makes a good dessert.

For banana sherbet, combine the juice of one lemon and one orange. Add mashed banana, one cup milk and one cup sugar. Fold in whipped cream and freeze in ice cube tray. Serves six to eight persons. For wonderful chocolate sauce, cook for 10 minutes in a double boiler: one can evaporated milk, two squares chocolate, two cups powdered sugar and one-fourth cup butter. Freeze leftover whipped cream in dollops on cookie sheet. When frozen, wrap in foil and keep for desserts as needed.

Four Creme de Menthe over ice cream or sherbet for a delicious sundae.

Easy Does It
Put orange and banana slices, pineapple cubes or any fruit combination on a skewer for picnic salads.

Brunke Family Visits Appleton

ery, pickles and a dash of onion salt. Try pear halves with shredded American cheese or any mint jelly.

For a pretty glaze, melt one-fourth cup butter and three tablespoons honey. Pour over of vegetables

In Good Taste Phone Call Should Not Delay Meal

BY EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Last night while we were having dinner, the telephone rang and my son got up to answer it. He came back into the dining room and said that the call was for me, and told me who it was. Knowing this person to be a great talker, I told him to say that we were in the midst of dinner and that I would call her back later, which I did. However, she wasn't as friendly as she usually is and I think she was put out with me for not coming to the telephone when she called. Will you please tell me if I was rude?

Answer: Not at all. What you did was quite proper. To have gone to the telephone and interrupted dinner would have been most inconsiderate to your family and very rude to any guest you may have had.

Meal Question

Dear Mrs. Post: Is there an obligation upon the family of the deceased to provide a light repast for at least the pall bearers who served at the funeral? The service started at 11 a.m. and were completed at the cemetery at 1:30 p.m. and several of them traveled a distance of about 30 miles to be present. There has been some criticism of the family for not having provided them with food before leaving for home.

Answer: I do not think the family of the deceased should be expected to provide meals for anyone on the very trying day of the funeral.

Guest Begins Eating

Dear Mrs. Post: A discussion has arisen as to a point of etiquette at the table. My friend contends that as soon as you are served, it is proper to begin eating. Whereas, I have always been taught one must wait until the hostess is served and begins to eat. Will you please tell me who is right?

Answer: You may begin to eat as soon as two or three others have been served.

E. Bradley Shepard, vice president; Mrs. Joseph Marston, Jr., corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Stephen Freschi, treasurer.

Mrs. Charles Dostal and Mrs. John Walworth were named co-chairmen of a committee to arrange a June 22 picnic at the home of Mrs. Talbot Peterson, 1421 W. Oakcrest drive. Working with them will be the Mmes. John Hovde, William Siekman, John Menn, Rosebush and Playman.

Reports were submitted by Mrs. Menn on behalf of the children's art program, Mrs. Rosebush for the marine band concert, and Mrs. James Gmeiner, membership.

The Mmes. Marston, Jr., and Mrs. F. A. Meythaler served as co-hostesses.

North Shore Golf Club Sets Formal Dance

Technique Needed to Answer Questions of Gossiper

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN: I'm a newlywed. We will be married seven months tomorrow. The original Mrs. Butinsky lives next door to my mother. She's been a solid fixture in my mother's kitchen (gossiping night and day) since I was old enough to Ann Landers remember. Although I never liked her, Mom always insisted I be polite and call her Auntie Belle.

I drop by to see Mom almost every day and Auntie Belle is always there. She insists on patting my middle and says "Are you pregnant yet?" This gets me so mad I could chew nails.

It so happens I am two months along but I don't want to tell anyone for a while. How can I get around this nosey old woman's question? If I say no she'll figure out later that I lied. — Furious

The next time "Mrs. Butinsky" asks you this all-too-personal (and none of her business) question simply say, "When I'm ready to make an announcement you'll be among the first to know."

Merely because some people have the crust to ask anything doesn't mean you owe them the information.

St. John Church Site Of Wedding Service

Miss Janice Weyenberg became the bride of Richard Zwiers at 9 a.m. today at St. John Catholic church, Little Chute. The Rev. Martin Vosbeek officiated at the double ring ceremony and nuptial high mass. Soloist was Ronald Versteegen, Kimberly.

The couple was honored at a breakfast at the home of the bride's parents and at a noon dinner at the May Nor restaurant. The newlyweds will be feted at a 7 to 9 p.m. reception and a 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. dance at Van Abel's, Hollandtown.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Weyenberg, French road, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zwiers, route 1, Menasha.

The bride and her father

I had a big fight with his brother. He said he'd never go home again to visit if I'm there. He lives 200 miles away. We live over 1,700. I figure he can go home almost any time.

My husband just told me he wants to make the trip without me this year. Do you think it's right for him to spend our $400 to go alone? I get along fine with everyone in the family except this one brother. My husband went so far as to say if I went he would stay at home — and this is final. Please give me your frank opinion.—Myldred

Dear Myldred: Your husband is behaving like a child with a high fever. You should make the trip together. If his brother wants to stay away that's his business. But why let him wreck your vacation plans?

Tell your husband you plan to make the trip and that you hope he'll accompany you. Go alone if he insists on being mulish, and let both brothers behave like liddy biddy babies if they want to.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for Ann Landers' new booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

were preceded down the aisle by Mrs. James Verhassek, Appleton, sister of the bride, who was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Roger Gerrits, route 1, Kaukauna, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Carol Du Frane, Kimberly, aunt of the bridegroom.

Miss Diane Weyenberg, route 3, Appleton, sister of the bride, was the junior aid, and Cindy Schmitz, Menasha, cousin of the bride, was the miniature bride.

Best man was Jerold Zwiers, route 2, Kaukauna, brother of the bridegroom, and Gerald Weyenberg, Appleton, brother of the bride, and Mr. Gerrits were groomsmen. Ushers were Mr. Verhassek and Lawrence Zwiers, route 1, Menasha, brother of the bridegroom. Tony Zwiers, route 1, Menasha, brother of the bridegroom, was the miniature bridegroom.

After a wedding trip to northern Canada, the couple will reside at route 1, Kaukauna.

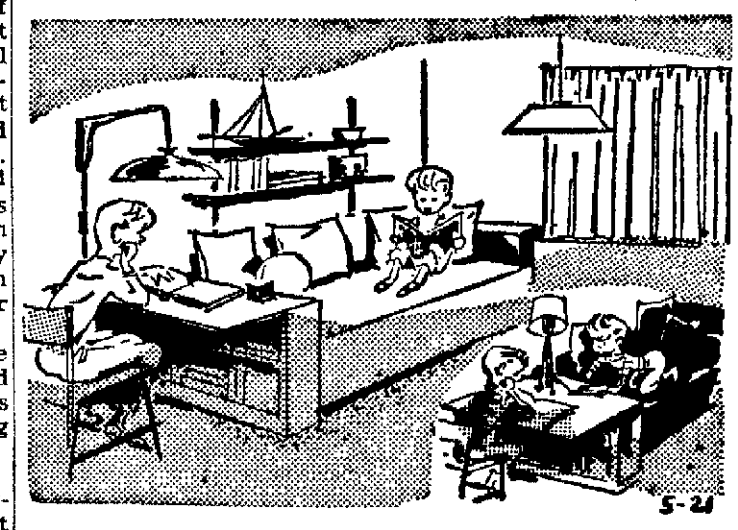

The bride is a graduate of St. John High school, Little Chute, and is a receptionist for the Mrs. Lawrence and William Keller, the bridegroom attended Freedom High school and is operator of the Freedom Beer depot and service station.

Discover Link Between Income And Dizziness

Durham, N.C. —A specialist on problems of the aged says there may be a link between dizziness and income.

Dr. Juan A. Pons told a gerontology seminar here yesterday that 54 per cent of a test group of 200 volunteer subjects, all 60 or over, complained of frequent dizziness.
He found that sex, race and age had little or no relationship to the ailment. But he did note that more people in low income brackets suffered from dizzy spells than those who had earned more money.

Dr. Pons, former secretary of health for Puerto Rico and now a senior fellow in geriatric psychiatry at Duke, said many people in the low income group were plagued by insecurity feelings and financial problems throughout their lives.

He also said those who complained of dizziness tended to be worriers about their health, and were sick more often than those free from dizziness.

Gerontology is the study of problems and characteristics of old age.

pleton Coated president, welcomed committee members.

The group then adjourned to the company's main conference room at the mill for morning and afternoon meetings. Members toured the mill and were shown the company's new addition under construction along Wisconsin avenue. J. P. Regve, executive vice-president and mill manager, explained the manufacturing processes which will be performed in the new addition.

Sessions are being conducted by D. J. Ramaker of the

Kay L. Wenzlaff Elected Head of Job's Daughters

Election of officers for the coming 6-month term was held by Job's Daughters Bethel 24 Monday evening. Elected to serve were Kay Lynn Wen-zlaff, honored queen; Sandra Montieth, senior princess; Diane Natrop, junior princess; Donna Lee Dewey, Kimberly, guide, and Sandra Hale, marshal.

A memorial service was held after the election in commemoration of Memorial day.
The ceremony was written and directed by Miss Hale.

Final plans were made for the 20th birthday celebration of the local Bethel which will be held at the Masonic temple at 6 p.m., Saturday. Mrs.
Beatrice Behl, past grand guardian of Wisconsin who instituted the Bethel 20 years ago, will be a guest at the celebration.

Many of the charter members will return for the occasion and all except one of the original council will be present. Mrs. Alan Smyth, grand guardian of Wisconsin, Janesville, and Clayton Reynolds, associate grand guardian of Wisconsin, Richland Center, will attend.

Installation of officers will be held at the Masonic temple at 7:30 p.m., June 13. It will be open to the public.

Miss Luthera Churchmen Elected President Of Lutheran Synod

Minneapolis —The Rev.
George L. Lundquist, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Milwaukee, Wednesday was elected president of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of the Northwest.

But the 46-year-old minister said, "I must take it to my Lord before accepting."

Pastor Lundquist assumed his present assignment in January of 1957. He attempted to confer with members of the church council by telephone.

The out-going president,
Rev. Paul E. Bishop of Minn-neapolis, urged Rev. Lundquist to make a decision by today.

The synod covered Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota and Montana.

Water Rises On Lakeshore During Wind

Piers Damaged, Debris Litters Northern Beaches

Winds up to 50 miles an hour Wednesday and a high lake level combined to deposit two feet of water on lawns and beaches on the northern shore of Lake Winnebago. Long-time residents in the Waverly beach area said it was the second time in 20 years water had come that far onto their lawns.

(The high water at the north end of the lake could have been contributed to higher atmospheric pressures at the south end of the lake forcing water north. This effect, first noted in Switzerland, is called "seiche.")

The southeast winds began about 2 p.m. and continued to 3 p.m. By 3:30, water had subsided, but residents found debris piled on lawns and many piers were damaged.

Wooden decks loosely fastened to some steel piers floated away, residents reported.

Companies Threatened
Kimberly-Clark and Bergstrom paper companies reported high water nearly flooded their lakeside plants, but no damage was reported. Both companies were prepared to sandbag in case of higher water.

Bergstrom officials reported water spilled over the canal wall for about 15 minutes, but there was no damage.

Water came within six inches of flooding the Neenah mill of Kimberly-Clark.

Arthur Coel, Menasha commercial fisherman, said waves on the lake reached six feet. He was on the lake during the storm, but said he was not in serious trouble while trying to reach shore.

Record High Winds
Wisconsin-Michigan Power company said its wind-measuring device recorded winds up to 50 miles an hour in Appleton between 1:45 and 2:45 p.m. Wednesday. Peak winds were recorded at 2:40. There were frequent gusts ranging from 20 to 40 miles an hour. The measuring device is on top of the company's radio tower.

The U. S. weather bureau in Green Bay attributed the high winds to thunderstorm activity in northeastern Wisconsin.

The Army Corps of Engineers said water levels were above normal at the Menasha dam. For the last two weeks, water levels have been 15 or 16 inches above the crest of the dam. Wednesday, the level rose to 17 1/2 inches and today it is 19 1/2 inches above the dam. An additional floodgate has been opened to take care of additional water.

Engineers attribute the water level rise to high rainfall.

Other Wind Damage
A gust of wind sucked a 12-foot by 8-foot 4-inch plate glass display window from the Ford Rexall Drug store at Superior street and College avenue about 2:15 p.m. Wednesday. No one was injured.

In Kaukauna, high winds felled an 80-foot, 100-year-old elm tree in Grignon park about 3 p.m. Wednesday. A roadside was crushed.

UW Regents Give Three Professors Teaching Awards

Madison — Three University of Wisconsin top young teachers have received $1,000 awards for excellency in teaching. The awards were presented at the May faculty meeting by Carl E. Steiger, Oshkosh, vice president of the UW Board of Regents.

Winners of the annual William H. Kiekhof Memorial Teaching awards were Dr. Eugene Francis Kaelin, assistant professor of philosophy, and Dr. Karl Kroeber, instructor in English.

Winner of the Emil H. Steiger Memorial Teaching award was Dr. Donald H. Bucklin, assistant professor of zoology.

This was the first presentation of a Steiger award, set up this year by Regent Steiger and his sister, Mrs. Sophia S. Roth, Oshkosh, as a memorial for their father, the late Emil H. Steiger, Oshkosh. Since their establishment in 1953, Kiekhof awards have gone to ten other young Wisconsin faculty members.

climbed down Wednesday just before another strong blast carried away a section under repair.

They were working at the company when a gust ripped away a 12-foot by 30-foot section they were repairing after it was damaged in the May 10 tornado.

Tornado winds also lashed sections of Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri. Torrential rain caused floods in some sections of the Midwest, including Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin and Nebraska.

$50 Million Program Of International Medical Study Asked

Washington — A bill to establish a $50 million annual program of cooperative international medical research has been sent to the house by a 68-17 senate vote. Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen waged a futile floor fight against it yesterday, basing his argument principally on its cost.

The bill's chief sponsor, Sen. Lister Hill (D-Ala.) said high administration officials had endorsed its purposes.

Hill, author of many pieces of health legislation, said this bill would help mobilize the world's top medical brains.

Puzzle Contest Fraud Brings Man Jail Term

Boston — John J. Shimkus of Worcester was sentenced in U. S. district court Monday to a year in jail on mail fraud charges. The prosecution said he parlayed a puzzle contest into a multi-thousand dollar racket.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Arlyne F. Hassett told the court the racket worked this way:

Shimkus mailed circulars announcing a contest with $1,000 in prizes and a $3 registration fee. The first contest was so simple everyone had the right answer. Then came another contest to break the ties.

Shimkus then started a contest agency at Putnam, Conn., and sent letters to contestants saying they could buy the correct answers from the agency.

This produced another tie and another contest. In the end, Miss Hassett said, each contestant paid about $50 in fees.

With the last tie-breaking contest went a certificate asking contestants to swear they had received no outside help. FWD credit union was in on penalty of disqualification charge of the meeting.

Gerhard Vogt New Credit Union Official

Gerhard Vogt, 301 E. Marquette street, was elected vice president of the Outagamie county chapter of credit unions at its last meeting in Clintonville. All other officers were re-elected. They are R. N. Reinke, president; Kenneth Whitke, treasurer; and Miss Clarice Stake, secretary. Reinke was nominated for District 1 director of the Wisconsin Credit Union League. The director will be elected Oct. 9 in Green Bay. FWD credit union was in on penalty of disqualification charge of the meeting.

Take it from the experts CHEVY GIVES YOU 7 BIG BESTS!

Take it, not from us, but from the published opinions of outside, independent experts and from on-the-record facts and figures: Chevrolet gives you these 7 big bests over any other car in its field!

BEST BRAKES

In direct competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by NASCAR, Chevy out-stopped both the other leading low-priced cars—and why not? Chevy brakes are far larger, built with bonded linings for up to 66% longer life.

BEST ENGINE

Every motor magazine has given Chevy's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "Indeed, this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

BEST STYLE

POPULAR SCIENCE magazine sums it up: "The facts, in its price class the Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling. . . . It's the only car of the leading low-priced three that's unmistakably '59 in every modern line."

BEST ECONOMY

No doubt about this: two Chevrolet Sixes won their class in the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, got the best mileage of any full-size car.

BEST ROOM

Official dimensions reported to A.M.A. make this clear. For example, Chevy front seat hip room is up to 5.7 inches wider than competitive cars.

BEST TRADE-IN

Check the figures in any official N.A.D.A. Guide Book. You'll find that Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

BEST RIDE

You'll be able to tell this yourself, instantly. But MOTOR TREND magazine expresses it this way: "The smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class."

PLUS THESE TREMENDOUS TRIFLES

Who'd want to do without Chevrolet's extra luxuries? Like Safety Plate Glass in every window, the protection of full wraparound bumpers, crank-operated ventpanes, the convenience of single-key locking, a real overhead curved windshield, oil-hushed hydraulic valve lifters in every standard engine for quieter running, a bigger luggage compartment with side wall lining . . . and the convenience of automatic choke in every model!

Visit your local authorized Chevrolet dealer and see how much more Chevy has to offer!

New Business Roundup

Buy Packard Street Ravine, Nine Aldermen Tell Public Works Board

Negotiations to buy the Packard street ravine were urged Wednesday by nine aldermen.

Loos, Malmstrom, Hanne-mann, Pointer, Mrs. Stillings, Stumpf, Mueller, Ogilvie and Groh want the board of public works to do the negotiating.

Their resolution was referred to the works board for a recommendation.

The resolution did not say, and it is unknown, how many owners have property in the ravine.

The ravine is bounded on the north by Packard street, on the south by the Chicago and North Western tracks. It is between Division and State streets.

Urged for Years

Chamber of commerce leaders, Appleton Downtown Retail association and Ald. Al. H. Stoeckbauer have been urging the city to buy the ravine for many years.

Most often they have cited the advantages of extra parking space.

There has been talk the ravine would serve as a new site for the monthly pig fair, and also could be used in extension of either Franklin street or Washington street through the ravine.

Other Items

Other new business: The final Sunset Acres plat, formerly known as the Fountain Development company plat, was submitted for approval. It is at the southeast corner of E. Calumet street and S. Kernan avenue and shows about 120 lots.

A. Gerard Patterson, 345 S. Karlyn street, Kimberly, asked for rezoning of the southeast corner of Meade street and Woodland avenue from multiple family to local business district. He declined to say why.

Robert Van De Hey asked permission to construct a driveway entrance on S. Memorial drive, just off the W. Lawrence street corner.

Ald. Schneider wants sewer, water, grading, graveling, curb, gutter and tack coat for Lee court from its present terminus west 80.52 feet.

He also wants the engineering department to prepare plans for curb, gutter and resurfacing S. Telulah avenue from E. Newberry street to E. John street. Figures should be given comparing asphalt and concrete costs, he said.

Proposes Alley Work

Ald. Pointer asked for signs marking a "dead-end" and "slow, trucks working" at N. McDonald street and E. Wisconsin avenue.

Ald. Captain wants turnover and sealcoat for the alley between W. Lawrence street and W. Eighth street and connecting S. Spruce street to S. Summit street.

Ald. Ertl wants sidewalk constructed on W. Frances street from N. Bennett street to N. Mason street where there is none now.

County GOP Approves New Constitution

Also Names 51 Delegates to State Convention June 6

A new constitution was approved by the Outagamie county Republican party Wednesday night.

Major feature of the new setup—which must be passed by the state organization—is a streamlined executive committee. The new committee will consist of the elective officers of the organization, chairman of the statutory committee, president of the county Federation of Republican Women, chairman of the county Young Republican organization, chairmen of all standing committees and four members at large. The committee formerly had 25 members.

Precinct Group

S. M. Gmeiner, Appleton, was chairman of a newly-formed precinct organization unit. Mrs. C. C. Schroeder, Appleton, is co-chairman.

Fifty-one delegates were named for the state GOP convention in Green Bay June 6. All are from Appleton.

They are Raymond A. Bennett, R. A. Bentz, Eldon J. Broehm, H. A. Buntrock, Mark Catlin, Jr., Lyman B. Clark, Jack H. Day, James L. Ertl, Merrill F. Filz, Harold V. Froehlich, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Granberg, George J. Greisch, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Gmeiner, Seymour Gmeiner, Jerome N. Gresenz, Henry J. Hackbarth, Gerald Hein, Donald Heinrich, Robert W. Heinrich, Thomas E. Hoover, Bernard H. Kemps, Paul D. Lundstrom, Thomas B. McKenzie, Richard Mahony, Sr., Joseph Marston, Jr., and C. C. Nelson.

W. C. Notbohm, Mr. and Mrs. T. Dick Oudenhoven, Leonard E. Pasek, Mr. and Mrs. Talbot Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Priebe, Mrs. C. C. Schroeder, Philip H. Schwarz, Mrs. Peter Sinner, Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harley B. Spitt, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stevens, Mrs. Francis Sum-nicht, Austin N. Tucker, Urban P. Van Susteren, John S. Waiworth, Malcolm C. Willis and Gus A. Zuchlik.

8 Aldermen Want Sample Reassessment

Think Survey, or Study, Will Show If Full Job Needed

Eight aldermen want appraisers hired to make a sample reassessment survey or any other studies required to determine if a complete reassessment of all property in Appleton is needed.

They are Stumpf, Malmstrom, Loos, Pointer, Mrs. Stillings, Mueller, Ogilvie and Groh.

Their resolution, presented annual city real estate and at Wednesday's council meeting as an item of new business, was referred to the board of public works for a recommendation.

Peer Costs

All 20 aldermen on Nov. 19 called for an investigation of about what charges he should possibilities of reassessing all make this season for weed property, and their request cutting and how he should was referred to the board of public works.

The works board has ruled it will await results of reassessment in Green Bay before deciding on the request. Discussion has shown a fear costs would outweigh an increase in assessments due to straightening out of alleged inequalities.

In reassessment, outside appraisers place what they regard as full market values on all property in the city. The prices they set are used to determine tax rates and cut for less money than large open fields, which are platted

Wood Commissioner Confused by New City Weed Cutting Charges

John O'Connor, city weed commissioner, is confused by the new charges for weed cutting.

O'Connor took his troubles to the finance committee Wednesday night, but was referred to Director of Public Works Duszynski.

First, said O'Connor, the $6 per 60 by 120-foot, or smaller lot, means the city will lose money on the operation.

Second, he said, the $8 an hour for unspecified larger lots will mean large tracts which are unplatted will be cut for less money than large open fields, which are platted

Traffic Toll Rate Growing In Wisconsin

BY FRED SNYDER

Madison—(A)—There's cause for concern over Wisconsin's mounting 1959 highway death toll.

The record was commendable in February, March and April this year but the same can't be said for May, the Safety division of the motor vehicle department noted Wednesday.

In the second, third and fourth months the number of deaths on Wisconsin highways was well below the figure for 1958. The spread would range from 24 to 28 fewer killings.

But since the start of May the comparison has dwindled and unless there is a change soon there is danger of setting up or exceeding the fatality toll for 1958. Traffic deaths that year totaled 64.

Margie Narrows

Now the difference between May of this year to the same month last year is down to around 14.

But a change came in May. "I'm almost afraid to think what May will show after the long Memorial day weekend," said Mrs. Constance Lovett, who keeps records on road deaths and their causes.

"For three months this year we had high hopes, but at the rate reports are coming this month we're not so sure..."

She added that speeding continues to be the primary cause of increased fatalities. "Why don't drivers slow down and why won't they correct those human faults that lead to so many tragedies?" she asked.

Council Votes to Clear Park Title

Secret 'Wheeling and Dealing' Charged by Ald. Groh, Opponent

Councilmen Wednesday by to the chamber will come an 11-to-5 vote refused to stall buying clear title to Jones park even though one alderman charged the board of public works with "wheeling and dealing" in secrecy.

Favoring referral back to the board without action were Aldermen Erl, Groh, Stoe-bauer, Stumpf and Tucker. Aldermen Bogan, Malmstrom, Priebe and Wagner were excused absentees.

The city council will repay a special committee of the chamber of commerce $10,000 the committee has paid out to four heirs of George C. Jones. Jones gave the 4.5-acre downtown ravine to the city in April, 1909, for park purposes only. He stipulated the land would be returned to him or his heirs if it was used for any other purpose.

Child By Teacher
The four heirs, three in Los Angeles and one in Florida, each received $2,500 from the committee to sign off all rights. Payment by the city

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Now available to you for first time without a doctor's prescription, our new drug called ODRINEX. You must lose ugly fat in 7 days or your money back. No more starvation diets, strenuous exercise, laxatives, massage or taking of so-called reducing candies, crackers or cookies, or chewing gum. ODRINEX is a tiny tablet and easily swallowed. Absolutely harmless. When you take ODRINEX, you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like, but you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food. Automatically your weight must come down. Because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. ODRINEX is sold on this GUARANTEE: You must lose weight within 7 days or your money back. Just return the package in your drug store and get your full money back. ODRINEX costs $1.00 and is sold with this strict money back guarantee by: Ford Drug Store—228 W. College Ave. Mail Orders Filled.

Workman Taken To Minneapolis For Operation

Arnold Hedtke, 32, route 1, New London, workman who was injured April 29 in a 4-floor fall on the new store construction project of the H. C. Prange company, was taken to Minneapolis by Lindy's ambulance Wednesday for special surgery.

Hedtke had been a patient at St. Elizabeth hospital since the fall, in which he fractured his skull and broke both legs.

$20 Taken From Teacher's Purse

About $20 was taken from the purse of a Roosevelt Junior High school teacher sometime Tuesday afternoon. Principal Neil Lunenschloss reported to police.

The teacher, Miss Marcia Burrill, said the money was in a wallet in her purse. The purse was in a drawer in a desk and the office door had been left unlocked.

Chamber President Gus A. Zuehlke denied "a cloak of secrecy" about negotiations. He pointed to the December Post-Crescent article.

He also said the project has been mentioned on and off for about seven years in chamber bulletins.

Important Now
Zuehlke called the price fair, but admitted there was no mention of price at the December meeting. He said the committee did not want to alert local real estate dealers.

"We feel," he said, "it is important to clear the title now because a death by one of the heirs might bring a long line of descendants into the picture, maybe as many as 50. We have no particular plan. Just a lot of suggestions."

(The suggestions, given by Zuehlke in a letter to the works board, include a parking ramp, the deck of which could serve for a civic center, new city hall and/or county buildings.)

Regrets No Notice
Ald. Hannemann said the land may always be a park, but it's good business to clear the title. He said he's sorry Groh was not informed.

Ald. Schneider said Jones park is losing value as a park. Its location and the fact the city is buying more park lands now mitigates continued use as a park. He said a thought should be given to what would be thought of the council 25 years from now if the title isn't cleared.

Small Business Fights Wage Law Proposal

Claim New Statute Would Force Firing Of Many Workers

Foot-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — Anxious small business operators and their trade association representatives have besieged the legislature with protests against strongly-backed legislation to hike state minimum wage laws.

One of the two bills given a hearing by a senate committee has already passed the state assembly. Both are being pushed by labor organizations.

Present minimum wage regulations of the state apply only to women and minors, and provide a floor ranging from 50 to 70 cents, depending upon population characteristics of a locality. A senate bill under consideration would impose a flat minimum of $1 an hour, corresponding to the federal law.

Another would provide for a 70 cents an hour minimum in the state, with some provisions for exceptions by the state industrial commission. Saul Cooper of the AFL-CIO told the committee that there are no union members in the state now earning less than a dollar an hour but added:

"This is a matter of the heart." Later he said that low paid unorganized workers are obstacles to wage boosts in organized workers' establishments.

But operators of gasoline stations, restaurants, supper clubs, hotels, motels and others protested that the legislation would cause unemployment by requiring them to get rid of their marginal and submarginal employees.

There are many elderly men and women and handicapped persons now earning wages to supplement their pensions and other income who would not be economically productive at higher wages, the legislators were told.

Airport Work Set On Clintonville, Waupaca Projects

Waupaca — A $150,000 Clintonville airport project and a $80,000 Waupaca airport project are scheduled in the next two years by the Wisconsin aeronautics commission, according to T. K. Jordan, director.

In a letter to the Waupaca and Clintonville city councils, Jordan states the Clintonville project to pave and light a cross runway is scheduled for the 1959-60 budget. Its cost is shared by the federal, state and local governments.

The Waupaca project is set for the 1960-61 budget and will include paving and lighting a cross runway.

Shiocton Men Pay Heavy Fines for Stealing Meters

Clintonville — Three Shiocton men, LeRoy Mentzel, 27, Donald Huse, 24, and Michael LeMere, 25, were arraigned Monday before Justice Harold Hedtke for stealing two parking meters belonging to Clintonville.

Each man pleaded guilty and was fined $100 plus $59 each for the cost of the meters and court costs of $7—a total of $166 for each man or $498 for the three.

The men said they pulled out the meters, put them in their car, then had thrown them in the Embarras river on County Trunk XX. They gave no reason for their actions.

Office Management

Club Meets Saturday

Members of the Valley Office Management association will hold their annual dinner dance Saturday at the Appleton Elks club.

men also protested that the minimum wage proposals didn't take into account the value of meals, lodging, uniforms and tips paid to many of their employees. Forcing their cash wages upward would require immediate wage raises for others to maintain traditional job differentials, they argued.

Meat Steady
Meat and egg prices have remained steady this week. Pork and chicken are still the best meat buys. Fryers are now 35 to 39 cents a pound. Eggs are 37 to 39 cents a dozen or less—the lowest prices in more than a year.

Pork prices are but, 43 cents a pound; chops, 69 to 79 cents; loin, 53 to 59 cents; spare ribs, 49 cents; short shank ham, 35 cents; shank half ham, 39 cents. Beef prices are considered high, although the meat is of good quality. T-bone is $1.25 a pound; porterhouse steak, $1.19; sirloin tip, 99 cents; cube steak, 89 cents; round steak, 95 cents; rump roast, 95 cents; calf liver, $1.18 to $1.49; standing rib roast, 89 cents; good grade chuck roast, 79 cents; pot roast, 45 to 65 cents; hamburger, 45 to 49 cents. Other meat prices are leg of lamb, 79 cents a pound; lamb chops, 59 cents a pound; veal chops, 73 cents; veal loin chops, 99 cents; lamb steak, 79 cents.

Cordial Used For Topping On Desserts

As a remembrance for a birthday or anniversary celebration, nothing will be more appreciated than a bottle of a fine cordial. The majority of these are straight from France, or from some other European country. Some of these have a flavor that can identify although they may be called by a title that has been long associated with them.

Among those with which we are most familiar are Chartreuse, Cointreau, Curacao, Anisette, Benedictine, Drambuie and Creme de Menthe. There are many others and among the most interesting is Amer Picon.

While cordials are probably most often served in a very small glass after coffee, these liqueurs are particularly popular in this country as a sauce over ice cream or fruit. They deserve to have the best serving dishes, especially those of glass.

Company Desert
Place a ball of ice cream in each sherbet glass. Drench with Amer Picon or other cordial, and serve at once with sand tarts, lady fingers, angel food or sponge cake.

Special Fruit Cup
Combine orange and grapefruit sections with white grapes. Sprinkle with cordial and place in refrigerator for several hours. Serve in sherbet glasses and sprinkle fruit with toasted shredded almonds.

Two State Colleges Will Merge July 1

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison—The union of two principal colleges of western Wisconsin, Wisconsin State college and the Institute of Technology at Platteville, will be effective on July 1.

Bjarne Ullsvisg, of the college, will become president of the merged school and President Milton Melcher, of the Institute, will direct the technical division with a title not yet chosen.

Vinegar's a Handy Helper In Kitchen

Vinegar truly is the home-maker's helper. There doesn't seem to be any limit to its versatility.

Take eggs, for example. By adding vinegar to the water you can boil cracked eggs without having the white run out of the shell. Poached eggs will hold firm if you add vinegar to the water. You also can remove almost any kind of spot from an egg if you wipe the shell with a vinegar-dampened cloth.

If soup or other food is too salty, add a spoonful of vinegar and a spoonful of sugar and reheat.

Other Ideas
The odor of boiling cabbage can be prevented from permeating the house if vinegar is added to the cooking water.

If sour milk or cream is needed for a recipe, add one tablespoon of vinegar to each cup of milk or cream.

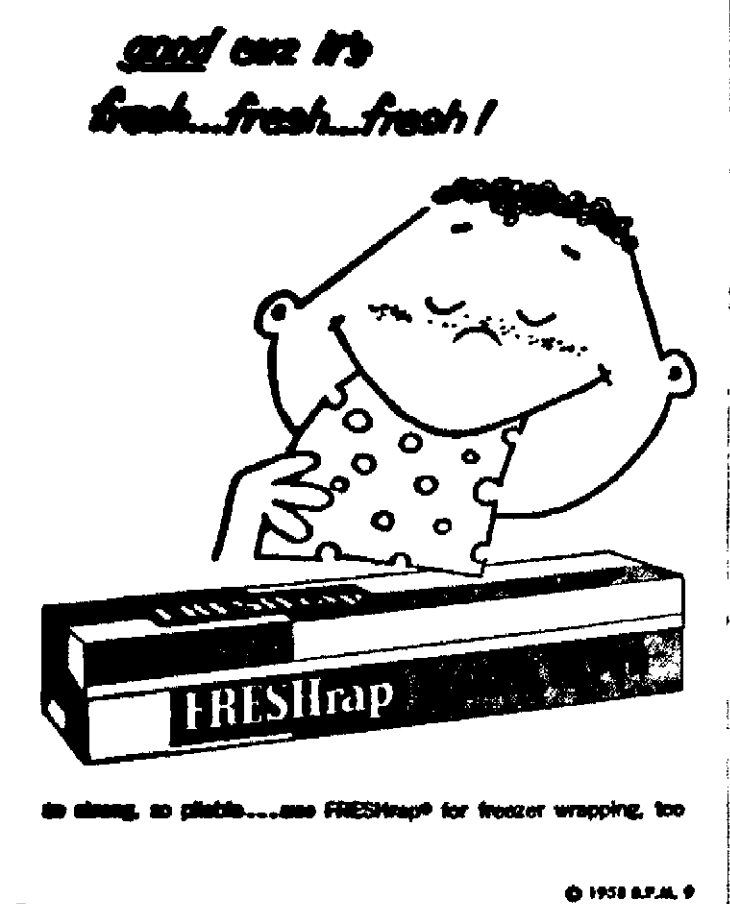

A little vinegar rubbed on your fingers will remove the odor of onions from them quickly.

FREMONT, MICHIGAN

Researcher Says Apathy Big Cause of Inadequate Diets

Chicago — Apathy is one of others, such as table fats, the major causes of inadequate diets, a New York researcher said today.

L. A. Maynard, Ph.D., Ithaca, pointed out that while sufficient food supplies are available, surveys continue to show that a substantial number of individuals fail to consume diets which meet the recommended dietary allowances.

"Such surveys," he reported in the Journal of the American Medical Association, "indicate a widespread lack of appreciation of the importance of an adequate diet and a lack of knowledge of how to select it."

In his report Dr. Maynard said a great variety of food supplies are available and that an adequate diet can be obtained by selecting foods from each of the four basic food groups. These include:

4 Basic Groups
The milk group includes cheese and ice cream. He recommends that children have three to four cups of milk daily; teenagers, four or more cups; adults, two or more, and expectant mothers, four or more cups.

The meat group includes two or more servings of beef, veal, pork, lamb, poultry, fish or eggs. Dried beans, peas, and nuts may be used as alternates.

The vegetable-fruit group from which four or more daily servings should be selected. These servings should include a dark green or deep yellow vegetable at least every other day, citrus fruit or other fruits containing vitamin C, and vegetables including potatoes.

The bread-cereals group from which four or more daily servings are suggested. This group includes whole grain enriched or restored cereal and bread.

Dr. Maynard added that a good diet can be rounded out by more of the same foods or real products, and sugar, to provide the additional calories and nutrients needed.

Lemon Butter Has Many Good Uses

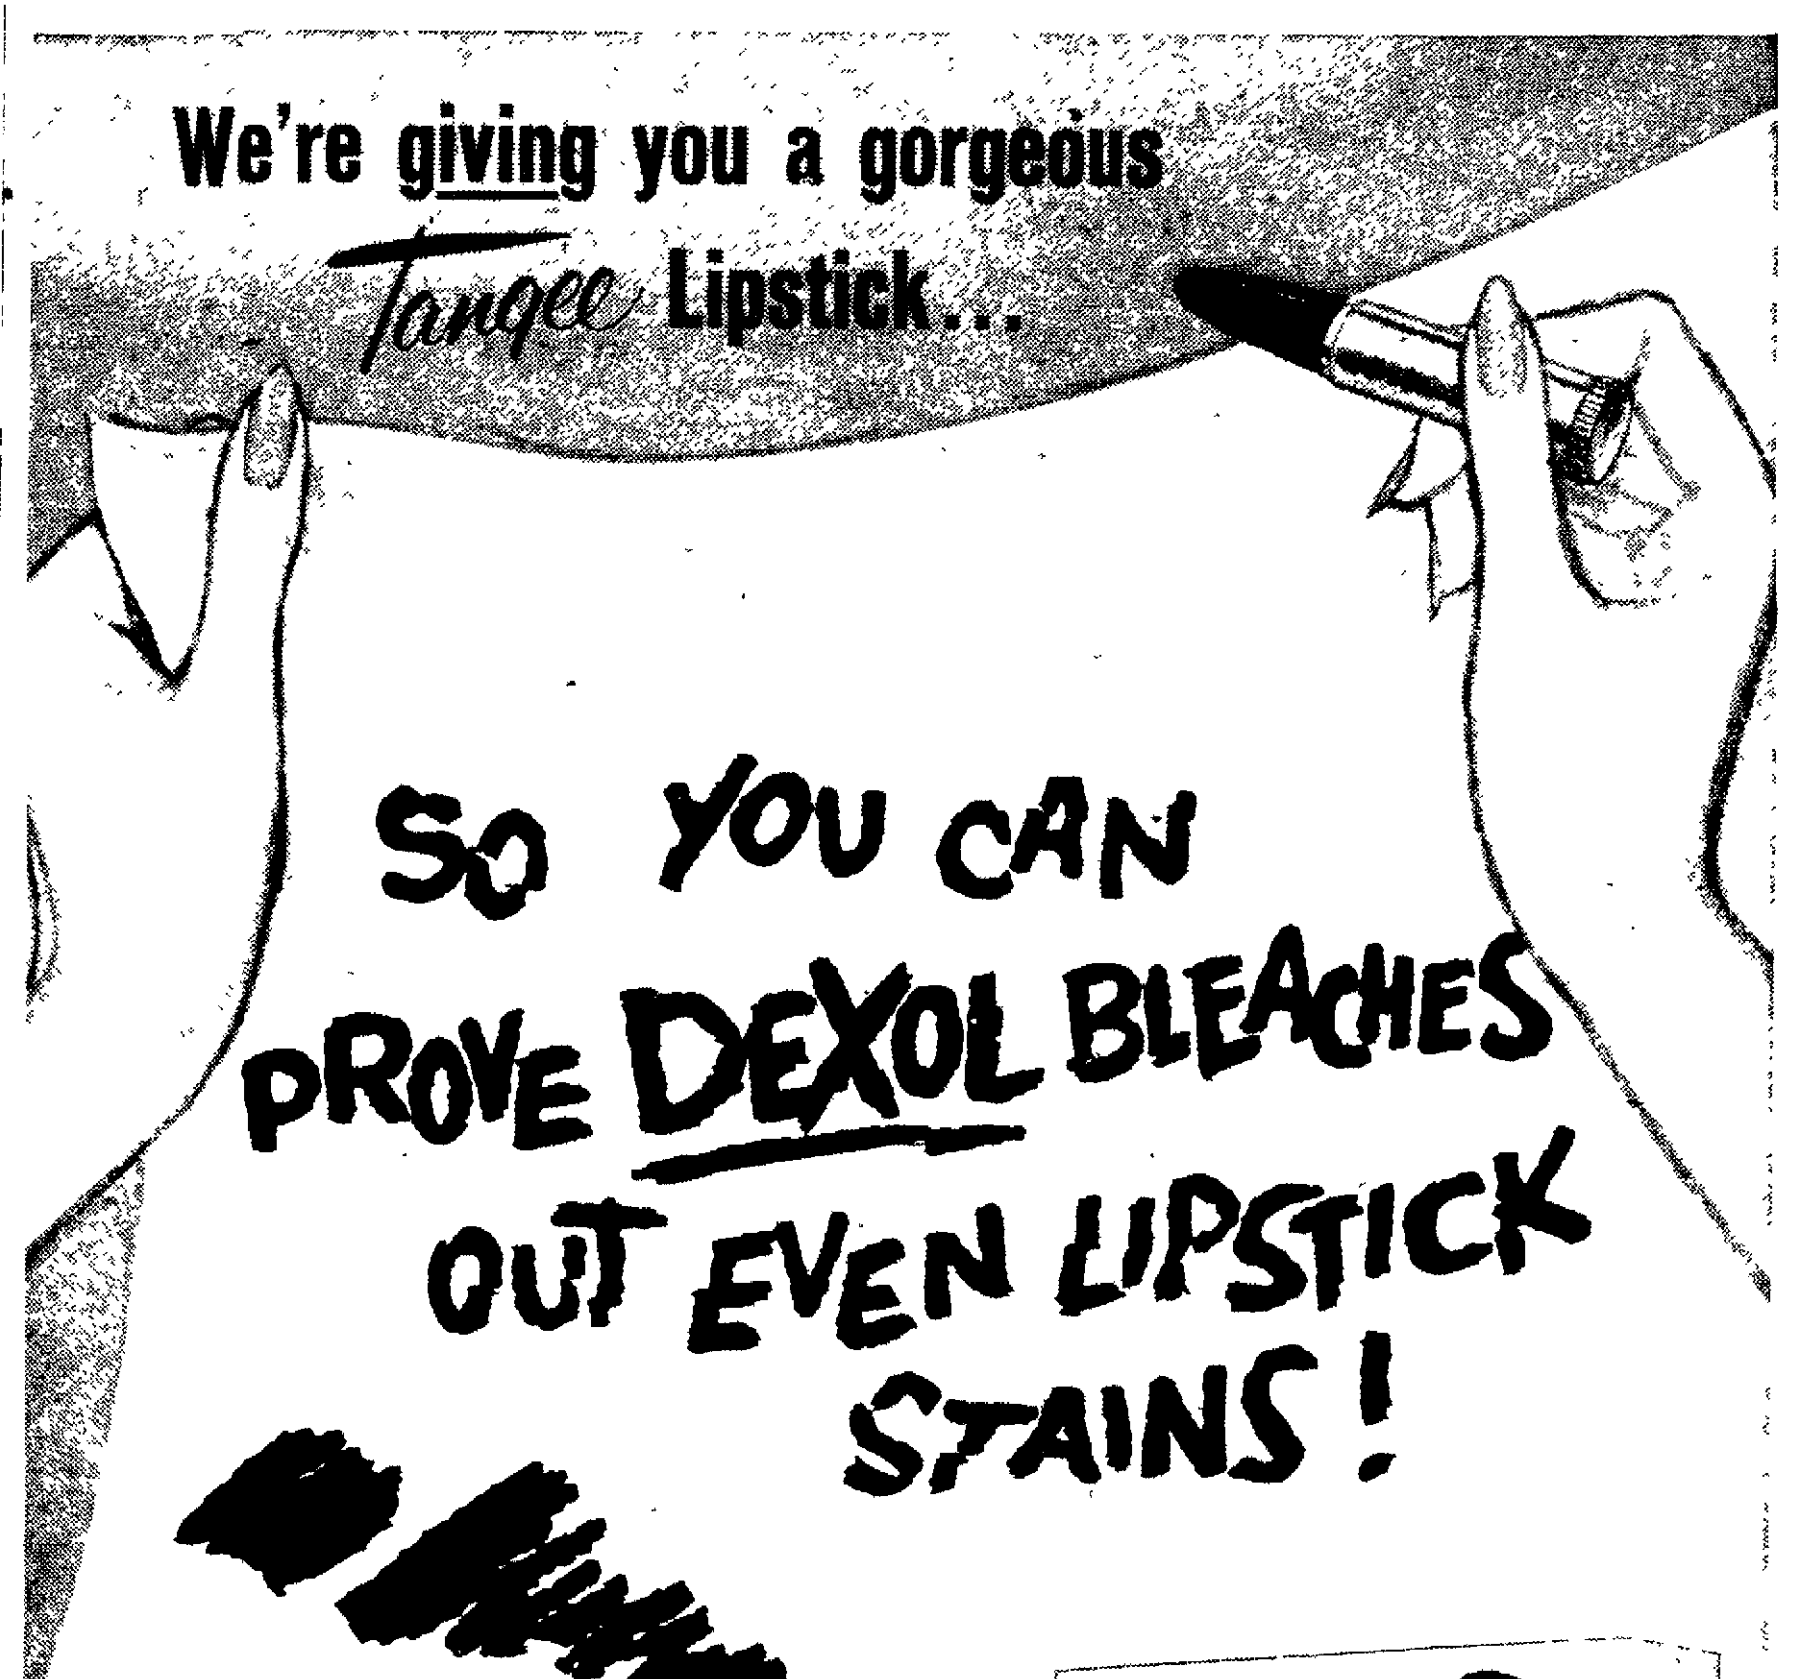

A recipe for filling Lemon Butter adds so much to so many dishes. It is particularly good with broiled or baked seafoods. It also is delicious with baked potato and casseroles that use macaroni or noodles.

Lemon Butter
1 cup butter
1 tablespoon minced parsley
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Dash of cayenne

Cream butter, add parsley, lemon juice, and cayenne and mix well. Serve with broiled steak or fish or boiled vegetables.

Apricot Pickle Puffs

Apricot Pickle Puffs make an attractive garnish for ham, pork or lamb dishes. For 12 to 16 drained halves of canned apricots, mix six tablespoons chopped sweet mixed pickles with three-fourth cup mayonnaise. Fill centers of apricots generously and just before serving time pop them under direct broiler heat until mixture puffs and browns nicely. This takes about one and a half minutes. Arrange around meat on platter, perhaps with a little watercress.

Blistered Crab Veloute

Excellent Dinner Starter

BY FRANK KOHLER

Blistered Crab Veloute is a tidy little thing from Mrs. William S. Everett, Chicago. Nice starter for a dinner.

Here are the ingredients:

Crab Veloute

- 1 cup butter.
- 1 cup flour.
- 2 cans chicken consommé (about 2 1/2 cups).
- 1 teaspoon fresh ground pepper.
- 1 teaspoon salt.
- Juice of 1/2 lemon, or to taste.
- 1 egg, well beaten.
- 1 can (12 ounce) crabmeat.
- 1 cup hollandaise sauce.

Stir butter and flour over a low heat until the mixture is a golden color, then add consommé stirring until it begins to thicken. Blend in seasonings and lemon juice. Add a little of the mixture to the beaten egg and return to the first mixture. Add the crabmeat, stir, and divide into ramekins, individual casseroles or deep shells. Spread a little holland-aise over, and store in the refrigerator.

To serve, heat in the oven and then finish under direct broiler heat until surface is blistered and browned in spots. "Watch it!" admonishes Mrs. Everett. "It burns easily!"

Hollandaise

We make our hollandaise by beating four egg yolks in a small saucepan, holding it over hot but not boiling water and gradually working in two sticks of butter, working and stirring with a fork. Season to taste with salt, a dash of white pepper, a little lemon juice and a drop of Tabasco. Stir until smooth and thickened. If it curdles, add a little cream.

Carrot Cookies are an entirely new thing to us, and extra special, too. Mrs. George Fleener, Oklahoma City, sent us these. Says she hopes we like them as well as her eight children do.

Carrot Cookies

- 1 cup sugar.
- 1/2 cup shortening.
- 1 egg.
- 1 cup cooked, mashed carrots.
- 1 teaspoon vanilla.
- 2 cups flour.

2 teaspoons baking powder. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together and add to mixture, then stir in nuts and coconut and mix well. Drop on baking sheet and bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, until nicely browned.

You may make an icing for the cookies using juice and grated rind of 1 orange, 2 tablespoons powdered sugar, 1 tablespoon melted butter and 1 cup ground nuts (Copyright, 1959)

Board, Tavern Owners Talk Over Issues

Discuss Hours, Age Regulations at Kimberly Meeting

Kimberly — Discussion on tavern hours and the 18-year-olds in beer bars highlight a special meeting of the village board and tavern owners at the village hall.

The session was the annual meeting prior to the granting of licenses. All licenses were again approved by the board. General feeling regarding the pending legislation on a 2 a.m. closing time was one of "wait and see."

Surrounding area

Owners expressed the opinions they want to see first if the law passes the legislature and then what the communities in the surrounding area will do.

Concerning the 18-year-old beer bars, the owners' consensus was that the present setup should not be changed. Some communities are considering the prohibition of those between 18 and 21 from entering beer bars.

Tavern operators, in fact, said they felt the 18 to 21 year old group should even be permitted to enter taverns which serve wines and liquor as well as beer.

Approval was given by the board for a Class B fermented malt beverage license to the William Verhagen post No. 60 of the American Legion for its annual picnic June 19, 20 and 21.

C. W. Wood was reappointed as a representative to the regional planning commission. The term will run three years.

Stamp Vending Machine in Use At Post Office

Kaukauna — A stamp vending machine was put into operation Wednesday at the Kaukauna Post Office permitting patrons to get stamps when lobby windows are closed or in use.

The machine takes nickels, dimes and quarters and provides both 3 and 4-cent stamps. Persons receive the proper change after depositing money and receiving stamps, according to Robert rogan, postmaster.

The machine will provide customers with stamps from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., hours the Royalty for the Freedom Veterans of Foreign Wars and Volunteer Firemen annual picnic May 29, 30 and 31 includes, left to right, Joanne Trembl, Joan Rickert, Lois Vandenberg, queen; Kathy Fehrman and Joanne Daul. Highlight of the weekend will be the parade at 11:15 a.m. May 31.

Lois Vandenberg Queen for Freedom VFW, Firemen Picnic

Freedom — Lois Vandenberg has been selected queen to reign over the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Volunteer Firemen's annual picnic May 29, 30 and 31.

Members of the queen's court will be Joan Rickert, Joanne Daul, Kathy Fehrman and Joanne Trembl.

A Memorial day parade will open festivities on the evening of May 29. Units from the Little Chute American Legion post have been invited to participate. The parade will march through the business district and end at St. Nicholas cemetery for services.

Following the parade the picnic will open at the Freedom High school grounds.

There will be a special matinee for children Saturday afternoon when reduced prices will be in effect for all rides.

Highlights of the celebration will be the gala parade at 11:15 a.m. May 31. Businessmen will sponsor floats and the queen and her court will appear.

Weldon Huss is parade marshal and co-chairmen are Merle Schommer and Ed Vandenberg. A dinner will be served at noon at the high school.

2 KHS Pupils Given Awards

Kimberly — Awards have been presented to two Kimberly High school students, according to Ray Hamann, principal.

William Van Hout, Jr., has received a certificate from the Mathematics Association of America for a top rating in a special state exam.

Barry Seidel received a cash award for a second place slogan in a contest sponsored by the Outagamie County Safety council.

Consolidation Trend in U. S. Dairy Industry

UW Expert Reports Lower Number Of Dairy Farms Have Higher Output

Athens, Ga. — The trend is toward consolidation through-out the dairy industry, a Uni-versity of Wisconsin dairy in-vestigator reported here. L. C. Thomsen, addressing over 2,340,000 dairy farms the Southeastern Dairy Plant today there are less than 1, Management conference, said 250,000. that automation in dairying is a natural development, be-cause of increasing size of units.

To describe change in size of units he pointed to the drop in number of dairy farms in the United States. Fifteen years ago there were just 2,340,000 dairy farms the Southeastern Dairy Plant today there are less than 1, Management conference, said 250,000. that automation in dairying is a natural development, be-cause of increasing size of units.

Newcomers to Give Lectures

Drs. Edwin H. Olson, Thomas E. Wenzlau To Speak at Lawrence

A pair of lectures in psy-chology and economics, pre-senting newcomers to the Kenyon college faculty, will be given by Dr. Edwin H. Olson, as-sistant professor of psychology and director of counseling, and Dr. Thomas E. Wenzlau, as-sistant professor of economics and director of the behavioral sciences.

Dr. Wenzlau was an under-graduate at Ohio Wesleyan and did the balance of his work at the University of Illi-nois, where he was a fellow-ship student. He has taught at Wesleyan university and the Kenyon college. He is a Phi Kappa Psi member and the author of several professional articles. Dr. Wenzlau came to the Law-rence campus last September. The lectures are open to all students, alumni and visitors on the campus.

San Francisco Cuts Braves' Lead With 6 to 3 Victory

Streak Ends At 6; Jones Halts Rally

San Francisco — (AP) — Sam Jones, laboring in relief, snuffed out a ninth inning Milwaukee rally Wednesday as the San Francisco Giants snapped the Braves' winning streak at six games, by taking a 6-3 victory.

But there was a renewal of action from the Braves' Hank Aaron, whose hitting string was broken at 22 games Tuesday night. He crashed his twelfth homer of the season, a 400-foot, solo blast into the seats in right center field.

The loss trimmed Milwaukee's National league lead to 31 games.

Goes The Distance
Bob Buhl went the distance for Milwaukee and was tagged with his second loss against as many victories. Mike McCormick opened for the Giants, and with Jones' help in the last inning, bagged his second victory against two defeats.

McCormick held the Braves on five hits until the ninth when Andy Pafko opened with a single and Johnny Logan got his second hit by beating out a bunt. In came Jones.

Stan Lopata batted for Buhl and was called out on strikes without lifting the bat from his shoulder. Pinch-hitter Mickey Vernon and Eddie Mathews hit into force plays to end the game and Milwaukee's first West coast tour of the season.

The game was scoreless until the fourth when the Giants pushed over two runs. They came on a home run by Felipe Alou who was starting his first game in 10 days. Alou's seventh homer was the fourth hit off Buhl who gave up only two more the rest of the way. Alou finished with half of the San Francisco total.

Milwaukee Outfielder Hank Aaron belts his twelfth home run of the season during the sixth inning of Wednesday's game with the Giants. Aaron went into the game with an amazing .462 average. The catcher is Bob Schmidt. San Francisco won, 6-3.

Foxes Open Series Against 2nd-Place Demons Tonight

Griffith Will Pitch; Finale of Sioux City Set Postponed

The Fox Cities Foxes, who have been getting a hard time from the weatherman in their first two home stands of the season, are scheduled to open a 3-game series against second-place Des Moines tonight at Goodland field.

The finale of the Sioux City series was postponed Wednesday because of wet grounds (the new section of the outfield was a quagmire) and threatening weather. It was the second postponement of the first nine home dates. And, in three of the seven games that have been played here, rain has either fallen during the game or threatened beforehand to hold the crowd down.

Makeup Set June 28
Wednesday's wash-out will be played as part of a day-night doubleheader with the Soos Sunday, June 28. Southpaw Dick Griffith, scheduled to work last night, will be held over by Manager Jack McKeon as tonight's pitching nominee. Griffith has a 2-2 record, both wins being shutouts. In his most recent start—at Des Moines—the Demons got to "Griff" in the bottom of the eighth for three runs and a comeback, 7-5 victory.

In the other games of their first collision with the Demons, the Foxes lost, 7-2, and won, 5-3, on "Zorro" Versalles' ninth-inning homer. Jake Wood, one of the Foxes' new outfielders, joined the roster Wednesday and may see action tonight.

Other games in the first

Des Moines invasion of the Fox Cities will be played Friday night (8:30) and Saturday night (8:00).

Sunday afternoon, Cedar Rapids comes in for the first booster game of the season. The Northside Advancement association is sponsoring the affair. Complimentary tickets are available at north side business establishments.

The clashes between the Foxes and Des Moines will feature some of the leading early-season hitters in the 3-1 league.

Fox Cities' leading stickers are Versalles, and "Potato" Pascual with potent current averages of .369 and .386 respectively. The Demons are led by John Kennedy and Bill McGuckin, who had marks of .400 and .375 in the latest-issued league averages, and first baseman Cal Emery, the loop's home run pace-setter.

MacPhail Expects Yanks to Talk Trade in Earnest

Baltimore — (AP) — Lee MacPhail, last year a top hand in the Yankee front office and now general manager of the Baltimore Orioles, expects the New Yorkers to start talking trade in earnest.

"Unless they go on a long winning streak right away, I expect them to make a major trade before the June 15 deadline," MacPhail said. The Yankees, now in last place, open a 4-game weekend series here Friday and the prospect of a Baltimore-New York trade was on nearly everybody's mind at Memorial stadium.

It's Hard to Believe but true that the 1958 world champion New York Yankees have dropped into the American league cellar. Shown heading for the showers Wednesday after the game (13-6 loss to Detroit)

New Yorkers Haven't Been So Low at This Stage Since '40 Yankees Tumble Into AL Basement

Tigers Claw Stengel Crew, 13-6; Indians Win to Retain Lead

By The Associated Press
The world champion New York Yankees are in last place in the American league.

Sports critics thumbed through baseball record books to discover when last the haughty New Yorkers were in such humble circumstances at this stage of a pennant race.

The last time the Yankees were in the cellar at an equivalent point in the race was May 25, 1940. The last of the two times the club finished in the cellar was in 1912, and the last time it spent the season in the second division was in 1925.

Detroit shoved the Yankees into the basement Wednesday with a 13-6 beating.

Indians Hold Lead
While the nation's baseball fans eyed the bottom of the AL standings, Cleveland clung to the top with a 5-3 victory at Washington Wednesday night. The Chicago White Sox remained within half-a-game of the Indians by beating Baltimore, 5-2. Kansas City whipped Boston, 8-2.

Fans give varied opinions as to the causes of the strange Yankee situation. The ideas range from the opinion that the club has had it, to the hopeful—among its followers—suggestion that it is just a temporary slump that got out of hand.

The 1940 Yankees were only a .500 team (51-51) by Aug. 9 and while they were to make a brief stand in first place, they finished third—missing a fifth consecutive pennant by three games.

Detroit was the champion, by one game over Cleveland and three games over New York.

Of the 16 players Manager Casey Stengel used Wednesday, only Enos Slaughter was in organized ball in 1940. He was the 24-year-old country boy playing outfield for the St. Louis Cardinals.

The calmest — outwardly — man in all the confusion is Manager Casey Stengel, who maintained his aplomb even after the Detroit Tigers dumped the world champions into the cellar Wednesday by whumping them, 13-6.

No Novelty
Perhaps it is because such a position is no novelty to the grizzled skipper. Before he hit the jackpot with the Yankees he hung his hat regularly in the second division. And in 1940, the year the Yankees were in much the same situation as they are today, he also had a club — the Boston Red Sox.

Area Stars Bid for State Berths in Bay Sectional

Jansen, Loker, Quade Head Fox Cities Delegation for Friday's Track Test

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Some of the prime prep track talent in the state will vie for berths in the 1959 Wisconsin High school Class A and B meets in Friday's Green Bay sectional.

The trials begin at 4:30 and the finals at 7:30 at East High school. Menasha, Neenah, Appleton, Kaukauna, Green Bay East, Green Bay West, Marinette and Two Rivers will take part in the Class A meet. Kimberly, Seymour, Bonduel will be Fox Cities-area schools in the 12-team Class B field.

Appleton's Don Loker and Kimberly's Darrell Jansen are 1958 state champs who will be on hand. Loker who captured the Class A mile in 1958 with a 4:35.8, clicked off a brilliant 4:29 in last weekend's Fox River Valley conference meet.

Won Both
Jansen won both the Class B high and low hurdles last year and tied for fifth in the high jump. He set Mid-Eastern conference and personal marks in both hurdles in last weekend's M-E event with clockings of 14.3 and 20.5.

Neenah's Jim Quade qualified for the state Class A mile in last year's Fond du Lac sectional and then placed third to Loker in the finals. He's the owner of the fastest 880-yard time in the state thus far, a 2:01.5, in his only effort at that distance. He'll run the half mile at Green Bay.

Other top Neenah threats for sectional berths include:

Tournament Contests Are Re-Scheduled

The Preble-East De Pere High baseball game in the Shiocton District tournament and the Reedsville-Brillion contest in the Brillion meet were postponed Wednesday because of wet grounds.

Preble and East DePere were to play at 5:30 today. Reedsville and Brillion were re-scheduled for a 1:30 contest today.

In another scheduling change, the Hortonville-Menasha game for the Weyauwega District championship was moved up to 4 p.m. today, from Friday afternoon. The game is set for Hortonville.

GOP Leaders Opposed

Foresee Death for Gov. Nelson's Bill To Reorganize Conservation Body

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Madison—Death for one of Gov. Nelson's major political objectives was heralded Wednesday. Leading Republicans announced their strong opposition to his bill to abolish the state Conservation commission and to replace it with six commissioners of his own choosing.

Two developments showed the doubtful position of the measure already pushed through the Democratically-controlled assembly in a party-line vote.

Unanimous Opposition
Sen. Frank Panzer of Dodge county, president of the state senate, influential Republican and long-time legislative champion of conservation causes, denounced the Nelson bill as "political maneuvering for power politics."

Republican members of the legislative joint finance committee unanimously opposed the measure as the Democratic majority of that committee forced a vote to return the reorganization bill to the assembly for a final approving vote.

The Republican dissenters included three Republican state senators, Draheim of Neenah, Dempsey of Hartland and Huitbreitgse of Sheboygan, suggesting that the Republicans will reject the measure in the upper house by a party-line vote.

Although the governor has with his own choices when his said less recently about his reorganization bill is finally Conservation commission bill dead.

Going Gets Hot 'Sugar'-Basilio Hearing Recessed Until Friday

BY JACK HAND
New York — Round and round the Ray Robinson-Carmen Basilio debate goes. Where it will stop nobody knows. The New York State Athletic commission, which appears about ready to strip Robinson of his title, has recessed its hearing until Friday afternoon. Basilio sweated it out Wednesday while lawyers objected and took exceptions to a stream of questions. At one stage, he was almost ready to take a punch at one of Robinson's lawyers, who had been accusing his attorney, State Sen. Lawrence Rulison, of "coaching the witness."

When the going got hot, Martin Machat, Robinson's lawyer, had this to say to Chairman Melvin Krulwich of the commission: "If you are going to vacate the title, we are going to the appellate division and stop you."

Krulwich bristled and replied: "This commission does not threaten easily. You already have gone to court twice."

The issue resolved on Robinson's compliance or failure to comply with an April 30 order by the state supreme court and the commission to "enter into articles of agreement to defend against Basilio in 15 days (May 15) or risk vacating the title."

Robinson claims he has entered into an agreement to fight Basilio in Philadelphia Sept. 31 for promoter Sam Rose. Part of the contract was filed with the commission Monday. The rest was to have been produced Wednesday. It didn't show.

The commission ruled it was evident the Pennsylvania contract was invalid because it was not between two licensees.

Elroy Face Cuts Pitching Hand
St. Louis — Pittsburgh's ace relief pitcher, Elroy Face, cut two fingers on his pitching hand in an accident Wednesday. Face dropped a glass of water in his hotel room. He started to pick up the broken glass and cut himself on the top of the last two fingers on his right hand.

The Pirates said Face should be able to pitch in four days or so.

Rose Bowl Pact Appears Doomed Tabling Motion Seen Possible But Not Likely at Big 10 Parley

BY JERRY LISKA
Ann Arbor, Mich. — The Rose bowl football pact seems doomed to perish in a Big Ten meeting Friday, although a stay of execution is possible. Conference athletic leaders assembled for a regular business session starting today, apparently are destined to cast a standoff 5-5 vote on renewal of the Rose Bowl agreement with the remains of the dying Pacific Coast conference.

Any deadlocked vote kills a major Big Ten issue. Hoping for Delay

The PCC dissolves July 1 but a big four—composed of California, Washington, Southern California and UCLA — wants to continue Rose bowl play with the Big Ten.

Big Ten supporters of the Rose Bowl agreement are hoping to achieve a delay on a possible tabling motion. This would carry the issue to the conference's December meeting. By that time, sentiment conceivably could be mustered to swing a majority vote in favor of continuing the Rose bowl series which, under the present contract, will end with the 1960 New Year's day game.

Actually, even the most enthusiastic proponents of Rose bowl play agree there is little chance for continuation of the Pasadena, Calif., classic in which the Western conference has participated since 1947.

The showdown vote is a climax to action taken at a league meeting at Madison last March in which a straw vote disclosed a 5-4 approval of Rose bowl renewal; Northwestern abstained.

Since then, under the conference cooling-off period required for major legislation, Northwestern sided with Minnesota, Wisconsin, Ohio State and Illinois against the bowl pact. Faculty approval of the agreement was given by Michigan, Michigan State, Indiana, Iowa and Purdue.

Speedway Is Suffering From Driver Shortage

Only 30 Men Available for 44 Automobiles
Indianapolis — The Indianapolis Motor Speedway is suffering from an auto shortage of experienced drivers, with 44 cars still to make qualification runs for the 500-mile race May 30.

Only about 30 men with the ability and experience to drive at more than 140 miles an hour were available for those 44 cars. They will get their chance to qualify Saturday and Sunday.

Fourteen cars qualified last weekend, leaving 19 places open in the 33-car starting lineup. After 19 more cars have qualified, the slower ones may be bumped from the lineup by faster qualifiers.

Car Hopping
The driver shortage may lead to considerable car hopping in the final qualifications. A car may qualify only once, but a driver whose car is eliminated may try again in another.

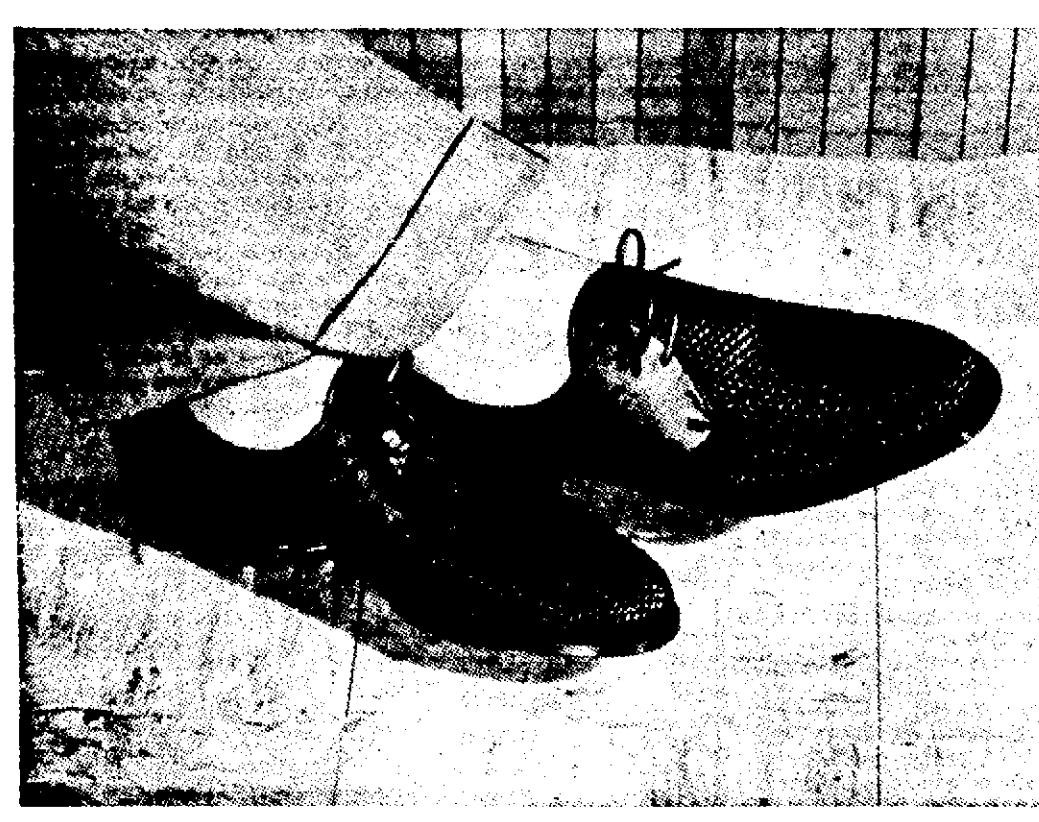

Three of the 61 cars originally entered have been wrecked beyond repair. Drivers and mechanics predicted that 141 miles an hour would make the field. Accidents in practice runs this year have killed two drivers. Track officials defended the testing procedure. Steward Paul Johnson said 139 drivers have passed the test since he came here as an observer in 1939, and only two have had a serious accident in their rookie year.

Possible Curtailment Of Televised Baseball Games Being Discussed

3rd Major League Is Another Topic On the Agenda

Columbus, Ohio (AP)—Major league baseball executives probably will do some serious talking today about an idea that's been kicked around for some time: creation of a third major league.

But as "Chuck" Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox explained:

One Night a Week
"I think mainly it will be just to stop all the loose talk and individual statements about such a league."

Another topic up for discussion by the convening major league brass is whether to curtail televised games.

One American league club owner, who asked that his name not be used, said:

"One thing I believe we will discuss Thursday will be the

The entire suit weighs just 24 ounces. "Peso Pluma" has been a rapid-fire sell-out from its very first season. Now the new "Pesos" are in—and they're better than ever with new colors, new patterns, new stylings and many added tailoring features. "Peso Pluma" gives you all the advantages of a 55% Dacron*—45% worsted blend. It has half the bulk but twice the "breathing ability" of ordinary tropicals. And the way it resists wrinkles is simply uncanny. Choose your "Peso Pluma" now. It's headed for another sell-out, so don't say we didn't warn you.

ton Braves—in last place as late as Aug. 26, although he managed to rally it to finish seventh.

Quietly, and without bitterness, the man who has won nine pennants and seven world championships in his 10 seasons with the team discussed its problems.

The nearest he came to a threat was the comment: "I expect those pitchers of ours realize that they will have to do better than that (what they did Wednesday) or they can't stay around."

He had previously pointed to lack of timely hitting as the basis for the troubles. He reckoned the hitting Wednesday wasn't too bad.

That he has confidence the team is better than its record might indicate was hinted by his statement that "I think three or four clubs will pay for those runs before the season is over."

The Yankees now have won 12 and lost 19 games for a percentage of .387. They are 84 games behind Cleveland.

Right-hander Frank Lary gave up a 2-run homer to Yogi Berra in the first inning, then blanked the Yankees on four hits until the ninth, when Mickey Mantle's homer and Berra's second scored four runs.

Yost Homers Twice
Eddie Yost had three of Detroit's 10 hits and drove in six runs with two homers, one a grand slam. That was after Charlie Maxwell singled home two runs for a tie in the fifth against loser Bobby Shantz (0-2) and Gail Harris then broke the deadlock with a homer that opened a 3-run sixth.

Rocky Colavito and Vic Power each drove in a pair of runs for the Indians. Herb Score (4-2) beat the Senators on six hits.

Dick Donovan (2-2) gained his first complete game for the White Sox with a 4-hitter. The Sox, who twice came from behind, won it in the fifth on singles by Louis Aparicio and Nellie Fox and Sherm Lollar's sacrifice fly that made it 3-2.

A 2-run single by Frank House gave the A's a 3-1 lead in the fourth. Roger Maris drove in three runs, two with his tenth homer.

Buhl, Crandall Gripe Over Conlan Calls

Haney's Decision To Use Lopata Brings Criticism

San Francisco —(U)— Wed- nesday's defeat by the San Francisco Giants broke a Mil- waukee Braves victory string at six games left the Nation- al league leaders unhappy. Subject of the most grow- ing were a couple of calls by Plate Umpire Jocko Conlan in the eighth when the Giants pushed across a pair of un- earned runs that padded the margin of their 6-3 victory. "I had Orlando Cepeda struck out twice and instead he gets a walk," said losing pitcher Bob Buhl. "I would have had two out then and I would have an easy play on the next hitter to retire the side scoreless."

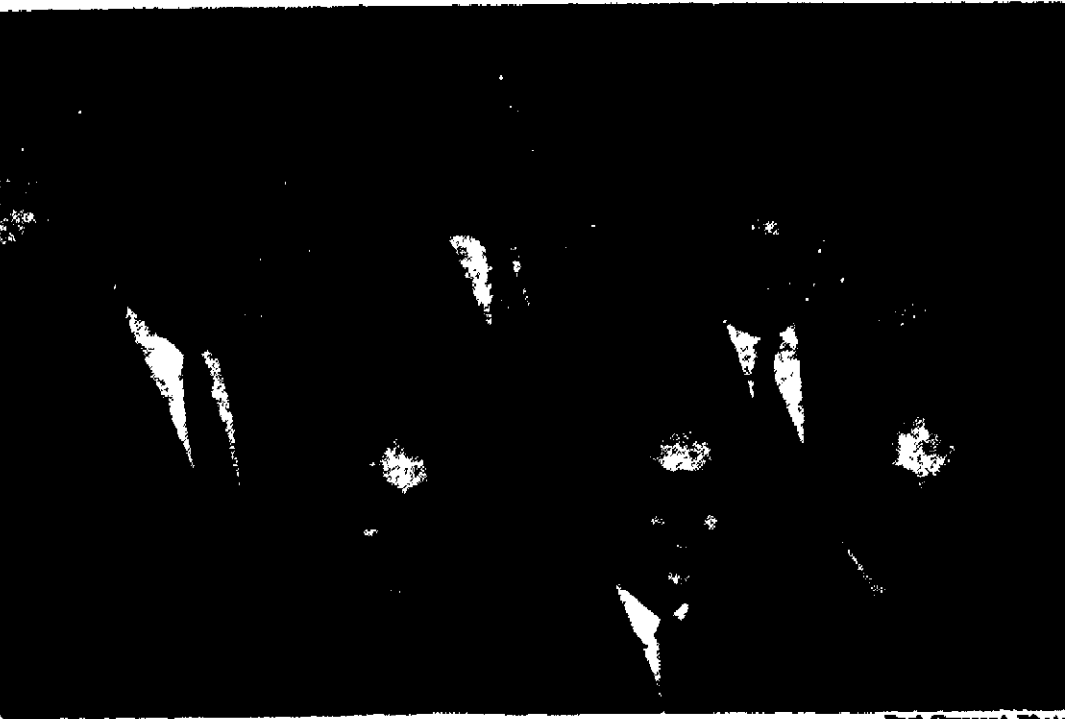

Cepeda on base - The calls, which Buhl and catcher Del Crandall protest- ed, put Cepeda on base with the second walk of the inning and obviously upset Buhl. The next batter, Felipe Alou, tapped a roller toward the mound where Buhl grabbed it and threw past second into centerfield, a run scoring on the play. A sacrifice sent the second run home.

"Those two unearned runs," said Manager Fred Haney, "changed our style of play in the ninth" when the Braves got two on and none out. "Had we been just one run behind we would have sacrificed when our first two batters got on base. Instead, we had to hit away and couldn't do it."

Speculation Haney's decision to use Stan Lopata as a pinch-hitter in the ninth with two on and none out brought a chorus of speculation on what might have been.

Lopata, in addition to bat- tling from the right, hasn't had a hit all season and struck out in half of his 10 appearances at the plate. This time he didn't offer at a pitch as he was called out along the track a mile back on strikes, providing the first. The second and third tionless was 13-year-old Frank came in quick order as Ver- Manke, playing a "dead red- non and Eddie Mathews hit skin" in a game of cowboys in forced plays.

Fight Promoter Says He Was Threatened in Jordan Case

Los Angeles —(U)— A box- call from a man who identi- fied himself as Frankie Car- bo. "He was raving so much I hung up," Leonard added. Carbo is being sought by a New York grand jury investi- gating alleged mobster influ- ence in prizefighting. Leonard, promoter at Hol- lywood Legion stadium, testi- fied he was a reluctant go-be- tween for Frank "Blinky" Palermo, who demanded a 15 per cent cut of Jordan's earn- ings. We'll make an example of you."

Jackie Leonard told the California Athletic commis- sion Wednesday that the warning came in a telephone call.

Lincoln Wins 10th Straight

Green Bay and Des Moines Split Doubleheader

By the Associated Press Lincoln took another step forward Wednesday night and expanded its Three-I league lead to two full games with its tenth straight victory. The Chiefs beat Burlington, 10-2. Second - place Des Moines had a chance to gain on the high-flying Chiefs, but after winning its first game at Green Bay, 4-1, lost to the Bluejays, 8-7, in 12 innings.

Postponed because of wet grounds were Topeka at Cedar Rapids and Sioux City at Fox Cities.

Strikes Out 11 Lincoln's Dick Kimball struck out 11 and got his best batting support from "Dean" Jones, who whacked three safeties. Sammy Drake had three for Burlington, which has lost 10 of its last 12 games.

Jim Lynn homered for Lin- coln. Cal Emery's seventh homer led Des Moines to its first- game victory, John Anderson, the Demon ace pitching in re- lief in the 12th inning of the nightcap, walked in the win- ning run. He came on with two on and none out.

Des Moines left 18 runners on base in the second game, with Green Bay stranding 15. A total of 32 walks were is- sued in the 4-hour second game which ended at 12:50. Nineteen of them were charged to Des Moines throw- ers.

inning. Two more San Fran- cisco runs crossed in the eighth when Jackie Brandt and Orlando Cepeda walked. Buhl's throwing error allowed Brandt to score and Cepeda followed him home on Spen- cer's sacrifice.

Wes Covington's single, Paf- ko's walk and Logan's single produced Milwaukee's first run in the fifth. After Aaron homered in the sixth, Joe Ad- cock reached second when Leon Wagner dropped the first basemen's fly ball. After Del Crandall walked, Pafko's single scored Adcock.

Crandall got a single his first time up to run his streak match before Inge boxes any- one else.

Wednesday night in the nationally-televised 10-rounder at the Cow palace, Machen found tough going in the early and late rounds against Vargas. But Eddie's jab kept his onrushing foe off balance sufficiently to bring him an unanimous but close and un- popular verdict.

Dale Hackbart Tops Big Ten In Base Steals

Gophers' Causton Now Leads in Batting With .444

Big Ten Conference W L

Chicago —(U)— With only one more weekend of action remaining in the Big Ten base- ball race, Wisconsin's Dale Hackbart leads the league in runs scored, stolen bases and is tied for the top place in triple production.

Hackbart, well-known as a quarterback on the football team, has scored 15 runs and stolen 10 bases. He and Mich- igan's Wilbert Franklin are tied with three triples each.

Ron Causton, Minnesota out- fielder, has moved from third to first in the league batting race with a .444 average. The Gophers, who need only to 10 games. Hitting .336, Crandall shows 20 hits in his last 38 trips. Mathews failed to hit and his string was broken at eight games.

The Braves were idle today as they travelled to Philadel- phia where they will open a 5- game series Friday.

Snorkel Gaining Fame for Work in Fighting Fires

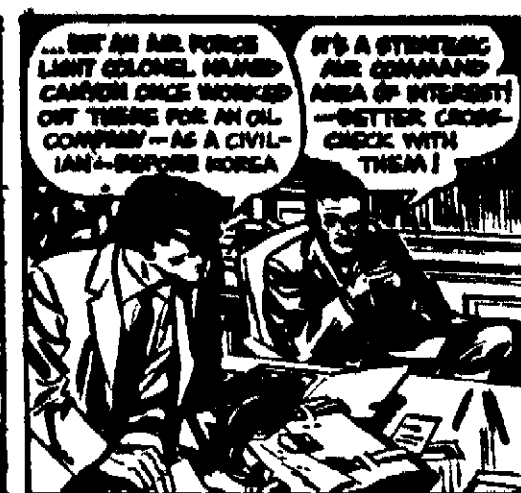

Chicago — The Chicago fire department is using a weird, wonderful contrivance that has stirred up interest across the country.

It is called a snorkel. It looks like a giant crane. But the boom, instead of being straight and stiff as a ramrod, bends in the middle like a human arm.

At the hand end of the arm is a big basket. A fireman can stand in the basket and direct a stream of water from a hose with rifle-shot accuracy. The arm just lifts the water marksman to a window or a vantage point above the roof of a burning building and he plays the water on the spot where it will do the most good.

It can be used in rescue operations, too. Perhaps you saw photographs of the long arm picking the injured off the elevated trestle, 35 feet high, after the collision of two trains. Two snorkels were used to carry 60 of the more than 100 injured from the two trains. It was their first rescue work use on a substantial scale.

Famed Talking Myna Missing From Zoq

Detroit — Blackie, the Belle Isle zoo's famed talking blackbird is missing.

Blackie is an Australian myna bird with yellow markings on his head. Zoo keepers have alerted citizens to his style of conversation which goes something like this:

"Hi junior, how are you? I am fine. Al, watcha doin? Goodbye."

For four years, Blackie has been official greeter at the children's zoo on the Detroit river island.

Words Often Misused: Do not say, "This is all the farther I am able to go." Say "This is as far as I am able to go."

Often Mispronounced: Clairvoyance. Pronounce clair, not ans, accent on second syllable.

Often Misspelled: Authoritative, not "authoritive."

Synonyms: Weaken, depress, enervate, enfeeble, impair, lower, reduce, relax, sap, undermine.

Word Study: "Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day.

Today's word: conjecture (noun) a surmise, a guess. "This is merely a matter of conjecture."

Revenues Up, Soo Line Says

Bigger Costs Cloud Profits, President Tells Annual Meeting

Minneapolis — Gross revenues of the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie railroad (the Soo Line) are expected to increase $2.5 million to $3 million this year from the $42,871,000 reported for 1958. G. A. MacNamara, president, said at the annual meeting.

Increased maintenance and equipment expenditures this year, coupled with rising labor costs, however, make it "difficult to anticipate at this time that any of the increase in gross revenue will be carried into net income," MacNamara said.

Net income in 1958 was $1,888,039 or $2.62 a share. "We deferred a lot of maintenance last year," he explained, adding that "you can't defer maintenance forever."

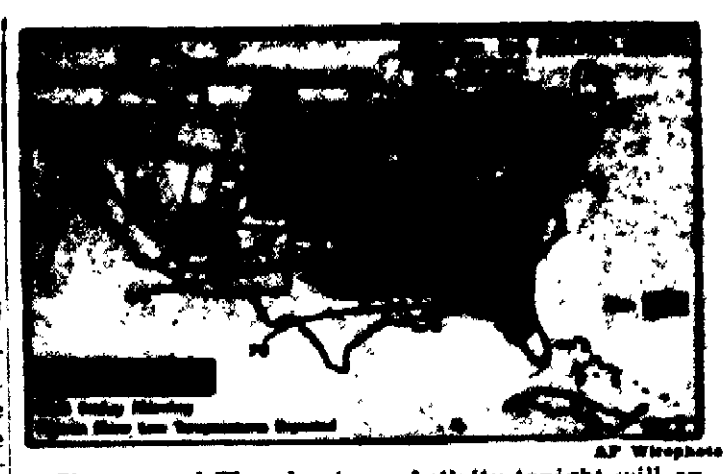

Movement of grain so far in 1959 has been disappointing, but a heavy movement of government-owned grain is expected to get under way later this month, he said.

Movement of iron ore from mines served by the road on Minnesota's Cuyuna Range is expected to exceed 1958 figures by 40 per cent or more. MacNamara estimated, although he added that a steel strike could materially reduce this total.

The Soo this month discontinued four passenger trains between Minneapolis and Enlerlin, N.D., and Duluth and Thief River Falls, Minn., with savings expected to exceed $200,000 a year.

Directors Tuesday announced plans to ask the interstate commerce commission for permission to discontinue two trains between Minneapolis and Sault Ste. Marie which would save the road about $200,000 more annually.

MacNamara said it is too early to report any results from the study of the proposed merger of the Soo Line, the Wisconsin Central, and the Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic railroads. All three are based in Minneapolis and are affiliated with the Canadian Pacific.

Shower and Thunderstorm Activity tonight will extend from the plains eastward to the Atlantic. Cooler weather is expected in the upper lakes area, the middle Mississippi valley and northern New England.

Paperboard Output Near Record; Slip Reported in Orders

Chicago — United States mills last week produced 322,778 tons of paperboard, only about 500 tons under the record and 20 per cent more than in the like week last year. The industry operated at 96 per cent of capacity, compared with 94 per cent the week before when 318,694 tons were made.

Mills booked orders for less paperboard and also saw their backlogs fall behind a week earlier, but both new and unfilled business held up well above a year earlier.

The National Paperboard association said mills received orders for 282,374 tons and ended the week with a 485,085-ton backlog. In the like week last year, new business totaled 240,015 tons and the

You Get MORE WITH MERION KENTUCKY BLUEGRASS

More and more people will plant a MERION lawn this spring—people who take pride in a luxurious setting for their home and demand easy lawn maintenance. Here's why:

- MORE BEAUTY
MERION's thick, vigorous growth and deep green color make a weed-free, carpet-like turf ideal for outdoor sports. Retains its color during hot summer months, won't "brown out."
- MORE ECONOMY
More seeds per pound give greater coverage, produce more roots per inch. Rapid, spreading growth quickly crowds out weeds—even crabgrass! Disease resistant. Your best buy!
- MERION MIXTURES
For spring planting, use a mixture to aid early greening. Be sure the mixture contains at least 40% MERION.

SEE MERION Seedling, Inc. for more information on lawn building and care.

Lawrence Says: Herter Says U. S. Won't Talk Under Duress

Tells Gromyko That West Berlin Threat Is Now Futile

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Geneva — Face to face, Christian Herter has told the foreign minister of the Soviet Union, Andrei Gromyko, that America will not go to the summit conference under duress—that is, while any threat to impose a new military set-up in West Berlin is still in effect.

This episode, which occurred at a dinner given here by the British foreign secretary, Selwyn Lloyd, a few nights ago, means more than all the four-power conference proposals that have been aired at the for-mal sessions of the four-power conference of foreign ministers in Geneva.

Gromyko argued that, in objection to the ultimatum to the western allies to get out of West Berlin, the deadline of May 27 representative make a speech was just a date pulled out of without giving the other three the air. He did not intend to foreign ministers a chance to mention it till the end of the object.
